

After the conference after all all Rockefeller nor the miners' officials would discuss the talk in detail. Mr. Rockefeller would say only that there Rockefeller would say only that there had been an exchange of views and that the union men had given him that the union men had given him some information as to conditions which he was glad to know. There were present in the conference besides Mr. Rockefeller William Lyon MacKennie King, head of the industrial relations division of the Rockefeller Institution: Starr J, Murphy, a mem-ber of the personal staff of John D. Rockefeller: Frank J. Hayes, vice-president of the United Mine Workers of America; John R. Lawson, Inter-mational executive board member of the United Mine Workers, and Edward the United Mine Workers, and Edward usk us any leading questions. See Mr. Rockefeller."

not say whether they expected to have another talk with Mr. Rockefeller. They will be in New York for sev-ference room a few minutes later, but did not give an extended review of the conference, as he had done after his talk with vious duy.

When are you going to Colorado, Mr. Rockefeller? f you can tell me that I should be i to know," he replied, "erhaps not until Spring?" was the next querry. "I cannot tell," he replied, "There are certain things upon which that will ger. depend.

(Continued From First Page.) arious trades, such as bricklaying painting, carpentary and plumbing.

Unions Oppose Trade School. Labor leaders had told him, he testi-

This great medicine is a peculiar combination of remarkably effective blood-purifying and health-giving roots, barks and heros, which are gathered especially for it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has stood the tes of forty years.

Get a bottle today-now-from your

Until further notice a big $1.50

War Map FREE with each set