Contributions to Associated Charities Far More Than They Were Year Ago.

Relief Work Goes On, Keeping Pace With Donations—Two Women Receive Groceries and Others Aided in Other Ways.

Total $1018.83 Donations of cash should be sent to Secretary V. R. Manning, 411 Commercial Block, to R. S.
Howard, at Ladd & Tilton Bank, or to The Oregonian. Donations of clothing and supplies should go to the Associated Charities, 411 Commercial Block.

Past the $1000 mark went the Christmas fund of the Associated Charities yesterday.

This puts the donations this year far in advance of the amount received at a similar time a year ago, and indicates that the charities are to receive a greater fund for relief work in the coming year than ever before.

The donations of cash represent only a part of the help that the Associated Charities are extending to the people of Portland through the medium of the Associated Charities.

"The cupboard is bare," remarked H.
F. Rittman, of the Log Cabin Bakery, yesterday, when he called upon the Associated Charities and looked at the grocery department, out of which supplies for immediate relief work are drawn.

Bakery Goods Given.
Then he announced that he would contribute a large donation of bread and bakery goods every day throughout the winter to the charities, and that the charities are to receive work that the charities are conducting.

Among other gifts received yesterday were donations of clothing by Mrs. S.
Barette, Mrs. H. C. Boyer, Mrs. Herbert Haid, M. C. Jeffers and M. Alsworth.
The "Tilly" Meat Company sent in a supply of beef and pork, and Seattle gave a fine basketful of groceries.

The relief work goes on, keeping pace with the donations of material with which to help the needy. The cases helped yesterday was a widow with five children, who received groceries enough to last until her pension from the county is granted.

Another Woman Helped.
Another woman, who is expecting to be a mother, received a supply of baby clothes and groceries, and to care for her and the four children, who are dependent on her. One woman, who has a rooming house, but no roomers, appeared at the charities to help until she can get herself established and received enough to tide her over the present straits.

Work was provided for a man who has a family to support, and who had been reduced to a condition of destitution. Clothing, groceries and supplies sufficient to care for the family until he receives his first pay were given.

Arrangements were made to send a poor woman to the hospital for treatment and to have her children cared for while she is ill.

These are only a few typical cases out of a score or more in which relief was given yesterday.

Among the cases that have come in recently for attention and which the Christmas relief fund is to serve, the following are typical:

Opportunity 20. Boy Wants to Help Parents.

The 16-year-old son in one family of four children is a bit of a "dud" clothes so that he can go out and acquire work and help his mother support the family.

The entire burden of the support of the four children has fallen on his mother's shoulders for a long time and the family is in serious need. The boy is in need not only of clothing, but of assistance in finding work, and the family needs temporary supplies until the son can begin earning enough to care for it.

Opportunity 46. Invalid Aids Help for Children.

Following is a letter which was received from a widow:

"I hope you will pardon me for appealing to you for help. I am alone, no one to keep me, and two little boys support me. I am crippled with rheumatism so I can hardly use my hands from one day to the next. A friend told me what good work your association was doing, and I applied to you for help, as I am out of food and have no food in the house, nor money with which to buy fuel or food. I hope you will help me, if possible, as I do not know what to do.

"I am trying to keep the little boys in school, but it looks hard to send them to school hungry. So hoping you will assist me, as it is the first time I have ever had to ask help, and I hope you will not think hard of me, coming to you.

"May God bless you."

SELLING'S CHOICE IS SURE
self outside the county before the caucus.

True to their caucus agreement these three candidates, immediately after Mr.
Selling had been named, asked their respective supporters to vote for Mr.
Selling. As a result the votes have been tumbling into the Selling camp almost uninterruptedly from the time the news of the Selling endorsement began spreading over the state.

As W. Lair Thompson, of Lakeview, seems certain of election as President of the Senate, the organization of both houses will be a cut-and-dried affair before the Legislature convenes—all excepting the clerkship. It appears that the applicants for clerical positions are growing more numerous every day.

Chief Clerks Wanted Again.
The chief clerks of the last session are considered certain of re-election.
They are John W. Cochran in the Senate and W. F. Drager in the House.
John P. Hunt, of Woodburn, who has

Stringent Law Is Druggists' Desire

Retailers' Association Would Deny Right to Sell Liquor Even on Prescription.

Members Declared Unit Profession Anxious to Avoid Growth of Mushroom Stores and Subsequent Disgrace if "Bootlegging" Is to Be Tolerated.

Druggists of Oregon will insist that the next Legislature pass the most stringent laws within its power against the illicit sale of liquor by members of their profession.

Officers and members of the Retail Druggists' Association of Portland are insistent in their demands that the right to sell liquor—even on prescription—be denied to all drug stores in the state. They have appointed a committee to present their demands to the Legislature.

They want the Legislature to prescribe severe penalties against druggists who handle intoxicating liquor of any kind and declare that if the prohibition law is to be effective it must apply against drug stores as well as against the open saloon and the "blind pig."

The legitimate druggists of the state are anxious to preserve the integrity of their business. They know that if the Legislature does not take drastic action against the liquor-selling drug stores, their entire profession will be brought into serious disrepute.

"Without exception, the legitimate druggists of Portland—and I believe of other parts of the state—want to get out of the whiskey business entirely," said R. M. Plummer, president of the Portland association, yesterday.

"There is no profit for them, anyway, but under the old law a druggist had liquor—at least on prescription—to compete with others in the business."

Mushroom Growth Predicted.
"Now that the people have voted for prohibition, I believe that this manicure should be carried out in the spirit."

"We want the Legislature to give us laws that will be impossible to violate, and to spring up in the corner if the law is not made strictly enough. And that is what is sure to happen if the Legislature is allowed to handle liquor in any form."

"You hear the talk every day already that the drug stores will reap a profit from the sale of liquor. And it is true—certain drug stores will reap a profit. The legitimate drug stores are not in that kind of business. They want no such profits."

"But if these shady drug stores are allowed to come into existence, their illegal traffic will cast reflection upon the entire profession. The drug business is an honorable one and we are anxious to maintain its high standard."

The new law should be so drastic that drug stores will be prohibited from selling liquor on prescription. There can be certain regulation for the legitimate sale of alcohol and even then it will be hard for us to determine when alcohol is to be used for legitimate purposes and when it is not."

Druggists Have Committee.
The retail druggists' committee on proposed legislation consists of the following: A. W. Allen, E. A. Matthieu, W. L. Cotte, F. F. Jancke, F. A. Nichols and J. M. A. Laue.

A similar committee has been named by the druggists in the state at large.
It is as follows: George C. Blakely, of the Dalles; W. L. Cotte, of Portland; C. G. Huntley, of Oregon City; Dan J.
Fry, of Salem, and D. P. Mason, of Albany.

Members of this committee are equally anxious to have the sale of liquor among druggists restricted.

"The average drug store doesn't care how the Legislature handles the liquor business. It is concerned with the sale of legitimate goods, and the sale of legitimate goods is its business. It is not concerned with the sale of liquor."

"Of course there must be some restriction for the sale by drug stores of liquor for legitimate purposes, scientific, domestic and other purposes, but it can be done without violating the spirit of the prohibition law."

J. M. A. Laue said: "We want as strong and as drastic a law as can be drawn, and so far every druggist in Portland upon whom members of our committee have called agrees with us on this point."

"We don't want any 'cheap skate' in the business to sell liquor. We want everything done to keep the unscriptural dealer and the 'boozie joint' out.
The Legislature should penalize the dealer who sells liquor, and make the penalty as strong as it can. It should teach him an object lesson. Many of our members don't allow the sale of liquor for other than medicinal purposes now."

"We do not intend to handle a drop of liquor in our store, law or no law," said Frank Powers, of Powers & Estes.
"The Legislature should impose every restriction against the sale of liquor in drug stores and apply them to all druggists."

"There must be some provision for the sale of pure grain alcohol, although that provision will be abused.
I don't want to sell liquor even on prescription."

"In fact, I don't believe I have ever seen a legitimate prescription for liquor."

E. Strupler, manager for the Owl Drug Company, declares that the Legislature should pass a set of laws that will absolutely forbid the druggist from selling liquor.

"Any drug store that sells a drop of liquor is violating the prohibition law and is effecting a 'bootlegger' pure and simple," he said. "So far as the sale of pure grain alcohol is concerned, it is absolutely prohibited by the law, and even then it should be denatured."

The committee appointed by the druggists will hold an early meeting with the special committee of the Legislature of one hundred for the purpose of incorporating their views into the proposed prohibition law to be presented to the Legislature.

VIM PROMISED IN SCHOOL
O. M. Angier Takes Charge of Y. M.
C. A. Trade Department.

"Spunk and progressiveness are characteristic of the people of this Coast.
It is my purpose to utilize those characteristics to build up the trades department of the Young Men's Christian Association."

With the usual brevity of a man who has made a success of his own business, O. M. Angier, a retired Boston capitalist, outlined his programme yesterday as general business manager of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Modern big business methods were brought to the association when Mr.
Angier took charge yesterday. For years he has been owner and manager of the Angier automobile supply houses of New England and has turned over the active management of the firm's affairs to his son that he might enter the association work.

REVIVALS ARE ARRANGED
Services by United East Side Churches to Start January 1.

At the meeting of the committees from East Side churches at luncheon at the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday, arrangements were completed for starting the union evangelical meetings at the tabernacle to be built on the block bounded by East Morrison, East Eighth, East Ninth and Belmont streets, January 1. Committees on new building, publicity, music and half a dozen other branches of the work were authorized by the general committee.

It was announced that Evangelist Bulgin, who will have charge of the services, had provided for erection of the tabernacle, and work will start within 10 days. Ten East Side churches have joined in these meetings. Rev.
W. O. Swank is chairman of the general committee.

several hundred East Side business men will attend one day.

The Third-Streeters' Association will hold a meeting tonight and an effort will be made to have a special day for that organization, probably Thursday.
The Portland Realty Board will make arrangements for membership day, which probably will be the coming Wednesday.

Vancouver business men's organizations and the Commerce Club have al-taken up and definitely settled tonight in Vancouver.

The annual complimentary breeder's banquet will be given at 8 P. M. next Thursday at the Imperial Hotel. Instead of at the Commercial Club.
The offices of President Chase and Secretary Covell will be established in the Elizabethan room at the Imperial.

ficials from out of town are expected to arrive in the city Sunday night and Monday morning.
