COUNTY PROBLEMS UNDER DISCUSSION

Road, Agricultural and Unemployment Issues Handled by Several Speakers.

HIGHWAY TRIP IN PROSPECT

Road Matters and Election of Officers by Association of County Judges and Commissioners to Be Followed by Banquet.

With an attendance representative of every section of the state, problems faced by county governments were considered by speckers at the fifth an considered by speakers at the fifth annual convention of the Oregon State Association of County Judges and Com-

Association of County Judges and Commissioners which opened at the Courthouse yesterday. Agricultural, unemployment and road issues occupied the afternoon, and at night in the library an lilustrated lecture on road building was given.

Road development and maintenance will be discussed today, followed by the election of officers and a banquet at the Commercial Club. Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock a special train will leave the Union depot, taking the members of the convention to the Columbia River Highway.

The combination of the practical experience of the average farmer and the scientific knowledge of the agricultural specialist is needed to get the most out of the agricultural resources.

COMMERCIAL CLUB CLOSES ITS MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN.

Work Differs From That of Previou Times in That Practically No. Canvassing Is Undertaken.

The Commercial Crub closed its membership campaign yesterday noon with more than 200 new names added to the roster. The campaign had been under way for about six weeks.

It differed from other membership campaigns, in that the names came in as a response to the invitation from of the county, declared R. D. Hetzel, the club, practically without canvass director of extension at the Oregon Agricultural College, in his address on "County Agricultural Development." Such a combination is effected with strikingly few exceptions the rewith strikingly few exceptions the response was an application for member-ship. Care in the handling of electrical wiring in conjunction with Christmas decorations in homes and stores is surged by Electrical Inspector Duniap in a circular letter he has prepared. In the urges all persons or concerns proposing to install special electrical fixtures for the holiday season to visit the electrical inspection bureau at the click Hall and get information on proper safeguards.

"In stores," says Inspector Duniap, "defective electrical conditions at this season of the year are ant to result seriously on account of the amount of combustible material present. For this reason many cities which have suffered from experiences of this nature have adopted stringent rules governing the installation of such displays, and are prohibiting the use of cotton batting and other highly inflammable material in connection with them. In 1905 such an ordinance was adopted by Sloux
