SEAT SALE IS TODAY

Tickets for Belgian War Films Now at The Oregonian.

PROCEEDS TO AID CHARITY

Half of Profits Will Help Work of Red Cross in Belgium—Hellig Opens at Noon With Big Supply of Admission Cards.

Beginning at noon today, tickets for the Belgian war motion pictures, which are to be shown at the Hellig Intermittently starting next Sunday, will be on sale at the business office of The Oregonian and at the Hellig Theater box office. All seats will be sold for 25 cents and it therefore is advisable, for those who intend going, to engage their seats early.

The pictures will be shown next Sunday evening from 6 to 11 o'clock, Wednesday, December 16, from noon until 11 P. M. Thursday, December 17, from noon until 11 P. M. Friday, December 18, from noon until 6 P. M., and Saturday, December 19, from noon until 11 P. M.

No matter how large the attendance may be at the shows, there will not be one cent of profit in the engagement for The Oregonian. Fifty per cent of the profits have been turned over to the Chicago Tribune for the benefit of Red Cross work in Belgium. The balance will be given to the Associated Charities in Portland.

The pictures to be shown were taken by Edwin F. Weigle, staff photographer of the Tribune, during the battle of Ypres, and they are the first authentic pictures depicting actual scenes in Belgium that have come West. In order to secure the production of the pictures in Portland The Oregonian was obliged to guarantee the Chicago Tribune one-half of the proceeds to be reverted to the Belgian Red Cross service in accordance with the contract the Chicago paper made with the Belgian government.

Among the startling war scenes that will be thrown on the screen in Portland, depicting warfare in reality, are the following: The Battle of Malines, the Battle of Alost, the Burning of Antwerp, the Destruction of Ypres, the Flooding of Liège. The four reels include 4500 feet of thrilling views which military experts have pronounced surprising warfare in reality. They not only illustrate that war itself is hell, but more, too, but they show clearly the suffering and danger that battles and engagements leave in their wake.
