

WORLD'S FAIR GAME

One of Two Contests in California to Take Place at Stadium on Grounds.

DATES FOR BATTLES SET

O. A. C. Team and Its Opponents to Be Only Ones to Use American Style of Playing at Panama Pacific Exposition.

By ROSCOE FAWCETT.

World's Fair visitors will see one of the crack teams of Northwest football in action next Fall. Dr. E. J. Stewart, head coach at the Oregon Agricultural College, yesterday announced the signing of two games in California for 1916.

The first of these inter-sectional clashes will be with the Pomona collegians at Los Angeles Wednesday, November 24. The second will be the return game with the University of Southern California at San Francisco Saturday, November 27.

This means that the proposed Washington-Oregon Aggie battle for next Thanksgiving day at Seattle, which will have to be disposed of earlier in the season.

Teams to Be Only Ones of Kind. "As I understand it now," explained Dr. Stewart last night, "we and our opponents will be the only college teams playing the American game to appear in the Exposition stadium next Fall. This may not be the case, but I am inclined to believe so."

Manager Boyd, of the University of Southern California. He did the scheduling for me.

Portland yesterday en route home to Corvallis from Tacoma, where the Aggie rode in a gliding frock, and the Southern, 38-6. The Southerners also were in the city last night and went through the Multnomah Club.

Fred Kelly, the present world's champion hurdler, is a member of the California squad. Which prompts the remark that Portland played host to the three greatest hurdlers last evening.

Forrest Smithson Back. Forrest Smithson, winner of the London Olympic hurdles, is back in his home town again. Mrs. Smithson presented husband with a 104-pound boy a few days ago. Martin Heine, world champion at the St. Louis Olympiad two years ago, also is a Portland product. Kelly completes the trio of high timber experts.

Coach Glaze possesses one end named James, who is as good as anything I have ever bumped against. Kelly proved a hard man to tackle. He was an adept at handling his feet and shifting. But the champion hurdler didn't appear to like hard tackling, for he ran out of bounds at every opportunity.

About 7000 attended the game, but as Tacoma's beautiful stadium can seat about 30,000, the crowd looked like a few peas in a peck measure.

Bill Hayward, the Oregon trainer, thinks that all football and basketball officials should be trained alike. "It's hard for the players to pick out their men for passes," explained Bill yesterday. "In some of our games we didn't pick out our men for passes even on a muddy day white shirts would help."

The Oregon coach first was struck with a hard tackle in a basketball game last winter. The referee wore a blue jersey and the players kept passing the ball to him.

How's this for an All-Irish team for the Northwest: Ends, Schauer, Heg; tackles, Laythe and Anderson; guards, Groninger and Utter; center, Hanson; quarterback, Hoover; halves, Newman and Lutz; fullback, Abrams.

Or this for an All-Ecclesiastical: Church, Ie, Yale; Parson, H., Hayward; Church, Ie, Pontine H. S., Bhard; Andrews, C. R. N. S., Bhard; Abbott, R., Olivet; Pope, R., Hamilton; Goodman, Gb., Pacific U.; Bishop, Ie, Whitman; Parsons, R., Oregon; Angell, Fb., Turfts.

The University of Washington loses one of its regulars in the football squad. Anderson, all-star tackle, has played four years, and, anyway, he is a post-graduate, taking football now. Charlie Soccer, graduate, has come back, as he was not a regular until 1913, when Bud Young's injury gave him opportunity to him. Tony Savage, right tackle, is the other outgoing player.

Multnomah clubmen will meet within a few days to elect a leader for the 1915 squad. Fermost among those mentioned are Patsy O'Rourke, star tackle and center, and George Philbrook, back; George Philbrook, tackle and end; and Grover Francis, halfback. O'Rourke has played longer for the club and has played any other member of the quartet.

SOCCER PLAYERS ARE WANTED High School Students Invited to Be on Hand for Practice.

More high school soccer players are wanted for the various squads in the Portland Soccer Football Association. Manager Rankin, of the Thistles, has issued a call for practice on the Peninsula Park grounds for tomorrow afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, at which any unincumbered high schooler is asked to be on hand. The Thistles will play their first contest against the Multnomah Club week from today on Multnomah Field.

Manager John D. Dwyer will start on the following Monday eleven from the various school players will be pitted against the club men.

The first lineup will be picked from the following: Goalkeepers, Mackie, Grier, Martin and Matthews; backs, Sammons, Morris, Dwyer, Conroy and Jacobberger; halves, Shelvin, Dixon, Jacobson, Wright, Grey and Mackenzie, forwards.

ABERDEEN BEATS COLUMBIA Defeat First for University Since Portland Academy 1913 Game.

For the first time since the game with Portland Academy in October, 1913, the Columbia University football team was defeated Thanksgiving day at Aberdeen. The Portland eleven went down to a 13-to-13 defeat at the hands of the high schoolers of that place.

The points for the Washingtonians were scored in the first half and it was not until the last quarter that the collegians dented the Aberdeen goal.

line. Captain Nixon and Hughie McKenna each put across a touchdown in the last frame. The big star of the match was Foulkes, of Aberdeen, who registered five touchdowns through the aid of forward passes.

HOGAN WOULD SHIFT WOLVES Changes to Come if Venetian Becomes Manager, He Says.

Hap Hogan, of Venice, is credited in a recent interview in Los Angeles with saying that he intended to make several changes in the Sacramento-Mission team if he takes the leadership of it. He previously has attended a monster mass meeting given in his honor by business men in Sacramento.

He learned the lesson in talking to the Wolves unless they are offered by one or two individuals, it is said. He learned the lesson in talking to the Fresno club. When the Fresno fans got the Coast League fever they decided the town and every one put in from $20 up. The town could not support the club, however, and the franchise was taken up by the league.

Not long ago Hogan was paying a visit to Fresno. He entered a cigar store and deposited a $20 note, picked out a perfect and stood waiting for his change. "You haven't any change coming," the clerk replied, pocketing the greenback. "I owned $20 worth of stock in the Fresno club and this just makes me even."

BEZDEK PICKS ALL-STAR TEAM Groninger Nearly Wins Place but Anderson Is Given Preference.

Hugo Bezdek, the great coach of the University of Oregon football team, thinks Johnny Beckett is the best tackle in the Northwest conference. Coach Bezdek named his all-star choice Thursday night at the selection of center. But for his illness, he thinks likely would have been the unanimous choice.

Mr. Bezdek's mythical star team follows: Ends, Tyrer, Washington State, and Huntley, Oregon; tackle, Beckett, Oregon, and Anderson, Washington; guards, Moore, Oregon Aggies, and Lutz, Oregon; halfbacks, Parson, Oregon, and Miller, Washington; fullback, Abraham, Oregon Aggies.

Coach Bezdek wavered on one tackle choice between Anderson of Washington and Groninger of Idaho.

Groninger is a wonderful tackle and with an ideal build. "I'd like to name him for an all-star choice, but I guess I'll have to give it to Anderson for his greater experience."

Pete Muldoon Preparing Portland Team for Battle.

FAST WORK ON ICE NOTED

Other Members of Hippodrome Outfit Expected Today and Moose Johnson, Due Sunday, Will Complete Aggregation.

Many of those who have been under the impression that ice hockey was a "gentleman's" game have received a surprising shock, dispelling all former theories, during the past two days at the Ice Hippodrome.

Pete Muldoon, veteran trainer and coach, has been busy whipping into shape the Portland team of the Pacific Coast Hockey League preliminary to the first big encounter, which is scheduled for December 8, when the Vancouver (B. C.) puckchasers meet the Hippodrome squad on the local rink.

"Hi! Look out!" excitedly shouted one bystander at yesterday afternoon's practice, "he's shooting the puck at you!"

The bystander was afraid goaltender Mike Mitchell, the former star of the Winnipeg Monarchs, was going to get hurt. 8-as-1st, and the puck shot through the air direct at the goal.

Coach Bezzek was tending. Again the anxious bystander yelled a warning.

Return Is Prompt. Mike didn't appear to notice anything, but when the puck got into close range the netman casually reached out with his hockey stick and stopped the puck effectively. Then he shot the little rubber disc half way up to the other end of the ice.

The Muldoon's pride, Art Troop, carried the puck along the ice with dazzling speed.

Coach Bezzek, admiringly shouted the bystander, "see that boy 'Some' speed; if he does that way in the regular games Portland will win the world's hockey series. He was just like a streak of lightning."

Mike played with the Grand Forks team in the Boundary League and won the championship very long ago. His playing caused a lot of talk in major league circles and several tempting offers were made before he finally signed up with Portland.

Troop Sees Long Service. Art Troop, the veteran forward, has been in professional ranks for 11 years. He was a member of the Toronto Maple Leafs, several times in Canada, and last year played with New Westminster. He will play center.

Other members of the Hippodrome club are expected today, and "Moose" Johnson telegraphed J. George Keller, secretary and treasurer of the Hippodrome, yesterday that he would arrive Sunday. Johnson's arrival is expected to make up the full team.

Ran McDonald has been playing professional hockey five years. In 1909 and 1910 he was a member of the Fort Williams team.

Fred Harris, better known to hockey followers as "Smokey" because of his "burning" speed, broke into professional hockey in 1911 with the Vancouver club. Harris is rated one of the best checkers in the game, and because of his skill in forcing back the puck he is generally assigned to play either point or center point.

Mike Mitchell, the guardian of the nets, is the only player who has not been in professional major league circles.

ATHLETICS MAY GET CALDWELL Trade Involving Oldring and Lapp May Save Star From Federalists.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—A baseball trade between the New York and Philadelphia American League clubs, involving Ray Caldwell, of the Yankees, and Oldring and Lapp, of the Athletics, is under consideration, according to reports published here today.

President Ben Johnson, of the American League, is said to have urged Connie Mack while on a recent visit East, to arrange the deal with the double purpose of saving Caldwell from the Federal League, with which he is reported to have signed for next season, and of strengthening the New York club for the good of the circuit.

TITLE CLAIMED BY CHEMAWAS Pacific University Asked to Settle Non-Conference Supremacy.

Because of their 66-to-7 victory over Albany College on Thanksgiving day the Chemawa Indians claim the non-conference football championship of Oregon and their only opponent, the Pacific University, of Forest Grove. The manager of the Indians has issued a challenge to the collegians for a game to be played on any neutral grounds any time next week.

Three of the regulars of Chemawa aggregation were out of the contest against Albany, due to injuries. Quarterback Donnie, halfback Adams and Lineman Fields warmed the bench.

BROOKLYNS DEFEAT OSWEGO Forward Passes and Fast Open Plays Conquer Heavy Team.

The Brooklyn eleven defeated the heavy Oswego team, 14 to 0, Thanksgiving day on the Oswego field in a fast but roughly played contest. Despite the effective work of the 200-pound backfield on their light line, the visitors by a series of long forward passes and fast open plays scored a touchdown in the third period and "Cliff" Shinn kicked goal.

During the last two periods, the visitors were represented by only 19 men but again science overcame "beef" and seven more tallies in the third quarter gave the Brooklyn team decisive victory over the Oswego eleven.

WOMEN WILL BOWLE AT CLUB Party Being Arranged to Take Advantage of New Privilege.

The women's auxiliary of the Multnomah Club has been granted the privilege of bowling on the alleys Saturday nights from 7:30 to 10:30. No women took advantage of the new ruling last Saturday but a party has been organized for tonight and a large number of women expect to enjoy the sport.

The Junior entrance on the east side of the building will be used.

CHURCH FRET AT PRANK Battle Announcement Pasted on Door Causes Trouble—Fights Called Impossible Under New Knockout Rule of Officer.

By EDWARD HILL. A card announcing boxing bouts in the City Hall, placed on the front door of a church by the "village cut-up," nearly caused the calling off of the bats at St. Helens on Thanksgiving, according to Bud Anderson, who won handsily from Bobby Evans in six rounds.

Before the fight the Sheriff went to the boxers and told them they would be arrested if there were any knockouts," said the Vancouver boy yesterday. He gave this as his reason for letting Evans go the full six rounds when it was evident to the small gathering of fans that the ex-Portland newsboy was all but out.

St. Helens Bouts Called Poor. It would not take that great disapproval to tell what kind of bouts have been perpetrated at St. Helens of late. Portland fans refused to patronize the Thanksgiving show. Besides the small or so of managers and two dozen trainers and seconds, all of whom went to the paper, there were few fight fans from Portland who took the road for the scene of the battles Thursday.

If St. Helens wants to get the Portland and the fans from other nearby towns to turn out to its boxing shows there will have to be a radical change in the running order of things, the preliminary "dubs" that never before have had a mitt on will have to be chucked into the discard. In their stead they will have to select boys who are able to make a showing in theiristic endeavors.

Prices Thought Too High. No boxing fan, no matter how well he might like to see two boys in a ring, will sit through 10 or 15 rounds of listless plunging between youngsters who do not know the least bit about boxing. Thirty miles is a long way to go when such bouts as the St. Helens club so far has offered are put on. The prices also are too high. The local amateur smokes we have had here in Portland this Fall and Winter have far surpassed any offered at St. Helens.

At St. Helens it seems to be a case of too many fingers in the pie. The boys who are to fight take an awful dislike to the Sheriff's price. It is the job to make an arrest in case of a knockout. A boxer cannot show his kinks co-operated with the numerals and for once the fans knew everything that was going on. "Red" Rupert is a hardy individual, for he wore number 13.

Notes of Oregon-Multnomah Game. The numbering system made a big hit with the crowd. Announcer Hawkins co-operated with the numerals and for once the fans knew everything that was going on. "Red" Rupert is a hardy individual, for he wore number 13.

"Chub" Cherry, Multnomah's 240-pound veteran center, came up from Astoria to participate. Cherry was as jovial as usual.

"Doc" Ahkman, the club trainer, said the only injury sustained by his men was a broken finger by Guard Rogers, the gritty 170-pounder on the club squad.

Coach Bezzek hurried home to Eugene on the first train after the game and the squad was in charge of Trainer Hayward last night.

The actual paid attendance was 2766 and the receipts close to $2500.

Washington Trades for Rondaner. WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Manager Griffith of the Washington club today notified American League officials that he had released Players Cashin and Williams, pitchers; Wilson, a catcher; and Jennings and Holman, infielders, to the Minneapolis American Association club for Henri Rondaner, catcher and outfielder.

Y. M. C. A. WRESTLERS CONTEST Meet at Sellwood Association Goes, in Mall, to East Siders.

In the first interassociation boxing and wrestling tournament between the Central Young Men's Christian Association and the Sellwood institution in the Sellwood club building, the East Siders took two wrestling and drew in the same number of boxing events. More than 300 persons witnessed the contest.

In the basketball game the Sellwood quintet triumphed over the Vancouver Barracks, 61 to 20, and Prope was the big star of the winners.

M. C. A. Prope, of Sellwood, went to a draw at 153 pounds. Boxer, of Sellwood, fought a draw with Lynch, of Ardenwald Athletic Club, at 125 pounds, and Prope, of Sellwood, and Williams, of the Army, did not have each other on account of a decision to be rendered at 145 pounds.

DEAL FOR SEALS MEETS SNAG Olympic Club's Claims on Recreation Park May Block Sale.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Tom Stephens said that the claims of the Olympic Club on Recreation Park may further hold up the negotiations for the purchase of the Seals by the Berry brothers and himself.

Stephens said the matter is worrying him and he intends to get into communication with Hen Berry, in Los Angeles, for if it is true that the Olympic Club has a claim on the Valencia-street grounds, it will mean that the plans formed by Berry and Stephens will go astray.

"It will certainly create one grand mixup, if we cannot get Recreation Park to play on next year," says Stephens, "and all our negotiations for the San Francisco club no mention has been made to us that the Olympic Club holds a lease or anything as good on the old grounds. It is a foregone conclusion that we will not go back to Ewing Field and if we cannot get the Valencia-street grounds it means that the deal is off."

LANGFORD BOUT IS BARRED San Francisco Supervisors Fear Contest Would Be "Fixed."

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—The police committee of the supervisors has decided to prohibit Sam

Langford from boxing in this city next Friday night as proposed. The committee believes that any four-round affair in which Langford would engage would be fixed in advance, and says that for the protection of the public his appearance in the ring here should not be allowed.

Supervisors Hilmer and Hooks, of the committee today expressed their dissatisfaction with recent local bouts, averring that they looked like fakes.

BULLEN PUTS UP GOOD FIGHT Ollie Hill Nearly Meets Match at Hawthorne Club Smoker.

In Arthur Bullen, a clever youngster appearing in the ring for the first time, Ollie Hill nearly met his match last night at the Hawthorne Club smoker. Bullen gives much promise. He boxes left-handed, extending his right foot. Seven bouts of the slugging order were carded by the club.

DERELICTS' HOME ASKED "MOTHER" LAWRENCE PRESENTS PLAN TO COMMISSION.

Council Looks With Favor on Proposal to Buy Land Cheaply for Inmates to Improve.

A detention home for men may be established by the city if a proposal made by the Council yesterday to purchase a tract of land near Scappoose, where a farm can be established for derelicts, is adopted.

"Mother" Lawrence, which is her most familiar name, proposes to purchase 640 acres of land near Scappoose, where a farm can be established for derelicts, who frequent the Municipal Court and the City Jail, provided the city will assist her in financing the proposition.

It is the plan to buy the land at $6.25 an acre and after having inmates of the home improve it, sell the land to them or to others and put the money into a rotary fund for the maintenance of the institution. The Council in considering the proposal yesterday decided that if "Mother" Lawrence would get a committee or a commission behind her the plan might be acceptable. Commissioner Daily objected to handling the proposition through one individual, saying that it should be handled by a commission, committee or an organization.

Commissioner Brewster has had the proposal in hand for some time, and has held conferences with Municipal Judge Lawrence on the subject. It is thought it would be an exceptionally good thing.

In considering the proposition of seasonal employment yesterday, the Council decided to urge the contractor receiving the contract for the Willow Grove and East Second street trunk sewer, to engage the unemployed on the work. The contract amounts to $175,000. Bids have been submitted by George E. Thompson, Democratic candidate, by 18 votes, and was duly declared elected Sheriff of Clarke County Judge Back, of the Superior Court, today.

The total vote for Biesecker, as shown by the recount, was 3450, and Thompson 3422, leaving a majority of 18 for Biesecker. Biesecker, on November 13, took his oath of office, when he received his certificate of election from the County Auditor.

The official count had given Biesecker a majority of only two. In the recount Biesecker gained 37 votes and Thompson lost 21, adding 16 to Biesecker's majority.

It was alleged by a number of election officials that the ballot was marked with a cross at the top of the Republican ticket, and a cross opposite the name of the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, that it was counted as a straight ticket for the Republicans. Other irregularities in labeling were alleged.

TRONSON CASE HELD UP CAPITAL PUNISHMENT VOTE IS TO DETERMINE CHARGE.

Attorneys Think No Punishment Provided for First Degree Murder. Insanity Will Be Plea.

The murder charge against Fred Tronson, confessed assassin of Emma Ulrich, will not be taken forward to the grand jury until Secretary of State Olcott formally announces the result of the vote on the amendment to abolish capital punishment, said Deputy District Attorney Collier last night. This announcement is expected within a few days.

Complete but unofficial returns show that the amendment abolishing the death penalty has carried by a small margin. The official count, however, shows this to be true, a charge of second degree murder, for which life imprisonment is the heaviest penalty, will be brought against Tronson.

"If any man should hang, I believe Tronson should. That's why I'm waiting for the official count," said Mr. Collier.

Tronson's conduct during a stay at a hospital near St. Paul, Or., last September is now being investigated. It is believed that Tronson had made himself obnoxious to women on several occasions, and once, during an altercation with another hop-picker, drew a pistol on those who were in the yard believed him a dangerous character, says a recent dispatch from St. Paul.

Tronson's attorneys have announced that insanity would be their defense.
