RYAN IS TRADED TO SALT LAKE EVENLY

McCredie Lets Star Fielder Go for Roy Moran, Center-Fielder of ex-Senators.

SPEED WINS OVER BATTING

Statistics Prove Contention That Buddy Is Superior to New Acquisition in Stick Line-Ryan Sorry to Leave Portland.

By ROSCOE PAWCETT.
Buddy Ryan, famous "Home Run Buddy," of the Portland champions of 1910, 1911 and 1914, will not wear a Portland Coast uniform next year. Purmuant to an intimation dropped some weeks ago, Manager McCredie yesterday disposed of his star slugger. Ryan was traded even up to Salt Lake City for Roy Moran, centerfielder on the Sacramento team for the past two years.

Sacraments team for the past two years.

"I think I strongthened myself immensely," said the Benver boss, explaining his reasons for the trade. "Moran is a wonderful fielder, a corker on the bases and a good 270 hitter. He was troubled with a lame arm last year, but in 1913 was one of the very best gardeners in the Coast League.

"Buddy has a lot of good ball in him yet, but he is not the type I desire. I want speed on my team next year. Also I need a right-handed batter because I have too many left-handers for a well-balanced club."

Moran has been enrolled in the ranks of the professional diamond sport since 1906. He broke in with Vincennes in the Kitty League. Roy remained there until the Spring of 1907, when he transferred his affections to Jacksonville, of the Central Association. That season was a successful one for Roy. He was drafted by Atlanta, of the Southern League, and remained at Atlanta until mid-season of 1911, when shunted over to Chattanooga.

Weshington requisitioned his servto Chattanooga.

Washington requisitioned his services near the close of 1912, but presumably he needed development, because Griffith sold him to Sacramento in the Spring of 1913, along with "Lord" Kenworthy.

Here is his record for the past four years:

You can prove anything you want to prove by figures, but the above statistics would appear to give Moran all the edge on speed and Ryan the batting superiority. Unquestionably Moran has it all over Buddy in speed, and this is further forcibly indicated by the fielding speed.

The opening contest of the Portland Interscholastic League's 1915 basketfurther forcibly indicated by the fielding records.

In 150 games in center field Moran got his mitts on 427 chances. Buddy, in 10 more games, handled 80 fewer opportunities.

However, Buddy's hitting is a valuable factor and if his injured kneer cought to help the Mormons.

With the exception of two years—1312 and 1912, at Cleveland—Buddy has spent most of his baseball career in Pertiand. He said last night that he was sorry to leave Portland, but was glad to remain in the Pacific Coast League.
