SHILOO AUXILIARY RAISING DONATIONS

The Shiloh W. C. C. auxiliary, of which Mrs. W. C. C. is president, is raising, in addition to its work among the needy families of Shiloh, a box of Christmas toys to be forwarded to the Associated Charities. The latter part of the week contributions may be left with Mrs. Palmer at her home, 574 Madison avenue. Mrs. J. B. Renner, secretary of the auxiliary, is raising funds for charitable work in the community and secured $7 at a social recently given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Pruitt. Donations are being received at the Shiloh engine-house, 1313 Thirteenth and Tenino avenue, in connection with the appeal made by Chief Dowell for contributions for the needy.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS

The four sons of C. L. Botsford acted as pallbearers at his funeral in St. David's Episcopal Church Saturday. Dr. Henry Russell Talbot, of St. David's church, and Dr. H. M. Ramsey, of St. Stephen's, officiated. Many floral offerings decorated the altar. Mr. Botsford died last Tuesday at St. Vincent's hospital of pernicious anemia. An operation to transfuse new blood to his veins from the bodies of his sons proved useless. Mr. Botsford was 65 years old. He was prominent in legal circles, having practiced law in Missouri, Oklahoma and Kansas. He is survived by his widow and four sons in Portland—David M. G. S., W. K. and F. L., besides a son in Salina, Kan.

REPLY IN CHURCH SUIT FILED

A reply was filed Saturday by attorneys for the recalcitrant members of the old Taylor-street Methodist Episcopal congregation, who are suing to reopen the old edifice for purposes of worship. The suit is that of the First Methodist Episcopal church, et al, and the reply is general denial. The suit was filed in the general district court, and an affirmation of the complaint that opened the suit.

BRITISH FUNDS AIDED

To aid the British Red Cross and Prince of Wales funds, the Calcedonian Club and auxiliary held a basket social in their hall at 120 Fourth street Saturday night. Seventy-six dollars was realized. A special feature of the social was the number of artistically decorated baskets, which were the cause of keen competition among the women participants. Scotch music was played by the quartet orchestra.

Sick Woman Destitute.

A woman has just returned home from the hospital, where she underwent an operation recently. Although still weak, she is anxious to go out and do what work she can to help support the family. Her husband has been unable to procure employment for a long time and the family without sufficient clothing. The woman has not even enough clothing to make it possible for her to go out and seek work.

Work Gone and No Food to Be Had.

Since the father lost his job and has not been able to procure employment, the savings of one family have all been used up and things are pinched at stage where credit cannot be obtained, even in any of the grocery stores.

There are five children in the family, the eldest 14 and the youngest 4 years old. Another child is expected in a short time. Food and fuel are needed at once and work must be provided for the father soon, so that he may be able to care for his children and wife.

Man Has No Work Seven to Support.

Only occasional employment for a day or two can be procured by a man, who has appealed to the Charities. He has a wife and three children and also is trying to support his mother and sister. He is a skillful landscape gardener and until recently was able to find enough work to keep his family from want.
