MUSIC TO BE NOTEWORTHY FEA TURE OF NEXT ROSE FESTIVAL.

S. C. Pier, in Charge of Entertalnment. Proposes to Send Visitors on Their Way Rejoicing.

Far from being in the background, musical features will contribute a large share toward the success of the coming Rose Festival, according to S. C. Pier, of the Festival Board, who is in charge of this division of the work. While the musical details have not been fully worked out, the outlines have been cast and many novel features in the line of vocal music are in preparation.

tures in the line of vocal music are in preparation.

"It is proposed, in harmony with "The City Beautiful," to make the musical feature prominent and striking in the coming Rose Festival." declared Mr. Pier yesterday. "The throngs of tourists that are expected to visit our festival and the Panama-Pacific Exposition will see and enjoy a festival of song such as they have never heard before, one that will send them on

"It is the purpose of the directors that the Festival may be rampant with beauty, music and song—that the visitors may see the whole city all the time in celebration.

"The influence of music extends into practically every home, for there is nothing in all the world that appeals to the human heart like music, as it is always the soul of galety and festival spirit.

"It is believed that through this medium the popular interest in the Rose Festival will be greatly enhanced this year.

"The general supervision of the vocal music has been placed in the hands of J. H. Gowen, who is imbued with the thought of music everywhere and all the time.

"The plans in view are claborate and beautiful and should eclipse any effort that has been attempted heretofore in the West, and in every way will be entirely worthy of "The City of Roses."
