Each Towing Fleet Picks Up Two Carriers.

Appearance of Songvand Fron Rockhampton Cheers Exporters. Ships Now Hailed From

Honors are even so far between the rival towing fleets off the bar, as each has picked up two ships, four carriers having arrived Saturday and yesterday.

North Head reported an east wind as prevalent yesterday, and in the morning it was light and at 12 miles an hour.

The Kinross-shire came in from Honolulu Saturday, being taken in tow by the Wallula, and the Oneonta reported the Wallula, and the Oneonta reported yesterday having in tow the Norwegian ship Songvand, from Rockhampton, which had been on the way since which had been on the Puget with the puget wi August 7. The Tatoosh, of the Puget Sound fieet, towed in the Norwegian bark Linfield, which put out of Valparaiso October 28, and the Goliah, of the same flag, steamed in with the Russian bark Port Caledonia, which halls from Iquique, having gotten to sea from there October 24.

Ships Hailed Far Off. It is believed that a southerly wind offshore is helping the sailors to make the vicinity of the river. Incidentally, the coming of the Puget Sound tugs, atirs the Port of Portland skippers to ke the interlopers hustle, and ships being spoken when 30 to 40 miles the bar. When competition was at off the bar. When competition was at its height before, one ship was towed 60 miles offshore. It has been found frequently that skippers of windjammers report having been off the river for several days before being sighted, but they do not always find it possible to remain in the vicinity of the lightship. With only two tugs on duty they have not garried several as at

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Moderate disturbances are central this evening over the interior Southwest and Southern Alberta, respectively. A small high pressure area covers the central portion of the Pacific slope and another of greater extent overlies the states east of the Mississippi River. Precipitation has occurred in the Pacific Northwest, Canadian Southwest, Southern California, the Basin States, North Dakota, Montana, Maniloba, Pennsylvania and Florida. Warmer weather obtains in practically all sections of the country, and temperatures continue below normal exerywhere except in Northern Colorado, the Sacramento Valley of California, Western Montana and Southern Washington, Western Montana and Southern Alberta.

The conditions are favorable for unsettled weather in this district Monday, with cocasional rath in Western Oregon and Western Washington and for rain or snow east of the Casande Mountains. Temperature changes will not be important and winds will be mostly southerly. WEATHER CONDITIONS.

GREAT PETROGRAD VICTORY EXPLAINED AT LAST CREW EXPLAINED AT LAST Gash in War News.

The Crawfish, through its exclusive news service, is now able to give the first authentic account of the great Russian victory told about by our est, contemp., The Oregonian, the other day which turned out not to be a victory after all.

Mr. Frye, the pop. Petrograd editor, approached Mr. Paul R. Kenty, the w. k. night editor, in great excitement, This was just before midnight.

"Three columns of Germans are moving against Warsaw," he excitained wildly, waving a dispatch.

"No space tonight; cut 'em to a column and a half," rejoined the Kelty coldly.

The three columns were badly cut, just as the Petrograd dispatches said.
