Loren Seward on Trial Due to Alleged Attentions to Woman.

Loren Seward was placed on trial yesterday in District Court on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, pre-ferred by W. B. Nutting, a steepleack, as a step in the troubles of Seward due to his alleged attentions to Mrs. Nut-ting. The testimony brought out that Nutting had given a beating to Seward and had sued him for alleged allenation of the affections of Mrs. Nutting. The suit was withdrawn later. It was shown at the hearing that Seward was found by Nutting in the passed between the two and Nutting followed Seward down town and brought about his arrest.
