HELPING HANDS ARE

CLUBWOMEN WORKING TO BRING CHEER AT CHRISTMAS.

Offerings of Various Descriptions Being Brought to Meetings for Distribution to Poor.

For the next fortnight it will be no unusual thing for the prominent clubwomen of Portland to be seen carrying bulky packages and awkward bundles to the meetings of the former.

The leading women's clubs of Portland are getting in line with the army of organizations that are taking up the campaign for Christmas cheer among the poor and needy of the city.

To many of the meetings to be held this week and next the club members will take useful articles, glasses of jelly, bright pieces of ribbon suitable for hairbows and articles of clothing suitable for distribution among those who without the aid of some friendly visitor would find Christmas one of the gloomiest days of the year.

Mrs. G. J. Frankel, president of the Portland Women's Club and of the Monday Musical Club, has appointed on the philanthropic committee of the former organization, Mrs. C. J. Smith and for the latter, Mrs. J. E. Bonbright. Other clubs are taking up the work and will gather and distribute Christmas gifts and cheer through their philanthropic departments. The Monday Musical Club will meet at 2 o'clock today in the home of Mrs. J. E. Bonbright, at William E. Boone on "The Symphony Orchestra." Music students of the city will be invited to give the program the members will arrange for their share in the Christmas giving which will take the form of a book of songs.

Next Friday the psychology, art and literature departments of the Portland Women's Club will assemble in the home of Woodruff Hall and another member will take with her a mysterious bundle in which will be some suitable article to be turned over to the philanthropic department.
