Louie Hing Seen to Shoot Lum Foon in Portland, but Is at The Dalles at Same Hour.

TELEPHONE BRINGS NEWS

Another Witness for Defense Im-Swearing He Was Playing Cards When Shot Was Fired.

If Louis Hing, on trial for the murder of Lum Foon, does not possess the remarkable faculty of being in two laces at the same time, at least three Chinese have perjured themselves.

Two days ago three Chinese got on the witness stand in Circuit Judge court and swore that they saw

Davis' court and swore that they saw Louie Hing shoot Lum Foon in the back and saw Lum Foon die, Yesterday three other Chinese sat in the same chair and under the same conditions said Louie Hing was in The Dailes on the night of March 16, 1913, and at the hour of the murder.

The witnesses who saw Louie Hing shoot Lum Foon are said to be, or at least to have been, members of the Bow Leong tang. Lum Foon was a member of the Bow Leong tong.

The witnesses who played fantan with Louie Hing in The Dailes while Lum Foon was getting shot in Portland are, or are said to be, members of the Hop Sing tong. Louie Hing is a Hop Sing.

He is a prominent merchant of The Dalies, and a member of the Hop Sing Dalics, and a member of the Hop Sing teng. Louis Hing was visiting in his house on the night of March 16, 1913, and for some time before and after, he textified. He knew it was the exact date, because that night someone had called up on the telephone from Portland and told him someone was killed. Explaining further, he said his telephone rang and a long-distance call. phone rang and a long-distance call, intended for Sing Fang, came from Seld

Rev. John H. Boyd. D. D., will give an "at home" to his congregation and friends, with a special reception to new members, on Monday, January 25, at 7:45 P. M. Officers of the church, with their wives, will be on the reception committee, and the first hour will be one of general sociability and good fellowship.

The second hour will be one of enertainment and information, and Dr. Beyd has procured for the occasion the set of natural color slides showing the beauties of Oregon scenery along the Columbia and arranged for Samuel C. Lancaster to give an explanatory address. Mr. Lancaster is well known in his work in connection with the Columbia Bilver Highway and has some remarkable views of every part of the work, as well as the natural scenery during the freezing weather of the past Winter, when the river and falls, with their sparkling crystals and gigantic ficiles, made such marvelous subjects for the new natural color camers, which Mr. Lancaster has been instrumental in perfecting.

Two other Chinese verified this in every detail.

Lee Gin, the witness for the defense who preceded these three, had impeached the testimony of Seld Jan, partner of Lum Foon. Lee Gin said he was a fairly prosperous dealer in classrs and soap on North Fourth street. On the night of the murder, he swore, he was playing fantan in the gambling and charge of the English department of the Trade School, and then was made principal, but he was sure Mr. Gary branched to the Brooklyn school. Mr. Alderman paid high tribute to Miss Aphia L. Dimick, the late principal, but he was sure Mr. Gary series. SOME JOBS YET IN DOUBT

New Twist in Matter of Steady Appointment of Those Now Serving Temporarily May Call Forth Legal Opinion on Eligibility.

Out of 24 persons who took a recent Municipal Civil Service examination for the positions of private secretaries to members of the City Commission 13 received a passing grade, according to the official announcement of ratings as made public yesterday by the Civil Service Board. On the list Mrs. Willmetta McElroy, chief legal clerk in the city's legal bureau, passed highest with a rating of 92.35 per cent.

with a rating of $2.35 per cent.

The ratings as announced make the way clear for the appointment of all the secretaries now serving under temporary appointment, except possibly the private secretary to Commissioner Bigelow, Miss Elsic Proulx. Her permanent appointment to the position depends upon the manner in which the list of eligibles is certified to the Commissioners or upon the attitude assumed by Commissioner Bigelow. Miss Proulx passed the examination with a rating of $1.55 per cent, which gave her the ninth place, on the list.

Under the civil service system the Civil Service Board certifies to the Commissioner who is to make the appointment the three persons standing highest on the list.

The case probably will go to the jury late today.

When the trial opened yesterday morning the defense called Lee Yin. He did not respond, and a search was made for bim. The attorneys fumed and fussed, the Chinese got uneasy, and the court waited patiently. Half an hour the opening of the trial was delayed. Then Lee Yin appeared.

Judge Davis assessed him $3 for delaying the court half an hour. Lee Yin caimly paid his fine and went on the witness stand.

Present Secretaries Named in 1912.

The private secretaries now serving were appointed in July, 1913. They are serving temporarily, pending the present examination. They are: Miss Margaret White, secretary to Commissioner Brewster; Charles E. Atlas, secretary to Commissioner Dieck; James H. McCool, secretary to Commissioner Daly, and Miss Elsie A.
