Bay with freight for Astoria and Portland. G. H. Bowker, of Portland, has been appointed Astoria agent for the Puget Sound Tugboat Company, General Manager. The company has early this week to open an office and arrange for pilots. The company has three tugs, while the tugboat F. B. Jones tow ships to and from Portland. Thus far honors are even between the rival tugboat companies in the race for sailing vessels of the mouth of the Columbia. Yesterday the Wallula picked up the British bark Kirova, while the Tatoosh hooked on to the Russian bark Port Caledonia and the Gollah secured the Norwegian bark Lindfield. This morning the Russian bark Lindfield left for Portland in tow of the tug Tatoosh, which will turn them over to the steamer F. B. Jones.

REV. T. W. LANE THINKS AMERICA SHOULD DISARM FOR EXAMPLE. Belief in Fulfillment of Biblical Prophecies is Affirmed and Reign of Christ Predicted.

"If America at this critical moment would take a position favoring disarmament she could set the pace that would disarm the world," said Rev. T. W. Lane in his Christmas sermon at Centenary Methodist Church yesterday. "A heroic Christian Nation is needed today," he declared, "to lead the rest of the world up the way to the rule of the Prince of Peace."
