Completing a voyage from Portland, Me., to Portland, Or., the steam schoon-er Cricket berthed at Albers dock yes-terday afternoon, afterwards shifting to Couch-street dock. The vessel left the Maine harbor early in December and proceeded to Philadelphia, where she took on coal and sailed from there De-cember 18, reaching San Pedro January 21 and continued the same day for San Francisco. Her slow time was due to the fact she had the old British prison ship Success in tow, the vessel being bound for the Golden Gaite as an attraction at the 1915 Fair. The Cricket took on general cargo at San Francisco and after discharging that here shifts to the bunkers of
