Plans for the woman's building are soing merrily on and some of the most influential women are taking up the movement. At a meeting held last Saturday in the Library Mrs. R. L. DORIS BLAKE'S

She Wouldn't Kiss Him.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am a young girl of 15 and am deeply in love with a young man three years my senior, and I know he reciprocates my love, as he has told me so on more than one occasion. Last evening when we arrived at my home he asked me to kiss him good night, and I refused, saying that it was improper for any young girl not engaged to kiss any young man. I refused to be coaxed and he answered that it was very funny of me to talk that way. Some time ago I read in your paper that it was right for any declared lovers to act in the above manner. Is this true?
