10-CENT BEER PLAN FAILS!

Two Coos Bay Saloonkeepers Re fuse to Join Combine.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Dec. 14 .- (Special.)—An attempt by Coos Bay saloon-keepers to boost the price of draught beer from 5 to 10 cents and whisky and other liquors proportionately, was aban-doned at a secret meeting yesterday, when John Burke, of Marshfield, and John Volz, of North Bend, said they were satisfied with their present profits were satisfied with their present profits and refused to join a combine. No reason was given for the desire to raise prices.

Professor Arloing, of Lyons, France, proved by experiment that human perspiration is an initiant because it is actually poisonous. It actually burns away the epidermia of sensitive skins and leaves them almost raw. It is important that powerfunction he not checked; it is equally important in hot weather to change one's indecelothing every day.
