

The flames were then conquered by The flames were then conquered by smothering them with blankets and throwing water on them. The fight with the fire lasted about 20 minutes. Mr. Miller is a partner in the Mc-Minnville Heating & Plumbing Com-many. He is about 30 years old, is six feet tall and weighs 190 pounds. He was none the worse for his experience. The Millers are cousing of Dr. Charles needs to send the specific to a toast they party into a welcoming dinner party for Aunt Mary, giving her Janet's for years, will officiate, Dr. T. L. Eliot, belle of the party and even responds in a gay little speech to a toast they

Miss Miller was taken o a farmhouse near the scene of the accident closely w and was ill for a couple of days, but 40 years.

was going now it for the third the set of the birthout difficulty, but had hard work to break his way through this. Mr. Miller's hands and face were se-verely lacerated and Miss Miller's body was covered with bruises. Meanwhile the remainder of the party had paddled the burning boat toward shore and got near the bank about 50 yards down the river, where, with the assistance of Mr. Miller, they made a landing.

Aunt Mary Made Welcome

carried that to the front of the funeral in a body. As Circuit Judge to win Aunt Mary's unbiasted approval to win Aunt Mary's unbiasted approval that donned the garb of a serving maid. In a body, as identified in a donned the garb of a serving maid.

norary

that body will prepare suitable reso lutions of sorrow over his death.

Sunday School Honored.

PORTLAND BAND LEADER TO PLAY AT SAN FRAN-CISCO FAIR.

L. Ruzzi.

Band, and a well-known Portland musician, left last night to locate permanently in San Francisco, where he has accepted an offer to supply band music at the Panama-Pacific and International Exposition, San

Mr. Ruzzi has been a resident of this city for 10 years and says that he looks upon Port-land as his "real home." "Some day." he added, "I will come back home."

Francisco.

L. Ruzzi, leader of Ruzzi's

Schmitt.

The Millers are cousins of Dr. Charles B. Frisble, of Portland. "It was a terrible experience," said To do honor to their late associate B. Frisble, of Portland. "It was a terrible experience," said Miss Wilson. "I felt that I was going to be drowned, burned and blown to atoms all at once. There was a five-gallon can of gasoline near the engine. We carried that to the front of the closely with the Oregon bar for almost in her own cottage, where she has responded so completely to rejuvenation pallbearers will be Judge that discontent lies like dust William B. Gilbert, Judge H. H. Nor-thup, Dr. R. S. Greenleaf, Levi Young, E. F. Riley and A. W. Barnes, Active mailheavers will be F. S. Nores H. M. fat and profitless, Aunt Mary gives her pallbearers will be F. S. Myers, H. M. Esterly, Grant Phegley, Frank B. Riley, Joshua and announces her determina-Edwin J. Stephens and Ivan Humason. tion to buy a great big house in the Seneca Smith was a firm supporter of the Oregon system of government, hav-ing defended it in the Supreme Court frequently. He was long a member of the Multhomah Bar Association, and variety. 200 size.

Royal Banquet Flour, sack $1.59 Sugar Cured Hams, lb.....181/2¢ Correctly cured and well smoked hams.

Eastern Oregon make of superior

-Pure Food Grocery. -Basement, Sixth-St. Bldg.

THE QUALITY STORE OF PORTLAND

PMA Shath Morrison Alder Sta

Many Standard Makes of Corsets models for $19.15. Men's Store-Second Floor, Temporary Annex No. 1

Hickey-Freeman and other equally reliable tailors for men.

You have choice of tweeds, worsteds and cheviots in a very satisfying assortment of patterns. Colors are those most popular in plain or mixed shades-Glenarket Plaids, Pin, Regimental or Roman Stripes and Tartan Checks. There are sizes in plenty to fit men of any stature: Long, short, stout, slim or "regular." All who desire to begin the New Year with a new fashionable Suit, finely tailored and carefully finished for best everyday service, have the broadest selection of advanced or conservative styles in these $19.15 models. The extreme low price for this great Clearance of all fancy garments suggests early choosing today from these regular $25, $30 and $35 Suits. "Pick" today without reserve from our entire stock of fancy quality.

From Our Regular Stock Emphatically Underpriced for Clearance.

"Tillie's Punctured Romance"

at Majestic Is Magnet.

Star Has 'Cameo Kirby,' Alice Brady

and Sunset Offers Comedies.

has recovered completely.

DEATH COMES TO PIONEER RESI-DENT OF PORTLAND.

Native of Canada Who Fought During Civil War Lived in Oregon More

Than 50 Years.

Joseph Kehoe, pioneer, Civil War veteran and prominent Portlander, died early yesterday morning at his resi-dence, 404 East Twelfth street North, aged 78 years. Death was caused by old age and was not preceded by ill Dess

The funeral will be held at Holy Rosary Church, East Third and Clacka-mas streets, tomorrow at 3 o'clock. Inretired yesterday morning, was honored at the meeting of the Sunday school and terment will be in St. Mary's Cemetery. Mr. Kehoe had been a resident of Portland for more than half a century. He is survived by his widow and three children: Archibald Kehoe, of Weston, Cal: Mrs. Thomas Milburn, of 305 Pa-cific street, and Joseph W. Kehoe, of Ot Fast Twealth street North presented with a Bible as a token of appreciation of his services. Remarks were made by Rev. J. D. Nisewonder and others on the long years of faith-ful services of Mr. Hinkle. 404 East Twelfth street North.

Mr. Kehoe was born in Canada in 1837. While yet a boy his parents moved across the border and settled in 1837. Lockport, Ill. When the war with the South was declared Mr. Kchoe joined the Northern forces, and for two years saw active service in the field. Later he became connected with the Army transportation service, and in such ca-pacity saw the conflict through.

pacity saw the conflict through. Immediately after the close of the Civil War Mr. Kehoe moved to Oregon. He married Miss Josephine Thomas at Oregon City in 1877. Early in 1871 Mr. Kehoe entered the employment of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company as locomotive engi-neer, and was retired with pension by the company in 1908. the company in 1908.

PERSONAL MENTION.

S. B. Holt, of Thomas, is at the Perkins

F. H. Hughes, of Glendale, is at the G. S. Parker, of Astoria, is at the

Carlton

G. E. Hale, of Oregon City, is at the Carlton.

W. W. Avery, of Eugene, is at the Imperial

Alexander Gow, of Scattle, is at the Imperial. J. A. Churchill, of Salem, is at the Cornellus.

F. M. Arnold, of Tacoma, is at the

Henry E. French, of Tacoma, is at the Nortonia

Dr. C. E. Morrison, of Nehalem, is at the Oregon.

L. C. Thompson, of Carlton, is at the Multnomah.

G. F. McDonald, of Tillamook, is at the Seward.

I. L. Rees, of Stevenson, Wash., is at the Perkins.

C. L. Mannheimer, of Bend, is at the Multnomah.

H. A. Blair, of Pleasant Valley, is at the Perkins.

J. G. Grover, of Kalama, Wash., is at the Nortonia. H. E. Rise and J. F. Cook registered Florence Roberts plays the role and for every laugh or tear or heart throb there is in it she gives us full account-ing. She is a stern, dominant Aunt Mary, a tender, irresolute Aunt Mary, a mother, a biased old woman and a gay 21 YEARS' SERVICE ENDS Retiring Head of United Brethren a mother, a blased old woman and a gay young-old hoyden by delightful turns. Mary Edgett Baker plays with deli-cacy and charm the role of Janet. Robert Gleckler's interpretation of the boyish, impetuous and lovable nephew, Jack, is excellent. Walter Gilbert is Joshua old and J. A. Hinkle, superintendent of the Sunday school of the First United Presbyterian Church for 21 years, who of laughter. school and Jack's three pals are given fine token of characterization by William E. Lloyd, Remarks Clarke Silvernail and William F. Powell.

Eileen Wilson is picturesque and ef-and others on the long years of faith-ful services of Mr. Hinkle. The new officers for the ensuing year are: Superintendent, G. W. Betts; assistant superintendent, Morice Mc-Minn; secretary, Thelma Dorcy; treas-urer, Frank Hines; organist, Bertha Hillis; choirmaster, J. B. Long; II-brarians, Elmer Clark and Elton Schmitt heroine, soaked and unacquainted, into Aunt Mary's home.

Shines at Columbia, 'The Three of Us' Is National Feature RIDE AWAITS BRIDEGROOM

Friends Would Take D. C. Craig to

His Wedding in Patrol Wagon.

hundreds swarming this corner?" demanded the policeman on the beat. That a plot is on foot to take Donald "Marie Dressler, "Tillie's Punctured C. Craig, superintendent of the Ford Motor Company assembling plant in Portland, to his wedding, to be held next Thursday evening at the home of the crowd managed to answer and he urged the policeman to go and see next Thursday evening at the home of the bride on Thirty-first street, in the police patrol automobile became known yesterday, when one of his friends con-ducted tentative negotiations for the loan of the "wagon" for that evening. Mr. Craig, who has been in Fortland at the head of the local Ford plant for a year and a half and who formerly was foreman of the experimental plant of the company at Detroit, will wed Miss Grace E. Grath. The young couple will later be at home to their friends at 524 Rex avenue.

friends at 524 Rex avenue.

HOSTS WILL BE GUESTS

Rotary Club to Entertain Its Fun Committee at Luncheon.

The members of the Rotary Club must entertain the entertainment committee at the luncheon tomorrow at the Benson Hotel. This is "reciproc-

The Rotary Club clinic that has been established in the Selling building will be continued until at least February I. in view of the excellent service it has given in the past few weeks in the relief of those who were in need of medical attention but too poor to pay for it. cavorts into high soclety; her antics are weird and wild; uncle reappears; Tillie and a crowd of others on the pier in a mad chase all go into the water; Tillie sphashing and plunging, at last is rescued and the lover gets his "Tillie's Functured Romance" will

FILM IS ALL LAUGHS as the biggest offering of the season.

Provide Great Show. Two hilarious comedies, a Keystone and a Royal, head the programme at the Sunset Theater and will prevail un-til Wednesday. "Her Mother's Voice," a Royal com-edy, is a scream. A woman who is a would-be grand opera star creates by her singing a sensation quite the re-verse of her expectations. Ed Coxen and Winnifred Greenwood in a 30-minute play entitled "When a

CROWDS BLOCK CORNER

In a 30-minute play entitled "When a Woman Walts," are convincingly nat-woman waits, are convincingly nat-ural. The plot is simple, practical and interesting. Miss Greenwood, as the devoted daughter, tells her sweetheart to wait until she has fulfiled a prom-the storm at sea the she wait until the storm at sea the she devoted the storm at sea the she devoted the storm at sea the to wait until she has fulfiled a prom-ise made to her dying mother. With pathetic patience she waits for him un-til the appointed time, only to learn that he had met death years before. In realistic plot and pathos this picture is above the average photoplay drama. "The Baby's Ride" is the story of an unintentional kidnaping. This offers many thrills. Fascinating Star at National

"What's up? Why all these laughing

The Mutual Weekly concludes a pro many gramme of more than ordinary merit. DUSTIN FARNUM IS AT STAR Miss Taliaferro is most fascinating. The Noted Actor Shines in "Cameo

Kirby," Southern Favorite.

Dustin Farnum, one of the most po ular and versatile actors before the public, is appearing at the Star Theater for four days in "Cameo Kirby," a com-edy-drama of the old South. Winifred in the next seats as they watched the funniest woman of the stage, who with elephantine grace lived through the love affair of the heroine. "Tillie." Kirby becomes a professional gambler.

Here are some of the funniest situations which get the biggest laughs. Tillie, the clumsy, enormous one, is kittenish and flirtatious; she goes to a humor. There are also exceptionally mittee at the luncheon tomorrow at the Benson Hotel. This is "recipro-ity meeting," with the task of recipro-cating in the hands of the members of the clubs, who for nearly half a year have relied for their programme upon the entertainment committee. The Rotary Club clinic that has been established in the Selling building will targe meted and wild: uncle resumes the lover and the stablished with the selling building will targe meted and wild: uncle resumes the lover and the stablished in the Selling building will targe meted and wild: uncle resumes the lover and the stablished in the Selling building will targe meted and wild: uncle resumes the lover and the stablished in the Selling building will targe meted and wild: uncle resumes the lover and the stablished in the Selling building will targe meted and wild: uncle resumes the lover and the stablished in the Selling building will targe meted and wild: uncle resumes the lover and the stablished will targe meted and wild: uncle resumes the lover and the stablished will targe meted and wild: uncle resumes the lover and the stablished will targe meted and will targe meters and targe met

COLUMBIA HAS GREAT PLAY

Alice Brady Is Entrancing Star in

Included in this remarkable clearance are Corsets of standard makes of Fall models. The materials are brocades, coutil and batiste in medium, high and low-bust styles. Long, straight hip lines.

6.50 to $10.00 Corsets, Clearance Price......$2.98 $ 2.00 to $ 2.50 Corsets, Clearance Price $1.47 $ 3.50 to $ 5.00 Corsets, comprising a broken line of lace-front Corsets. Not all sizes in the lot. 98c continue at the Majestic all this week the production of Rev. John Snyder's one of the eleverest of picture stars, stage success, "As Ye Sow," a Columbia. Alice Brady has the at the plays opposite Miss Clark.

The story depicts sending of the girl COMEDY RULES AT SUNSET Two Laughmakers and Stirring Play Provide Great Show Common A and Stirring Play Provide Great Show to a reformatory. She is released for good behavior, but is hounded by a former associate who manages to keep her out of work. The girl's trials are many until she is finally befriended by an artist, who, struck by her unbefriended usual beauty, persuades her to pose for him. The ending of the play is par-ticularly appealing and romantic. All day yesterday the theater was crowded to capacity.

WORLD PEAGE FORESEEN

SPEAKER SAYS ARMAMENTS MUST BE GIVEN UP FIRST.

MABEL TALIAFERRO CHARMS Lack of Forts Along Canadian Border Cited as Showing Friendship

Possible Between Nations.

"The Three of Us." Mabel Taliaferro, charming recruit

The Portland World Peace Associa-tion met yesterday at the Central Li-brary and listened to an address on from the footlights, is featured in "The Three of Us," the first of the Alliance-"Neutrality" by G. Evert Baker, presi-dent of the State Society of Christian Alco releases at the National Theater Endeavor.

story as told in the film is interesting, A resolution was adopted protesting full of swift, comprenensive action and against the proposed execution of Leo pathos. Frank, of Atlanta, who was found pathos. The play concerns a young woman The play concerns a young woman and her two brothers, one a sunny little chap of 6, the other a half-grown boy, full of ideas of city life of which he craves a taste. The sister begs the boy not to go and consults her friend and sweetheart. Steve, concerning him. As the highest evidences of friend-ship between nations. Mr. Baker point-

At the most critical time, the lad betrays his sister and her friend, and for a living, is virtually turned over to

Mr. Baker praised President Wilson's efforts to have the United States re-main strictly neutral during the Euromain strictly heutral during the hurd-pean war, and predicted that the day will come when all the world will be at peace. He said the subject has been discussed by this country at intervals since 1833, when it was brought up in Congress, but he said that until arma-ments are given up, world peace, how-ever much desired, will not be realized. He urged the appointment of interset Portland photoplay fans

Allee Brady Is Entrancing Star in ig, at s his will and many dramatic situations mark

GIRL FAVORITE AT PEOPLES Marguerite Clark Is Star of Stellar Film, "The Crucible." The trials of a girl, not loved by her family, cast out by her friends and sent to a reformatory, are depicted in "The Crucible" at the Peoples Theater. The picture features Marguerite Clark, the fascinating little star of "Wildflower,"

There are some of the funniest situa-Hare are some of the funniest situa-Hare are some of the funniest situamost interesting.