DANA HALL Alumnae will hold their first meeting today at Hotel Benson for luncheon. This organization has just been formed and the members plan to meet about once a month for a little chat and social diversion. The preliminary members are Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. Hall Stoner, Mrs. Eugene Rockey, Mrs. Philip Schuyler Kamm, Mrs. Walker Willis Kamm, Miss V. O. Guthrie, Mrs. James E. Davidson, Miss Dorothy Sanford, Mrs. Dorsey R. Smith, Miss Louise Heuser, Miss Elizabeth Jacobs, Miss Margaret Meare, Miss Dorothy Mann, of East Orange, N. J., who is visiting in town, Miss Clementine Lambert, Miss Helen Clark, Miss Dorothy Elliott, Miss Grace Peters, Miss Genevieve Butterfield, Miss Zola Parker, Mrs. Walter Brewer. A number of Portland girls have attended Dana Hall and at present there is also a good representation of local belles studying there.

At a charming but simple wedding yesterday afternoon Mrs. Ida Hunsicker, of the Fordham apartments, became the bride of Dr. Roy McDaniels, on the staff of physicians and surgeon of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, and a well-known Portland man. The ceremony was read by Rev. W. R. Powell at Trinity Episcopal Chapel at 2 o'clock. The bride was attired in a smart traveling suit, with a small toque of black velvet and also wore a corsage bouquet of pink rose buds and violets. Mrs. McDaniels is the sister of Charles W. Meyers, of the Oregonian staff, and of Mrs. Victor Hunsicker, of Walla Walla, who came to attend the ceremony. Dr. and Mrs. McDaniels left for a fortnight's trip to the Puget Sound cities.

Miss Helen Calkins, one of the popular younger belles, who has been passing the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calkins, will leave today for Baltimore to resume her studies at Goucher College, the well-known women's college. During her sojourn here she has been charmingly entertained, each day being brimful of gaiety, and her return again in the summer is eagerly looked to by her close friends.

The Friday Night Dancing Club have postponed their dance, which was scheduled for Friday evening, until a later date to be announced within a few days.

Miss Helen Wood, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Wood, of this city, passed her Christmas vacation in Minneapolis as the house guest of Miss Ruth Gedney, who is a fellow-student with Miss Wood at Dana Hall. Last Wednesday Mrs. L. V. Gedney and Miss Gedney presided at a charming luncheon in honor of Miss Wood when covers were laid for 40. She has been entertained extensively during her brief visit in Minneapolis by several prominent friends and girls.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will give a tea and reception this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First M. E. Church to the branch officers of the society. Miss Carrie Holbrook is president of the organization and the committee who will have charge of the affair are Mrs. Scott Bozarth, Mrs. C. J. Kirkland and Mrs. George Lilly.

In honor of Mrs. Charles Heinline, of Roseburg, Mrs. John Sutherland has hosted for a party dinner on Friday, January 1. Mrs. Heinline, who is an accomplished musician, played and sang several delightful numbers and also sang in a duet with Mrs. Sutherland. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. E. Olin Eldridge, Mrs. Charles Heinline, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sutherland and Miss Mabel Sutherland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Heinline, of Roseburg, have returned to their home, having spent the holiday season with Mr. and Mrs. Heinline's parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. Olin Eldridge.

One of the prettiest and most unique parties of recent date was that for which Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Heinline were hosts. The affair was given at their residence. It was not only a party but a "backwards" affair, given to honor Mr. and Mrs. Heinline, of San Francisco. The invitations were written in backward, the guests entered by the back door, wore their costumes, some of which were of the charming Colonial period, backwards, and every detail possible was carried out in a similar manner. An elaborate supper was served at the midnight hour, covers being placed for Mr. and Mrs. George A. White, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Duler, Mr. and Mrs. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Heinline, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Heinline, Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Marcellus, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Fontana, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Lovell, Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Henderson, Mrs. Lora Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nell and Dr. and Mrs. L. G. McAloney.

Mrs. May Angel and Mrs. Nellie McDonald will entertain the Rose Social Club at the former's home, 685 Mississippi avenue. All Royal Neighbors are invited.

A gay affair anticipated by a number of people with keen delight is the hop to be given by the U. S. B. girls tomorrow night at Cottell Hall.

Mrs. R. R. Hoge entertained at her home on Everett street at luncheon yesterday in honor of the comedienne, May Robson, and the women of her company, who are playing in "Martha by the Sea" at the Healy. Unusually clever and original were the decorations and the menu, both of which were Chinese in character. Chinese bowls and ornaments were grouped about the room and the table was centered with a large bowl of goldfish. Mrs. Hoge and Miss Robson have been friends for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Neer, of the Carmelita Apartments, returned Monday morning after a sojourn of 10 days in San Francisco.

The sixth annual football game of the Lincoln High School will be given in the school gymnasium next Friday evening. All the gridiron heroes who won their monograms during the 1914 campaign will be awarded their letters during the evening. The board of directors of the Lincoln High School Athletic Association, composed of E. E. Holt, president; Stephanie Strain, Julie Murphy, Joseph Lillard and Lowell Paget, make up the committee in charge of the affair.

To make their New Year's ball the feature party of the season the Elks have arranged an exceptionally lively programme with several novelty stunts. A couple of the features will be a waltz band to help defray the expenses for a trip to Los Angeles next July, when the band of 50 pieces will attend the Elks' reunion. The members of the committee in charge of the arrange-

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Fannie Kingsbury, 198 East Eighty-fifth street, the evening of December 28, when Mrs. Kingsbury's daughter, Edith May, became the bride of T. Ashbury Richardson, of Lyons, Colo. The bride wore a white satin and lace gown and a full veil wreathed with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Guy Wilson acted as best man. Mrs. Thomas Kingsbury played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson left for a honeymoon and will be at home to their friends at Lyons, Colo.

A 1915 party will be given by the Jolly Maxilians Thursday evening, January 14. The affair will be one of the most elaborate of the season and to make it a popular club party several of the city's select clubs are organizing parties to attend. Special decorations and features are being arranged.

The affair will be strictly invitational. Invitations may be secured from Paul Dickinson, Mabel Mascot, George Love, Martha Wedderhold, Charles Hauer, Edith Miller, Harvey Altnow, Hazel Gallagher, Dick Mullin, Alice Burke, Walter Dickinson, Irene Mosher, Carl Taylor, Margaret Harvey, William Swatney and Eleanor Hawkins, who are members of a committee.

The patronesses will be: Mrs. F. A. Dickinson, Mrs. H. P. Love, Mrs. Chester A. Dorrance and Mrs. C. W. Bauer.

A card party will be given this afternoon by the Elks' Ladies' Five Hundred at the clubrooms at 2 o'clock. All Elks' wives, sisters and mothers invited.

Hints on Health
Dr. Frederick M. Rossiter.
Operation for Gallstones.
A. WRITES: "Is there a method of treatment to relieve gallstones without an operation? If so would you kindly publish advice concerning the same in The Oregonian?"
Reply.
The only treatment that will relieve one permanently of gallstones is a surgical operation. It is possible to relieve an attack of "gallstones" and there was any way of knowing that the patient only had one stone and that stone passed during "the attack" then there would be no need for an operation. But this is the unknown quantity. Before a person has an attack of gallstones he in all probability has several to 400 stones in the gall bladder. It is also true that a person may pass stone with a great amount of pain and not have another attack for many years or never, but the chances are that more attacks will follow—perhaps in a week, in a month, or at frequent intervals. Considering the chances one is taking in having repeated attacks of gallstones the

Parent Teacher Associations

In preparation for the big community meeting to be held in Irvington School on Thursday night, the Parent-Teacher Association held an afternoon session yesterday when the members had the opportunity of viewing the collection of pictures that has been loaned to the schools through the interest of the school beautifying committee. In the morning Miss Henrietta Eliot gave a talk to the school on the pictures and in the afternoon, Mrs. Frank Kerr addressed the members of the association. There are 200 pictures in the collection. They are reproductions of famous paintings, some in colors and some in sepia and others in monochrome. Many of them are loaned by Woodard & Clarke, Lipman, Wolfe & Co., the Portland Library, the Eliot School and the Western Framing Company. They are chosen as types best suited for placing in schools, as they give to the children a right conception of the best in art and of what constitutes good taste in pictures.

Mrs. J. C. Elliott King, who is at the head of the school beautifying committee, has, with her assistants, devoted much time and untiring effort to the gathering and arranging of this exhibit. The committee representatives have given talks in the schools and these have been of great interest to the children. The committee also has arranged excursions for the school children to visit the Museum of Art and are preparing to take up the matter of beautifying the school grounds by planting shrubs, roses and vines.

Tomorrow evening Miss Henrietta Eliot will give an address at the open meeting. A fair play in German will be presented by pupils of the Ninth grade who will be welcomed by Frau Baden. Anyone residing in the Irvington district who is interested in the school or who will be welcomed. The guests will be received by Mrs. E. C. Titus, president of the association; Mrs. J. N. Beers, Mrs. L. R. Alderman, chairman of the Irvington School beautifying committee; Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. L. R. Wentworth, Miss Jenkins and several prominent matrons of Irvington who are officers and members of the Parent-Teacher Association.

Thursday will be an important day for the Portland Parent-Teacher Association. In the afternoon the regular council meeting will be held in the library. Special conferences will be held at 1 o'clock for presidents, programme committee, home department, luncheon committee, social service and friendly visitors. The general meeting will follow. In the evening under the auspices of the association a meeting will be held at which musical entertainers will be discussed. R. L. Sabin will preside.

The regular meeting of the Thompson Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the assembly-room of the Thompson school Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

There also will be several numbers by the school orchestra.

NEW MEASURE IS URGED

A. J. KINGSLEY DECLARES EMPLOYERS' ACT DEFECTIVE.

Waiting Period Advocated and Other Features Embodied Along Lines Now in Force in Michigan.

Proceeding on the conviction that the employers' liability act is defective and unworkable, A. J. Kingsley, president of the Oregon Chair Company and a member of the Manufacturers' Association of Oregon, has prepared a substitute workmen's compensation bill which will be submitted to the forthcoming legislature.

In a circular letter, with a copy of the proposed substitute act, Mr. Kingsley points out that the present feature of state insurance in the Oregon law is different from most statutes covering this subject and declares that the states which have competitive methods of insurance are making the improvement of Fortieth avenue in the questions of classifying and rating insurance.

The waiting period feature, which is not provided for in the Oregon law, is advocated by Mr. Kingsley. The substitute act drafted by Mr. Kingsley is based on the general provisions of the Michigan law, with due allowance for a reasonable increase in the scale of compensation so as to compare favorably in that respect with the Oregon law. It suggests that it would be more practical and satisfactory to enact an entirely new law along the lines suggested in his bill than to attempt to remedy the defects of the present act through amendments.

CHILD OF EIGHT WEAK AND AILING

Little Collins Girl Also Had Stubborn Chronic Cough—Father Tells How She Was Restored to Health by Vinol.

Lakeport, N. H.—"Our little girl, 8 years of age, was in a debilitated, run-down condition, and had a stubborn, chronic cough. When she failed to get any out of school, on account of her condition, she was weak and ailing all the time and far from well.

"We treated her cough, but nothing seemed to help her until we tried Vinol. The cough was noticed an immediate improvement. Her appetite increased and now she is strong and well and we can recommend Vinol to other parents who have delicate, ailing children."—George A. Collins, Lakeport, N. H.

What Vinol did for this little girl it will do for other weak and ailing children, because they need the tissue-building, strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains. It is delicious to the taste.

That's why Vinol builds them up so quickly, and we ask parents of delicate children in this vicinity to try Vinol with the understanding that we will return their money if it fails to give satisfactory results. The Owl Drug Co., Portland, Or.

NOTE—You can get Vinol at the leading druggists in every town where this paper circulates.—Adv.
