THE MORNING OREGONIAN, MONDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1914.

snitagonize the Oakland management. He looks awfully good to me."
Evidently Hap Hogan, the Venetian pilot, does not care for the services of First Sacker Fisher, former Tiger last season with Denver, for his 1915 Tigers.
White to Cover First, Is "Dope."
According to the "dope" in the South no more or less a personage than "Doc" White is scheduled to frisk about the first stopping place next season for Hap. Bits of Sport.

for battle

perience with major league ways, but our guess is that it sometimes takes ballplayers to win up there. Admittedly, Wolverton was a failure at New York, but Frank Chance was even more games.

He has always been a pretty good hitter and a nifty fielder. Last season his batting average for 49 games was is not so worse. While with the Sox Doc was occasionally used in the outfield because he could clout the pellet.

SOUTH PORTLAND JUNIORS WIN

Lincoln Park Quits With 2 Minutes

Left to Play and Count Is 14-0.

The South Portland Juniors con-nued their rush toward the 1914 championship of the Portland Junior Athletic League yesterday afternoon by trouncing the Lucoln Park contingent 14 to 0 on the Sellwood grounds. son's victory over Louis Rees at Oak-land. After the meeting with T land. After the meeting with Barrieau Anderson met Leach Cross for the sec-Referee Tom Crowley, former sensa-tional football player of the Columbus Club, called the match with two minutes to go and the ball on the Park team's ne-yard line. A disputed decision, by which the hall was taken to within striking distance was taken to within striking distance of the Lincoln Park team's goal caused Lincoln Park to walk off the field. Another touchdown probably would have been scored by the South Port-land Juniors had the affair continued. Bill Kurts performed the stellar feat of the day when he received a punt and went for a touchdown the Anderson among the topnotchers by taking one of Bud's punches on the chin and going to sleep in the 15th round, is preparing to do a "comeback. went 60 yards for a touchdown through Brown began to descend after the only Athletic League will be in action New fear's day.

Westover received a forfeited game from the Overlook Eagles yesterday.

GAME MUST BE PLAYED OVER

Soccer Match of Thistles and Weonas

to Be Reset, Say Directors.

Directors of the Portland Soccer Football Association at a meeting Sat-urday night announced that the Thistles and Weonas would have to their first match again at some date to be selected. The game was sched-uled for three weeks ago, but a mis-understanding caused the postponement.

ment. Two contests have to be played by each eleven against every other eleven of the circuit and the second game be-tween the Thistles and Weenas is slated for next Friday afternoon on Multnomnh field. Manager "Scotty" Duncan has issued orders that all his Weenas must report to him tomerrow Weonas must report to him tomorrow Weonas must report to him tomorrow night in Bowie & Caldwell's, as some important business must come up be-fore the organization. The final choice for players against the Thistles will be made, Manager Duncan says. Another soccer game will be played on Multhomah field New Year's day, when the Multhomsh Club will had have when the Multhomah Club will hook up with the Portsmouth eleven. The game will begin at 11 o'clock. Portsmouth won the first same 1 to 9.

THE University of Illinois is to send 25 athletes to compete against the University of California at Berkeley in April when Barrieau and Anderson first day in an auto accident.

met in the ring the Vancouver, Wash, boy emerged the victor via the knock-A rabbit show is scheduled to be held Tacoma from December 29 to Januout route after ten rounds of battling. This fight took place in Los Angeles, December 9, 1913, and followed Anderary 3.

The schedule for the Northwestern League will be adopted at the League meeting February 3.

Word comes from New York that "Knockout" Brown, the boxer who put Football and baseball were the only ports that paid at Princeton in 1914. Shea, Albina, and Tom Mitchell, of the Western Club, because they started to mix on the field in the third period. League Gees "Bump." sports that paid at Princeton in 1914. Pittsburg is making a strong bid to obtain the golf championship play in Bender, Hunter and Hepner, had the

that city next year.

ent so yaras for a touchdown through broken field. Wilde put across the aly other score. All the teams of the Portland Junior thietic League will be in action New ear's day. Econd meeting with Anderson in which he was knocked out. Brown was in California. In the first encounter the inght went 20 rounds to a draw and in the next Anderson scored the "kayo." Winlock Has New Weekly.

A great deal of credit is due Mike Gibbos for the way in which he is going after the middleweight title. That Mike means business and intends to make an effort to win the champion-ship in a way that no one can dispute the claim is evidenced by his signing to meet Eddie McGoorty and Jimmie

LEADING HITTERS OF 1914.

The leading batters in leagues, as shown by official and unofficial records, are:

Nama	Club.	League.	Games.	P.C
Dushert	Brooklyn	National.		.322
Cabb	Detroit	American.		.361
Wauff	Indianapolts	.Federal.	154	.368
Hinchman	. Columbus	American Association		.366
Fisher	Portland	Pacific Coast		.355
Schliehner	Omaha	Western League		.400
Foster	Trenton	Tri-State	87	.368
Tront	Toronto	Canadian League		.841
Houelsman	Salt Lake	.Union Association	55	.141
Kaufman	Elmira	New York State		.322
La Fiambols	. Emporia	Wannas State	72	.349
Shaw	Augusta	.South Atlantic	69	.344
Wilhoit	Victoria	Northwestern		.322
Pembroke	Pendleton	Western Tri-State	88	.349
Miller	Wausau	Wisconsin-Hilinois	 T2	.333
Barth	Medicine Hat.	Western Canada	80	.367
Barney		Eastern Association		.320
Harris	Bay City	South Michigan		386
Grimes	Richmond	Virginia League	 all	.381
Bond	Duluth	Northern League	108	.845
Towns	Norfolk	Nebrasha League	57	.341
Dukette	New England	. Colonial League	48	.889
Sheehan	Terre Haute	Central League		.340 accounting of the second of the ame would have to be played, presum-bly New Year's day.

All through the game rain fell, sometimes by the bucketful and the rest of the time in the form of a regular Oregon mist. Two minutes after the the Portland Coast Leaguer's champs down with five hits and giving them a severe drubbing in this annual city title contest began it was almost impossible event, Mays was drafted by the Provi-dence club of the International League. to distinguish one player from the other, because of the mud-bespattered player from the countenances.

first stopping place next season for Hap. Often last season fans had the pleas-ure of seeing the former White Sox in good style, too. It has always been "Docs" ambition to become a first-He has always been a pretty good The has always been a pretty good Wallace, was trouble, too, when and there was nothing to help me in a could do was hug the fire and grow fat," said Bud, when asked if it is true france, sailed store for overweight. In the same to the there was stricken in Paris and was taken home. Fullerton. In this story Fullerton wa quoted as saying that Seattle James, of the Boston Nationals, w

The team which kicked off had the advantage because of the heavy condition of the field. The East Siders started the ball rolling and during the rest of the half playing for the most part remained in the Western Club Konetchy and others.

Things were just the opposite in the

In 1887 he started with St. Joseph. Mo.; from there went to Texas and handled the Austin and Houston clubs; Things were just the first two periods. Last two periods. Coach Woodworth, of the club eleven, had Rolly Jones, Trinny Jones and back to Houston again. After-wards he managed the teams at Mont-wards he managed the teams at Montclub jumped to the Sacramento club in 1891 ond time and again suffered K. O. at the hands of the Gotham dentist. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended, says Anderson. The bout at Wallace, was well at-tended to be put on the game in Port-land because of attempted crooked-ness here a few years ago, is now at work in Spokane. The bout at Wallace, was well at the ban to be put on the game in Port-land because of attempted crooked-ness here a few years ago, is now at work in Spokane. The bout at Wallace, was well at the ban to be put on the game in Port-land because of attempted crooked-ness here a few years ago, is now at work in Spokane. The bound the team at Mont-team at the ban to be put on the game in Port-and Derbyshire for stars, while Kil-wards he managed the teams at Mont-Ky; Dallas, Tex; Great Falls and Butte, Mont; Tacoma, Vancouver, B. C.; Wich-the team at the stark and the stark at the League Goes "Bump." When William Lucas guit the No

crowd, which numbered close to 1500,

The lineups: Western (0) yberg cDonald RGL Bill Graham. Graham ascott

Watts 1907 or 1908. He had a notion his team Hearn could beat Reulbach, of the Chicago for "Ike" Wolfer, McEntee for Johnson, Kurtz for Robinson, Mitchell for Carnaban, Time of quarters, 12 minutes each, SKI CLUB TO PLAN FOR TRIP

Time and Place for Outing to Be Decided at Tonight's Meeting.

Members of the Portland Indoor Ski Club will gather at the Multhomah Club tonight at 8 o'clock for the an-nual election of officers. The time and place for the annual midwinter outing also will be settled. Lest year the club ascended the north clones of Mount Hord as for as Cloud slopes of Mount Hood as far as Cloud Cap Inn, making Mount Hood Lodge the permanent camp. It is expected the members will vote to return to the Among those who took part were: Mrs. south of the mountain this year, alter-nating each Winter in this manner. A. D. Wakeman, one of the crack tennis players of the city, is president of the club, won.

Louis won

League club drafted Mays, and, despite a bad start, he developed into one of the stars of the circuit. After setting

Thrilling Victory Over Americans at San Diego Closes Tour.

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 27.—By defeating the all-Americans here today, 1 to 0, in the final contest of their tour, the all--Perhaps Chance needs more season-the final contest of their tour, the all-Nationals won two more of the 56 i games than their opponents. The clos-ing game was thrilling from the start until the ninth inning, when Fletcher, after reaching first base on Rightfield-Mays Thinks Omen Good. This past year Mays led the International pitchers and virtually hurled Providence into a pennant. As a result of his showing he will be with the Boston Red Sox in 1915, and, as the Red Sox are being groomed for the er McAvoy's error, stole second and scored on Byrne's single to left.

Both Alexander and Bush were in rare form, each allowing only five hits. It was the third game Alexander American League championship, Mays binks his repudiation by McCloskey back in 1912 was a lucky omen. McCloskey is located at Louisville, Ky. now, and it was from there he sent his public denial of anti-blond senpitched in four days, Score:

R. H. E. | R. H. E. All-Nat'ls. 1 5 0 All-Amer. 0 5 2 Batteries-Alexander and Killifer; timents after reading in a Pittsburg newspaper an interview from Charley Bush and Henry.

Sidelights and Satire By Roscos Fawcett.

never have done under McCloskey be-cause Jack Barry told him of the lat-ter's hatred for blonds. In his day McCloskey was a noted UTE BOONE, New York American infielder, was among the big league baseball scout and manager. He was tourists on their barnstorming jaunt to in baseball over 25 years, and dis-covered such stars as Fred Clarke, man-ager of Pittsburg; Bugs Raymond, Ed a New York newspaper Boone said he had developed a fine hitting streak. This ought to bring him a substantial rise in salary in 1916 if he can main-tain the clip throughout 1915.

One of the most popular Winter games in Portland is trading Fred Derrick. The Georgian was traded so often last Winter that he became disheartened, and the best he could do was to bat around .800 and lead the league's firstsackers.

western League presidency in 1911 Mcgreeted enthusiastically by the Vernon citizenry. The Venice band was here to dispense cheery music, and the procession was headed by Orvie Overall, city saleswas headed by Orvie Overall, city sales nan for the Maier brewery, who car-ied a banner reading: "Drink Maier's Seer." Oakland won 3-2 in the ninth inning on a single by Litschi and Elliott's momer over the short left field fence. Early in the game Mitze overthread of the short left field fence. man for the Maier brewery, who car-ried a banner reading: "Drink Maier's on a single by Litschi and Elliott's homer over the short left field fence. Early in the game Mitze overthrew could beat Reulbach, of the Chicago Cubs, by bunting, and he sent his first 17 men to bat with orders to bunt or push the ball down the infield, no batsecond, and a boot by Hetling a moment later let in the first Oak tally.

The articles of agreement for the ter being allowed to swing until after two strikes had been called. For six innings not a run was scored, Johnson-Willard fistic encounter some-where in proximity to the Tropic of Capricorn in March include the following stipulations:

Five-ounce gloves, From 20 to 45 rounds' duration. Soft bandages. Thirty thousand dollars and one-half of

All during the early stages of the matines the players were frantic, beg-ging to be permitted to hit hard, but McCloskey stuck to his campaign and

Santa Claus Visits Seamen. A Christmas tree and supper was given for the scamen of the port last night in the Scamen's Institute at 125

Each party to the contract deposits $5000 bind agreement. Disputes to be referred to Robert C.

This is the flufflest bargain Johns has shuffled into since the memorable Jeffries flasco at Reno July 4, 1910. He has been credited with several $30,000 guarantees since then, but the money was mostly press water money. His FREE INSTRUCTION, UNION BAND,

the 56 ing

WAVERLY AND MULTNOMAH CLUB HOCKEY TEAMS MEET NEXT.

Contest at Ice Hippodrome Wednesday

Night to Begin at 7:45-Uncle Sams Soon Play Vancouver Squad,

Another hockey game of the Portland mateur Hockey League will be played the Portland Ice Hinpodrom Wednesday night between the mah Club and the Waverly Multn Country tourists on their barnstorming jaunt to Honolulu. Writing from Honolulu to victory and no defeat, while the Waverlies are charged with a reverse and no victory.

The contest will begin promptly at 7:45 o'clock and last until $:45 o'clock, when the regular skating session will commence. Skating will continue until 11 o'clock instead of 10:30, as generally is the case.

J.I.J. Burdett, the Newport ice skating nthuslast, came to Portland last Saturday night just to see the Uncle Sams in action against the Victoria contin-gent. Mr. Burdett brought his skates along and used them the second time in Vernon, Cal., April 25.—(Special.)— After a year's absence at Venice, Happy Hogan led his Tigers back to the old Vernon haunts today, and the team was trip to this city just to try out skates after a layoff of 17 years.

Pete Muldoon, manager of the pro-fessional ice hockey team of Portland, says that the locals should have little to make some sort of a change in his team before meeting Vancouver tom ow. Should Victoria manage to wrest a victory from the other British Colum bis septet and the Uncle Sams take a game from the league leaders also, then Portland will be tied with Van-couver for the leadership at three victories and two deteats. Manager Mul-doon predicts such an outcome, be-cause, he says, that Victoria should get back into shape and trim the Mil-

March 30. Johnson gets $1000 expense money and $29,000 before hs enters the ring. Johnson agtes and trim the Mil-the next professional ice hockey match in Portland will be played in the Ice Hippodrome a week from to-morrow night, when Vancouver, B. C., attacks the Uncle Sams. Chicago will spend $400,000 in improve-ment at Grant Park.

SKATING ICE AT THE HIPPODROME Twentieth and Marshall. Daily, 10 A. M., 3 P. M., 8 P. M.