Associated Charities' phones, Main 717 or A 1517.

With a total of more than $3700 or hand and a certainty that the figures will pass the $4000 mark today, the Associated Charities has surpassed all records of previous years in the raising of its annual Christmas relief fund for the assistance of the poor in the Win-ter months following the holiday sea-con.

Cheeks, currency and donations of coin fairly poured in upon Treasurer R. S. Howard and Secretary V. R. Manning all day yesterday, and every mail

"While it is true that the cases of need may be more numerous and press-ing this Winter than ever before ing this Winter than ever before throughout the country as well as in this city, the response of the generous people of Portland has met the demand in a manner not equaled by any city of similar size and wealth in the United States," said Secretary V. R. Manning.

Support Is Astounding.

"This tremendous rallying to the sup-port-of the Associated Charities in its Winter relief work is astounding, when one considers the vast demands that have been made upon the people by the various Red Cross bodies for relief in Europe, and by the numerous transient charitable movements that have been organized to take care of Christmas cheer for the poor on Christmas day

A donation of $22.50 was received from the employes of J. K. Gill & Co., their second donation to the fund, and the employes of the Bridal Vell Lumber Company also turned over a donation of $25.

Individuals Also Help.

Other contributions by individuals and societies ranged all the way from $1 to $50, and several of the donors intimated that further contributions would come later.
While the cash fund is rising past all previous records, there is likewise a continual stream of donations coming in to the grocery department and the clothing department of the Charities.

The relief work is going on continually, and the resources that are being made available to the Charities in the Christmas season will enable it to carry assistance to the poor of the city right on through the stress of the Winter

Case S4-Aged Couple Will Not Part. Among the cases that came before e Charities in the course of the day was that of an axed couple living alone in a tiny house in the suburbs.

The father has been out of work for a long time and the mother is ill.

There are seven children, 1, 2, 5, 7, 9, 11 and 13 years old, respectively, none of them able to work or assist materially in the support of the family.

With insufficient clothing and scant food supply, they are huddled together in vermin-infested, squalid rooms. Fuel, clothing, food and assistance that will enable them to get a grip on life again and lift themselves out of their terrible condition is the nead. condition is the need.

BOND MARKET SHOWS RISE

PAST ALL RECORDS

Inicipal improvement bonds issued December 1, 1914, and $150,000 in bonds of the same denomination issued February 1, 1913. The bonds issued December 1 having a full life yet to run all sold for better than 2 per cent above par, while the old bonds, not as valuable because they have been outstanding for two years, sold for a premium of better than 1 per cent. The old bonds have been invested in one of the city's sinking funds since their issuance.

Both issues were sold to the highest bidders. Those who were awarded the new bonds and the premium offered by each are: E. E. Bail; 2½ per cent for $2500; W. T. Willis, 2½ per cent for $2500; W. T. Willis, 2½ per cent for $2500; Lumbermen's Trust Company, 2.39 per cent for $25,000; G. L. and J. A. Mc-Pherson, 2.25 for $6000 and 2½ for $85,0044.83; H. Teal, 2.56 for $1000 and 3 per cent for $2000; the Guardian Trust Company, 2.25 for $6000; Jacob Kanzler, 2.75 for $6000; W. F. White, 2.28 for $10,000;

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Delmore and Hanit Ethel Delmore

The happy culmination of a romance of two seasons ago is just now the subject of much interest to the many friends of Mrs. Charles A. Delmore, formerly Miss Bessie Zidell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ziedeil, of 1874 Glisan street, Montavilla.

Glisan street, Montavilla.

For four years Miss Zideil conducted a real estate office in Portland, first in the Spalding building, and later in the Hawthorne district. But a business career of unusual promise was cut short by Cupid, when Miss Zideil, in the Autumn of 1913, went to Southern California for a vacation and met Charles Delmore, the handsome baritone, who is singing with Ben Light, the fancy pianist, at Marcus Loew's Empress this week.
