PROMINENT among the social affairs of the week was the elaborate ball given last night at the Masonic Temple by the Al Kader Temple, A. O. N. M. S. It was by far the most elaborate and brilliant ball ever given by this organization, as not only were the Shriners of this city present, but members of the order from all over the state arrived during the early week to participate in this notable event.

Special and artistic decorations made the temple unusually attractive, making a pleasing foil for the handsome gowns of the hundreds of women present.

Another interesting and delightful affair was the dinner-dance at the Commercial Club last night, under the direction of a committee of railroad and steamship men of Portland. The dining-room was made to resemble a Pullman car, and the committee to whom credit is due for the success of the daisant are J. E. Werlein, E. W. Mosher, Charles W. Stinger, C. W. Kennedy and E. M. Burns.

A surprise party was given Mrs. L. Blaufus, of Lents, on Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Nelson, at Silver Lake, Wash., celebrating Mrs. Blaufus' 63d birthday. Covers were laid for 19. The hostess was assisted by Miss Bertha Hubner. Mrs. Blaufus received many pretty presents. The invited guests were: Mesdames N. Churchill, P. G. Barns, E. J. Searles, E. Jones, Sam Patterson, H. Pettigrew, F. Amund, E. Wampler, F. Slaukey, Clarence Hitchford, J. P. Nelson, G. Hildebrandt, of Sellwood, and Mrs. L. Blaufus, of Lents, and Miss Bertha Hubner.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Ritter entertained delightfully in their new home in Rose City, on Thanksgiving day. A good old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner was served and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour, when the guests again enjoyed a feast. The guests included Messrs. and Mesdames Louis L. Sharp, Daniel H. Howell, Eugene F. Rice, A. Metcalf, Edward J. Condon, Mrs. Brockman, Maudie Jensen and Wilhelma Ritter.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon entertained the Mutual Art Association on Monday evening. The rooms were simply but prettily decorated with Oregon wraps, ferns and ivy. The dining-room was decked with festoons of ivy and clusters of red carnations. The following musicians contributed to the occasion: Piano solo, Miss Agnes Love; vocal solo, Miss Hazel Bradford; reading, "Ascent of Mount Vesuvius" (personal experience). Dr. Clement B. Groves, solo, Mrs. W. B. Hamilton; piano solo, Mordant Goodenough; vocal solo, Dr. Clement B. Groves, Mrs. F. Dowell and Mrs. W. Bradford, presided in the dining-room.

Specialties in song and dance will help in making the "Colonial Beaux and Belles of Dixieland" a big success. The show that is being planned for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association will be the event of December 14 and 15, and will be staged in the Hellig Theater.

Among the special attractions will be "The Land of My Best Girl," by J. H. Berry; "Poor Pauline," a comedy hit by King Bryson; "The Linger," by Hazel Koontz; "In the Candle Light," by Lewis Serr and Maire Roberts; "Bless the Day I First Met You," by Carl Day; "War in Siner's Grocery Store," by Billy Broad; "Red, White and Blue," by Dr. R. Emerson; society dancing by Miss Margaret Reader and Hugh A. Bernard. Marie Wynn will give a solo dance.

Among the bright shining stars will be Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman, Mrs. Delphine Marx, Mrs. Charles Henney and Miss Goldie Peterson.

Among the excellent men's voices will be heard Hartidge Whipp, C. E. Patterson, Norman Hoese and O. W. Davidson.

The Philolexian Debating Society, of Lincoln High School, was entertained at the home of Miss Hazel Bourne Saturday evening. Dancing and games were enjoyed. Those present were: Misses Hilma Fox, Dorothy Dunlavy, Myrtle Fisher, Marie Senn, Ellen Anderson, Gladie Borgey, Jessie Langgins, Ada Starkweather, Helen Jack, Eva Anderson, Henrietta Bettinger, Countryman, Gertrude G. Groves, Bodman, Jean Jacobs, Helen Goldman, Mary Bullock, Helen Brigham, Martha E. Charlotte, Dorothy M. E. Curdy, Anna Hart, Ellen Kropp, Annie Townsend, Agatha De Carlo, Lucille Evans, Alice Van Schoonhoven. The patronesses were: Miss Perry, Miss Smith, Miss Buckley.

One of the most delightful dancing parties of the season was enjoyed Saturday evening when scores of beautifully gowned young women quietly gathered for a charmingly arranged surprise party for Miss Anna Walker at her home on Terrace road. The entire residence was soon changed into a clubhouse and a cardroom was arranged for those not wishing to dance. Vocal numbers were rendered by Carl Carey and Miss Maud Hatfield. About 50 guests were present.

The ladies of the Altar Society of St. Patrick's Church will serve an elaborate dinner on Sunday in the auditorium, Nineteenth and Savier streets, from 7 to 8 o'clock.

Miss Frances Faber, daughter of A. H. Faber, one of Portland's leading architects, and her husband, the son of Arthur Languth, State Senator, and former president of Multnomah Bar Association, were married last night at the home of the bride's parents, 360 Aland avenue. Rev. J. E. Snyder, of Piedmont Presbyterian Church, officiating. J. Leslie Cogswell, of Cedarville, Or., acted as best man and Miss Dorothy Donaldson as bridesmaid.

Mrs. M. E. Upton announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Rena V. Kuhn, to Ira H. Morgan, of California. The interesting news has just reached this city, where the bride formerly resided. She visited here last for three weeks in the summer. The wedding took place at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Redwood City, Cal., and was a simple affair.

The bridegroom is associated with the Liberty Film Company of San Mateo, Cal., of which organization the bride is leading lady.

The Drama League, Portland branch, will meet today in the Tyrolean room, Hotel Benson. Rabbi Jonah B. Wise will lecture on Ibsen's "Enemy of the People."

Miss Margaret Clement entertained Saturday with a delightful informal luncheon complimenting the L. M. Club. Covers were laid for the Misses Myri Adis, Lea Worthley, Vera Eckland, Elfreda and Henrietta Rouce, Mildred Hicks, Lillian Homan, Helena Manchester, Ruth Humphrey and the hostess.

A charming family dinner was presided over by Mrs. E. B. Gilbert on

THE Daughters of the American Revolution are going to inaugurate some practical work for the American Red Cross Society. Mrs. John F. Beaumont, state regent of the D. A. R., has called a meeting of the members of all chapters for Friday morning at 10 o'clock in Lipman, Wolfe & Company's store, seventh floor. Ways and means for the relief of suffering and the refugees in Europe will be discussed. The women probably will meet every week to sew for those who are suffering as a result of this great war. Mrs. Walter F. Burrell has been appointed by Mrs. Beaumont to serve as state chairman of the relief committee. One member from each chapter will assist Mrs. Burrell. These women will be the chairmen of the relief committees in their separate chapters. The money for the materials used will be spent here. Mrs. Beaumont is anxious that all members of the Daughters of the American Revolution attend the meeting and in some way assist in the good work.

Deutsches Haus will be the scene of the annual bazaar and entertainment of the Women's Auxiliary of the German Red Cross Society, which will open tomorrow and will continue until Saturday night. There will be a fine musical and pantomime programme. A special feature will be the sale of German "pfeffer kuchen" and other cakes for which the German housewife is famous. The refreshment booth, the apron and fancy work departments and the delicatessen booth will be popular features. Mrs. Theresa Abendroth is president of the society.

The Wednesday morning art class met in the Art Museum yesterday morning, and the members enjoyed a scholarly and interesting address by Professor Harry Beal Torrey.

Mrs. L. W. Therkelsen has returned from a visit in San Francisco, where she was entertained by friends. Mrs. Therkelsen is a cousin of Mrs. Mary McHenry Keith, president of the California Woman Suffrage Association. She is one of the members of the advisory council of the Congressional Union and is active in club and philanthropic work.

The Bible Study Class met Tuesday afternoon in the Library, room A. Rabbi Jonah B. Wise gave an interesting address to the members.

The social service department of the Portland Parent-Teacher Association will meet in room H, Library, Thursday at 1 o'clock.

The Coterie held their Christmas programme yesterday morning in the Hotel Benson with a round-table of interesting "Christmas plums" of wit and wisdom after the programme.

Several hundred members of the Council of Jewish Women attended the regular meeting of the organization yesterday in the Pual Brith Hall. After an interesting business session Mrs. Henrietta W. Bolin presented a domestic science and art at Oregon Agricultural College, gave an interesting and inspiring address. She traced the history of the new woman through the various phases of the last 50 years and urged the importance of the proper education of the girls of today if they may be fitted to take their place as fine, womanly women. Mrs. Calvin spoke of the home as the end, the foundation of everything that is best in the country. She said that girls should be taught the intelligent way to care for the home and the selection and preparation of foods.

"We are not only responsible for our own children," said Mrs. Calvin, "but we are responsible for hundreds of others. The splendid settlement work done by such organizations as yours is one of the greatest factors for the progress of the country and for the foundation of a definite plan of education for those who are growing up. She spoke of the housewife of long ago and of those of today, and said that she was glad to see the responsibility and an opportunity for her to attend so carefully to her duties as a woman, a mother and a citizen that all who knew her would "rise up and call her blessed."

The cook book committee reported progress and stated that the book that contains all the choicest recipes of the members of the council was selling well in all parts of Oregon. Orders are being received from club and society women in all the states as well as in Portland. Miss T. Rose Goodman reported that the employment committee was doing a vast amount of practical charitable work and that work was needed for many. She asked all who have "odd jobs" to report them to Mrs. L. Risen, chairman, as yours is one of the greatest factors for the progress of the country and for the foundation of a definite plan of education for those who are growing up. She spoke of the housewife of long ago and of those of today, and said that she was glad to see the responsibility and an opportunity for her to attend so carefully to her duties as a woman, a mother and a citizen that all who knew her would "rise up and call her blessed."

The women of Hope Presbyterian Church will hold a bazaar at the Yamhill Public Market, Second and Yamhill streets, beginning Tuesday, December 8. There will be articles suitable for Christmas gifts, dainty garments for the baby and children and fancy aprons.

The women of the Hawthorne Park Presbyterian Church will hold their second annual bazaar in the church basement parlors. Useful articles and home-made candy will be offered for sale, also home-made candy. There also will be a cafeteria supper from 5:30 to 8 P. M.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Pat- ton Methodist Episcopal Church will hold its annual bazaar all day tomorrow in the church, Michigan ave-nu and Alberta street. Luncheon will be served at noon and dinner at 6 o'clock. Home-made candies, fancywork and aprons will be found in gaily decorated booths. Ice cream and cakes will be served.

The annual sale of work and supper of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, at Holgate and Forty-second streets Southeast, will be held Friday afternoon and night of this week in the basement parlors. Useful articles and home-made candy will be on sale. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock.

The women of the German Red Cross Society, of Portland, will hold a bazaar at the "Deutsches Haus," Thirtieth near Jefferson streets, December 4 and 5. The St. Paul's German Church choir will sing on the opening night. Mrs. Corolla Barker Carse will be the soloist and G. Hashien will direct. A Yama Yama dance will be given Saturday afternoon by a number of girls, including Lenore Blaesing, Eunice Cowell, Laura Shay, Jeanne McDonald, Gladys Ramsey, Dorothy Logan and Marjorie Leet. The Action Philharmonic Society and Miss Gertrude Hoerber, violinist, will render music Saturday night and the Social Turn Verein girls will give an exhibition.

A bazaar and cafeteria dinner will be given in the Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church on Friday by the women of the church. All who are interested are invited. Good home cooking will

Coffee and the Cop

A booklet, "How to Keep Well," prepared under the eye of the Police Surgeon and the Health Commissioner, and distributed to the New York Policemen—the finest police force extant—among other suggestions, says:

"Strong Coffee and Tea are Always Harmful"

Coffee and tea both contain the drugs, caffeine and tannin, which often cause headache, biliousness, heart flutter, sleeplessness, and other ills.
