The Oregonian PORTLAND, OREGON.

ed at Portland, Oregon, Post ind-class matter, ription Eates-Invariably in

(By Mail.) (By Mail.) Sunday included, one year Sunday included, six months Sunday included, six months without Sunday, one year without Sunday, one year without Sunday, one year without Sunday, one year y and Weekly one year (By Carrier.)

(By Carrier.

Postage Raise 12 to 15 pages, 1 cent: 15 52 pages, 2 cents; 54 to 45 pages, 3 cents; 15 69 pages, 4 cents; 51 to 75 pages, 3 nis; 78 to 92 pages, 6 cents. Foreign post-e, double rates.

Kastern Basiness Office-Veree & Conk New York, Brunswick building; Chicago nger building.

San Francisco Office-R. J. Bidwell Com-

FORTLAND, SATURDAY, JAN. 30, 1915.

THE WAYS OF THE SPENDTHRIFT.

After the manner of the spendthrift, the Democratic party continues to money without regard to the supply of money it has made available. enacted the income tax to make good the reduction in customs revenue aused by the Underwood tariff, but the revenue fell short of its estimate, and, with its customary improvidence, it spent more even than it had estimated. When the war caused an unexpected shrinkage in customs revit made no attempt to curtail expenses, but levied emergency taxes to be collected until the end of 1915.

Although estimates of customs rev nue for the coming fiscal year have already proved more than $19,000,000 in excess of the facts, taking the past seven months as a basis, Congress continues to appropriate not only all the revenue that Secretary McAdoo estimated, but millions more. The amount of customs revenue is most uncertain, for it is contingent on the ourse, duration and possible exten-ion of hostilities in Europe, Asia and One through all Africa. Should Italy join in the war, its exports would shrink, as Britain's and France's have already shrunk, though they control the sea. Should rather than from the standpoint of sion, afterwards repudiated, was ob some disaster deprive the allies of the American people.

When this country was thrown open to immigrants, illiteracy was common, naval supremacy, British and French exports would shrink still further. The inevitable result would be shrinkage the country needed population, and wehrmann was the author of the in our imports from those countries the people who came were of kindred crime. The Oregonian does not dis ands consequently in our customs stock to the native population. The country is now so well populated and

Although the best military opinion its development is so far advanced that to that the war will continue far into 1916 and possibly into 1917, and, although the war's adverse effects on our revenue will surely continue for rather than quantity. Illiteracy is now rare in this country, but is comseveral years after its close, provision mon among present-day immigrants, for emergency taxes has been made. The latter, too, are of stock alien to only until the end of 1915 and no attempt has been made to reduce ex- population.

We have a right to act according to In such a financial situation prudent man would endeavor to our own views of what is best for ourkeep his expenses well within his most selves. We are under no obligation to consider the interests of would-be imservative estimates of income, but prudence seems to be an unknown migrants. We do the illiterate no fective person, which Mr. Wehrmann uality in the Democratic majority of wrong by excluding them, for admission to this country is a privilege Congress

Ordinary disbursements of the Gov- which we may deny, not a right which rnment for the fiscal year 1914, ex- we are bound to admit. Hence we clusive of Panama Canal, public debt may exclude the illiterate as within and postoffice, were $17,483,784 more our rights and as agreeing with our than in the previous fiscal year, and interests, regardless of their feelings Pender prosecutor is now seeking to the total disbursements, including the and interests. mentioned, were $35,000,000 No doubt in so doing we shall ad-The war began a month after mit some scoundrels merely because items mentioned, were $35,000,000 the opening of the present fiscal year, they are educated and shall exclude and ordinary foresight would have dic-tated most rigid economy in order to are illiterate, but that is inevitable provide against its consequences, but in the application of a general rule. It the departments continued to spend at is impracticable to make exceptions an accelerated pace. Mr. McAdoo's in such cases. Enough for us that in estimates indicate ordinary disburse- its general effect the new rule will ments in the current fiscal year of work out to our advantage by raising $710,000.000 or nearly $10,000,000 the standard of quality among immi-more than in the preceding year. This grants and improving the standard of hypodermic syringe is not altogether $710,000,000 amount is only $15,00,090 less than the estimate of receipts, and that eslimate threatens to prove $19,000,000 The estimate in excess of the facts, or the Panama Canal being $28,000, 000. an actual deficit of $20,000,000 000. an actual deficit of $20,000,000 can be avoided only by issuing bonds for the Canal exceedings

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1916, Mr. McAdoo estimates ordinary mediate occasion of the British declar-

given the subject two minutes' thought forty years will be in ruins and the knows that in no other way can ex-two Anglo-Saxon nations may be able detect a plebelan showing his vulgar penses be kept within income, but to supplant it so fully as to retain interest in anything precious and ready

WHY OBJECT?

every move in that direction is met supremacy. with objection that the Constitution, Germany succeeded through the or some law or precedent or some-body's prerogative is in the way, and and enterprise of her business men, no attempt is made to remove these but above all through readiness to obstacles. Never until the present ses-sion has President Wilson said a word ods to the wishes of her customers. In New York each branch has its own frigidly exclusive home with a comin favor of economy, and that late Only by adopting those methods can word was accompanied by a warning the United States and Britain hold not to be too economical, as though permanently that which the war en-there were any danger of that. One ables them to gain, for the war will compensation for the imposition of di-rect taxes is that it may arouse the apply herself with redoubled energy to with ice. people to the point where they will restoration of her ruined commerce.

even Congress will hear.

The Oregonian is not convinced that John Arthur Pender is innocent of the PAYING FOR "EFFICIENCY." The city has a so-called "efficiency murder of Mrs. Daisy Wehrmann and ystem" made up largely of wise saws her child. But The Oregonian is convinced that a reasonable doubt has been raised in the mind of a large trite maxims and finished diagrams. Its purpose is to do by system what part of the public as to his guilt. It this doubt can now be effectually elimsafe-and-sane municipalities elsewhere do by common sense. The system is a woful failure, as it promised to be from the beginning. inated credit will attach to the prosecuting officers for having built a conviction out of scattered and not too substantial straws of evidence and se-Nobody in the city administration follows it, unless he finds it perfectly cured the early incarceration of the guilty person. On the other hand, if convenient, and nobody really under-stands it. It is, or was, the latest muit were finally proyed that Pender did nicipal fad, and so Portland had to not commit the murder the liberation It was bought from a pomphave it. of a man long harassed and burdened ous efficiency expert from New York, who was hired by some enthusiastic by unjust imprisonment would made possible. citizens to tell Portland what was the In the light of these circumstances matter it ill becomes anyone who was con-This is the way it works: Three nected with the prosecution to take personal affront at the investigations laborers are declared by Commissioner Dieck to be incompetent. There is now under way or to impugn motives on bare suspicion. The attitude of Mr. ample testimony to that effect, but be hold! when the records are examined E. B. Tongue, the prosecuting attorit is found that all three have excelney, would be much more creditable if lent markings. The system says they it were one of cheerful welcome to the most rigid review of and investigation are perfectly efficient; but their superiors say they are not.

into the case. He is thoroughly con-vinced that justice has not miscarried. The system that disregards everyday experience, and takes away the The public is not so sure of it. authority of a superior over his em-ployers and workers, is an absurdity. harm could a triumphant vindication of his oninion do to Mr. Tongue? It is worse. It is a positive hindrance to real efficiency. Yet Mr. Tongue assails Mr. George A. Thacher, to whose disinterested efforts the nominal reopening of the case is due, with sarcasm and bitter-OF THE IMMUNET fundamental error runs President Wilson's VETO OF THE IMMIGRATION BILL. In justice to Mr. Thacher statement should be made as to what objections to the literacy test for im-migrants. He looks at the subject article. This contribution was offered from the standpoint of the immigrants and was published before the confes tained from John G. Sierks. Mr. Tongue professes to see in the ar-ticle a veiled accusation that Mr. the cover the slightest attempt to impli-cate Mr. Wehrmann in Mr. Thacher's first article.

we can afford to be more particular whom we admit and to look to quality it, Mr. Thacher expressed to The Ore-Moreover, at the time he submitted gonian his belief that the crime had been committed by a feeble-minded youth of homicidal tendencies then confined in the Insane Asylum and that arrangements had already been made to question him in the hope of obtaining a voluntary confession. the article itself Mr. Thacher pressed the conviction that the murder was the work of a mentally deis not In his first discussion of the Pender case, Mr. Thacher asserted that Pen-der had been convicted on inferences and suspicions. It is a coincidence somewhat curious in a way, that the > FATHER BROWN. Father Brown's fame is not quite so orilliant as that of Sherlock Holmes, but it shines with a purer luster. The astute hero of Sir A. Conan Doyle's incredible tales is addicted to a habit and angularities in his disposition which it is an effort to love. G.K. Chesterton's Father Brown works mir-terest in the physical combat that we Intellectual mystery. The kindly priest ers. unravels the plot of one crime after ns are ever on the watch, alert to SHOOTING BY POLICE PROTESTED.

to harry him out into the street. Chicago Art Institute shelter The all varieties of beauty under the same roof. Music, painting, sculpture, architecture are equally at home there frigidly exclusive home with a com-plete paraphernalia of footmen, bui-lers and liveries. Chicago hands out art to the people as freely as water. New York offers it in delicate parti-cles, stingily, on sliver platters coated with ice.

display.

Tf

Rural social life is blighted by too nuch fuss and feathers. Hostesses

Officer Klingensmith, one driving machine would have difficulty in hear ing a voice from the sidewalk. I have discussed this with several automobile owners, and all uphold me in this con-clusion waste precious energy "putting on style." Neighbors should meet in each others' houses without formality or Granting that this sergeant may If there is anything to eat, use the every-day dishes. But it is been testing the vigilance of his offi-use the every-day dishes. But it is cers, is it likely he would extend this better to have no refreshments. Peo-test to such a degree as to endanger ple should learn to meet and talk with-

The Portlander Came Back.

pass me through." four're qualified to pass inside, but ple should learn to meet and talk with-out eating or drinking, discuss their business sensibly and avoid all foolish imitation of city humbug. The Nobel prize money of $40,000 awarded Theodore Roosevelt and given by him to found an industrial peace fund, may as well be returned as re-quested. A fund of that nature would be frittered in salaries and expenses without result. There cannot be in-dustrial peace while employer and em-ploye disagree. Contention is an esploye disagree. Contention is an es- the policeman in discharge of his duty

below

sleep.

earth.

thing!

outspring

the seed

nest

rest In its shudy boughs, in the same warm

Sinner and saint have opened their ever

To the wondrous light of the morning skies And the terrible story of Abel and Cain should happen down our sential of human nature. Aside from that, perhaps the Colonel needs the money.

The community sing is as practical ble in rural neighborhoods as in the city and would be even more beneficial. Nothing is needed but "somebody to go ahead." A woman of sense and energy to lead a phonograph with good popular records and a place t meet-these are the prereouisites, and What every country neighborho od has them What school district will report the first community sing?

> According to German military crit cs the latest North Sea engagement proves that superior guns, coupled with speed, are a big asset in naval warfare. By the same wonder process of observation and deducti monderfu the conclusion might be reached that brains, energy, capital and opportu nity are calculated to contribute a great deal toward success in a busines venture.

While President Wilson holds that we are observing strict neutrality in throwing our markets open to world, the whole world might not ac cept that idea. For while sound theory it is not quite so sound in effect, inasmuch as Germany and Aus-tria are shut off from trading with us. It is just such differences in ion that make horseracing and war possible

E. H. Flagg, a versatile newspaperman of Oregon, cannot be kept away from the business. He is about to giv palladium of liberty to the city Warrenton, which is where the state ends and the Pacific Ocean begins.

Because there is no state money a hand, the husband of a murdered woman guarantees the expense of returning the criminal from California His motive, to be sure, is revenge, but good citizens will wish him luck. Much of the individual "joy will epend on the wording of the dry law, whether it means two quarts of whisky and fifteen quarts of beer or two quarts of the corn juice or fifteen bottles of the brew of the hop.

Villa having been driven out of the apital by Carranza will now prepare or two which do not exactly edify his to move on the capital. Moving on the capital appears to be the popular beautiful and there are certain cranks side of the Mexican revolution industry.

Atrocity war experts appear to have

In

Chesterion's Father Brown works mithod blown up. We have reason to believe own hand acles quite as wonderful as those of Sherlock Holmes, but he does it with that the atrocilies were largely the ravings of nervous civilian pen sling-Or a wandering bird may have dropt a good deal less pomp and parade of ravings of nervous civilian pen sling-That grew and spread like a noxious

Check on Patrolmen Firing in Pursuit of Duty Is Wanted.

PORTLAND, Jan. 22 .- (To the Ed itor.)-Undoubtedly the time is ripe for the citizens of Bortland to voice their They They rant of their power and prestigo and their systems of ways and sentiment regarding the apparent less sacrifice of human life by the police in discharge of their "d

H K

bined?

The Combination. boast, do New York and Chicago. Boston and New Orleans: rant of their power and prestige and their systems of ways and means. is proud of her monstrous high hulldings, her bright lights and millionairs crowds: ther is proud of her culture and millionairs crowds: ther is proud of her culture and millionairs crowds: ther is proud of her culture and factories, her rairouds and such the to the pool of her commetce, her factories, her rairouds and such the to other boasts all hospitality put on with an artistic touch. the to the pool of the commetce her factories and the second standing in the le the other boasts all hospitality put of with an artistic touch. While the

Topical Verse

will be ignored. The debate would be held under the auspices of the Portland Rationalist Society, in Library Hall, where this organization meets regularly Sunday evenings. Any other hall would do as well. Lincoln High School and iterwe grant to each city her merits and recall many more we've not named; each one has much more to boast of than what has already been ium might be procured, as having greater seating capacity. claimed. But if looking for all of these merits. why turn to each burg for its kind. When our own fair city of Portland has all of these virtues comturn to each burg for fits

I greater scatting capacity. I am prepared to defend the fore-going proposition at any time, suiting the convenience of the clergyman who accepts the challengs. Should the chal-lenge be accepted, the time, place and further dotalle can be arranged a wards. H. C. UTHOFF. od after

PREACHER ASKED TO DEBATE

H. C. Uthoff Would Argue Question

501 Schuyler

Jitney Competition Unfair-

the in my estimation deteriorating to the general advantage of the people of Portland. The jitney thrives on short hauls only, while the railway gives good

The economical result of such com-

Saturday.

CORVALLIS, Or., Jan. 25,- (To the Sditor.)--Will you inform me please or what day Fobruary 15, 1899, occurred

Exploits of Elaine

in

The Sunday

Oregonian

story been written than this detective novel by Arthur B. Reeve, in which he recounts the adventures of Craig Kennedy, whose scientific methods of detecting crime are familiar to American fiction readers. Read the first installment of this novel tomorrow and you will miss none of

OTHER FEATURES OF THE BIG SUNDAY PAPER.

Women of Russia.

ten concerning the part the Much has been said and writ-the succeeding chapters.

of

Seldom has a more thrilling ce, but the competition of the PORTLAND, Jan. 29 .-- To the Editor, I-- I am financially uninterested is itney service or street railway serv-

Street

She has buildings as high as is pru-dent, for her motto is "Safety first," And she is ridding herself of the foun-

Bad influence of Holiday Pay. PORTLAND, Jan, 25.--(To the Edi-tor.)--You state in an editorial Janu-ary 27, "No able-bodied man should be given food, clothes or lodging unless he renders as equivalent."

tains where bibulous youths feed their thirst. brightest of lights are ber roses. The whole world knows of their fame.

fame. Of millionalres she has a-plenty-more than a score can she claim. Then speaking of commerce, kind sir, a few. And as to her hospitality we leave that. Kind stranger, to you. And as to her hospitality we leave that. Manual sector is a few. And as to her hospitality we leave that.

St. Peter in his robes of state sat dos-ing at the golden gate, when siap upon the shoulder broke his day-dream with a hearty stroke. Thus spake the bold intruder: "Hey! Wake up, good guardian saint, I pray, and rive a warfare a hund of welcome kind stranger, to you. C. O. BUNNELL 714 Esther avenue, Vancouver, Wash. at work. My point is that any subterfuge for a holiday they take advantage of soil always demand full pay. I claim that when they accept pay therefor they put themselves on the plane of those paupers whose chief purpose in tile is not to sell their labor, but to live at work.

When the Roses Are in Bloom.

give a wayfarer a hand of welcome to Beulah Land. I came from Port-land, Oregon, that never-equaled city on the famed Willamette; there's a stream that surely is an aqueous dream! O'er all the peopled earth below from Hobeken to Jericho (A Rosarian Invitation.) (A Rosarian Invitation.) Would you see a spot of beauty unex-celled in all the land. Where the vernat hills majestically rise? from Hoboken to Jeriche picture of rare loveliness superla-without labor. Such employes are beloing themselves downward on the road from the plane of a self-support-ing, self-respecting citizen. A. MARMADURE tively grand, That delights the soul when mirrored in the eyes7 The most alluring spot in all the beau-teous world-farmed West, Where the air is redolent with rare below from Hoboken to Jericho there's not a city can compare in beauty picturesquely rare—in any point of peerless worth—with that fair gem set in the earth. Get action on your golden key and throw the gate ajar for me. Credentials? Say, you're joking, saint. Why, bless your honored whiskers, aln't it quite enough for me to say I came from Portland, U.S. A.? Is not that fact sufficient to admit me? Rise and pass me through." perfume, And the heart of every tourist throbs with pleasure in its nest? Come to Portland when the roses are in bloom.

Your're qualified to pass inside, but you would not be salisfied with your surroundings, sir, I fear, like other Portlanders now here. You'd think the place not equal to your City Beautiful and you would roam 'round like a captive ape in fruitless efforts to escape and drop back to the city from which you ascended. Now, sir, come, be sensible, hike back below while you have got the chance to go. for once inside the golden door you'd have to stay there evermore and with homesickness wall and weep. Now please go 'way and let me sleep." Would you gaze on masterpleces of rare architectural skill, embodiments of majesty and grace? The

The jitney thrives on short hauls only, while the railway gives good service to all alike. The jitney thus becomes a parasite on first-class railway service.

In eye-entrancing beauty they are seen on every hill Where the hand of man has smoothed references to the second of source competition is that on all runs other than short, the electric company would be forced to diminish the number of cars -bence crowded cars and long wall-ing. Am 1 right? Where the hand of man has smoothed old Nature's face. Homes in which through open windows float the breathings of the soul Of floral treasures filling every room With a delicate aroma unexcelled from pole to pole; Come to Portland when the roses are in bloom ing. Am I right? This is only one viewpoint of the question, to say nothing of the great-er security afforded a passenger while riding on a streetcar. EDWARD JASPEM.

in bloom

sleep." Within your realm do roses grow?" the stranger asked. Said Peter: "No. Our realm is payed (and sad his tones) with virgin gold and preclous stones; no soil is here to give glad birth to flowers such as those on To this favorel modern Aldenn every gateway stands ajar. And the light of welcome glows in

And the nght of which a are every eye. Every hand is reached in greeting to the strangers from afar. Aye, from every land beneath the arching sky. Come and breathe the peerless fra-grance ever floating in the air. When its laden with the earth's pre-mein perfume. hen this would not be heaven to me," he shade replied regretfully, "and "Il go back, and Peter, say, if you come to Portland, Oregon, when our Rose Festival is on and ten to one you'd never fly away and come back here. Goodbye." way, just

JAMES BARTON ADAMS.

The Family Tree. Oh, the family tree is a wonderful

The Queen of Flowers

tinnd rose.

In cottage or in mansion grand. The social famed voluptuous flower.

ppe of our elevated race Breathes out its loveliness and

The Queen of Flowers. "The whole world knows the Fortland Rose." The symbol of an ancient race Whose gardens bloom luxuriant When Summer winds caress the face. Their awkward reverence for flowers Is something of a geilal grace For nature smiles in many moods. And Summer rites must have their place. From the deep rich mould of the past The mighty roots, and high overhead The many forked branches are widel spread. widely

And its fruit is the kind that all met

Either good or bad, ripening fast or slow. Bitter and acrid or luscions and sweet Only for show or pleasant to cat. place.

The whole world knows the Portland

Dear fragrant rose

Rose," Its famed abundance in our clime And it may have been planted by God

Its fames abundance in our chains, Is happy augur of our chains, To make our festival renowned. The bounty of our smiling plains We symbolize it in a flower. And grasp the hands of many lands, The Portland rose, the queen ome at $755,000,000 and ordinary disbursements at $713,765,104. Adding $15,931,865 for the Panama Canal only $2,303,030. That this narrow given rise in Germany to frenzied hatred of England, and in England to to be replaced by a deficit is plainly intimated by Mr. McAdoo in the following note which he appends to his figures:

It is not safe to rely too much on these stimutes for 1916 in view of the uncertainty reasioned by the European war.

To these ordinary disbursements and the Canal estimate must be addcommunication with almost the whole world. This was easy, for Britain coned $297,355,164 for the postoffice and trois nearly every cable station in $50,723,000 for the sinking fund, world, Germany now communicates bringing the total to $1,090,775,184. with the United States only by wireless The postoffice estimate was based on to Sayville, L. L. and cannot reach the entirely unwarranted assumption Asia or Africa by cable

Postmaster-General Burleson that Great Britain also set to work to Congress would adopt his scheme for converting rural routes into star routes drive German commerce from the ocean and has so far succeeded that under contract. As Congress has re-3,000,000 tons of vessels flying the German flag are confined to port or fected that scheme, the postal estimate must be increased to $320,385,000 have been sunk. which is only $$5,000 less than the merce, except with her immediate estimated postal revenue. Thus the neighbors, has been destroyed. Postoffice Department promises barely The payment of debts due by British to pay its way instead of adding more to German subjects is also forbidden. while governmental aid has been exthan $22.000,000 to Mr. McAdoo's estimated surplus. This estimate makes tended to those Britons whom the war no provision for the sinking fund, has prevented from collecting sums which has small prospect of getting due them in the enemy's country. Se-But with a deficit staring it in the face, Congress and the departments have added still further to the huge total of expenditures in prospect, for additional estimates of about $25,000,-000 have been made. The original esimates include items which could well be reduced in times of financial stress It is proposed to spend $57,261,823 on rivers and harbors, including permaannual appropriations, as comboycott. pared with $29,663,600 in the presen discal year, and to spend $10,000,000 more on buying ships. The estimates for legislative, Commerce, Labor and Justice Departments all show increases aggregating millions. The necessary additions to the Army and Navy could be made without adding to the total if Congress would stop the more than half the municipal expenses ships at $13,668.734, an increase of more than $600,000 over the current year. though common justice dictates that by economic pressure as by armed absent. the Government should pay an amount force.

equivalent only to taxes on its prop-One bureau after another has Congress for a deficiency allowance. own law forhidding deficiencies.

There has been endless talk of a budget system, but nothing is done. cause Congress is jealous of the ex-another with a certain sweetness of ation of war on Germany was Bel-gium, the cause which has been deagreeable detective in the world. veloping for several decades is com-This sentiment has mercial rivalry. a stern determination to defeat Gerdestroying her many, not only by armies in the battlefield, but by extinguishing her commerce and by reducing her to economic prostration.

The first step was the isolation Germany by cutting her off from cable

ECONOMIC WAR ON GERMANY.

There is so much more human in every detective story has a ending. The writers in that delectable + 24 mode are not bound by any theories to give us an accurate picture of life. They dwell lightly in a world of illusions where everything comes out hapnily at the end. For that reason they bo you remember "The Fugitive treason; but to be effective she must Blacksmith." gentle reader? It was not a detective story exactly, but it was next thing to one and we dare say it Germany's comgave more innocent pleasure to harassed generation than any book of scientific homilies or dull essays that was ever published.

ART IN NEW YORK AND CHICAGO. Gutzon Borglum, the distinguished sculptor, has been making some comparisons, more or less odious, between vere measures have been taken to prevent use of British capital in financing New York and Chicago as centers of In his opinion New York is far operations which might, even indirectaid Germany. German firms in behind her western rival in this mat-British possessions have been forced ter. The exhibitions at the New York to liquidate, and all British financial Academy, for instance, "cannot be aid has been withdrawn from comom-In Art Institute." Indeed, Mr. Borglum merce controlled by Germans. South America, for example, German thinks there are several cities in the coffee firms are selling out or reorgan. United States which furnish forth better art shows than the metropolis ising in order to escape the British does. There are 2000 students at the Chi-Not only is German commerce being exterminated by these means, but efcago Institute studying art, 1500 of forts are made to paralyze German them in night classes. The lectures or Franz Hals and Mozart draw as well industry by depriving it of raw materials. This is being done by extending the list of contraband to cover every as the "movies," says Mr. Borglum. The reason for this extraordinary state commodity which could possibly be of affairs is not far to seek nor diffi used in war. So wide is the range of cult to find. In Chicago art is a vita such goods that it includes very many thing intimately associated with the articles used in peace as well as in life of the people. The Art Institute waste on useless Army posts and Navy yards. Congress persists in paying war. Deprived of materials, markets, is closely linked to common interests. The pictures and statues are placed and banking credit, German Washington, which are estimated manufactures and commerce may be where the people easily reach them well-nigh extinguished, and the em-pire may be brought to terms as much restrictions are few, busybody guard-ians and police are conspicuously

Chicago people have been made to British merchants are already exert- feel that the Art Institute with all that ing themselves to occupy the foreign goes on there is their own pos exceeded its appropriation and gone to field from which Germany has been It makes beauty throb with life for driven and thus to compensate the them. New York does just the oppo That body lacks nerve to enforce its British empire in some measure for its site. The Metropolitan Museum is a own losses and its own war expendi-tures. They will be brought into keen ple who go there feel that they are rivalry with American merchants in barely tolerated intruders upon a do-this field, but these two nations will main sacred to the higher circles. The contive and each committee of Con-press is unwilling to relax its grip on outset. The splendid commercial on lofty pedestals or behind glittering the public purse. Every man who has structure which Germany built in and frosty panes of glass. Chill guard-

Crown Prince Fritz' message to Americans would read better if he had Curses and blessings have sought to disposition which makes him the most omitted saying Russia and France

G. K. Chesterton, the inventor of Father Brown, has allowed him to diswere doing dirty work for England. port himself in the flowery fields of William Allen White says he is out a new book, published by the John of politics, which is "what's the matter with Kansas." As plain Bill White he might be able again to break in. Lane Company. No doubt it will have a host of readers. To many persons the detective story is the most enchanting form of fiction. It fascinates It is fortunate a political agitator without wearying the mind. It endidn't succeed in killing the King of thralls the attention without exacting Greece. It might have stirred up too much of the reason. Moreover, trouble in peaceful Europpleasan

A Californian who showed a strength of 1500 pounds by butting a testing machine meritoriously broke his neck in the operation.

Great Britain is holding Wessels

While the Central States are in the can boast is a sort of sub-tropical Winter.

tion.

acte

emorgency.

And the man who goes to the auto show is certain to be seized with an overwhelming craving for a 1915 model.

women of England, France and Germany are playing in the present war. This article tells how their sisters in the land of the Czar, from royalty to peasantry, are living up to the traditions of past centuries.

Historic Surrenders.

This article deals with famous occasions on which military leaders have laid down their swords in the dying hour of a lost cause. It is illustrated with reproductions of famous paintings, including the surrender of the Austrian General Mack to Napoleon, the surrender of Pekin to the allies in 1858, and the surrender of Lee at Appomattox.

Health for the Baby.

Pointers on keeping the new est generation in fine fettle. Science of caring for baby is outlined by official experts.

Why Men and Corn Grow Tall.

An absorbing discussion of the influence of heredity and environment on members of the animal and vegetable kingdoms.

Evils of Child Labor.

Exhibits at the Panama-Pacific Exposition will present the subject of child labor as never How the future of before. thousands of little ones is being blighted by untimely toil is vividly described.

In the Carpathian Mountains.

How the Slavoc peasants live in one of the most rugged and picturesque spots on the globe. The story is accompanied by striking illustrations.

Oregan in Retrospect.

In tomorrow's issue will be published the first of a series of historic Oregon pictures. This series will include views of people and places in Portland and other parts of Gregon in the early days.

Other Features.

There will be scores of other features, including Polly, Old Doe Yak and the other popular comirs, a page of the latest war photos, a full page color draw-ing by Matonia, Dolly Dip at the masquerade, world events in pictures and a full page of stories for the kiddles.

Order Today.