CARL MAYS IS ON FEDERAL LIST NOW

Former Portland Twirler Is Holding Out for $3600 a Year From Boston.

GILMORE SEEKS HIS TERMS

Wants to Play With Red ox but if They Don't "Come Through" He Hopes to Get On With Some Good Team.

BY ROSCOR FAWCETT. Another ball star has been bitten by Federal League bacilli-none other than our old blond, friend Carl Mays, ex-Portland Colt heaver. Mays has been tendered a two years' contract with the "outlaw" league. As he is encountering some difficulty in coming to terms with the Boston Red Sox it is not al-with the Boston Red Sox it is not altogether unlikely that he may take a fling at the new league.

Cart is wintering in Portland under the care of a personal tutor, and between "toois" yesterday he found time to flash the following telegram:

"Chicago, Ill., Jan. 27, "15.

"Mr. Carl W. Mays, 761 Flanders street, Portland, Or.

"If you are free to do business wire terms for two-year contract.

"President Federal League."

Mays declined to talk further about his Federal League negotiations except to remark that he would go where he could get the money.

"I am asking $1500 a year from Box."

to remark that he would go where he could get the money.

"I am asking $35600 a year from Boston," said he. "They tried to sign me for less than $3000 one day last Fall in Buffalo, but I talked it over with Matty Meintyre and Bill Donovan and Matty told me I was worth $3600. I led the International pitchers last year and think my record entitles me to $35600. One thing sure, if I don't make good with Boston the New York Americans will be willing to take my contract, because my old boss, Donovan, is now manager there.

"I will stick to organized baseball if Boston will give me $3500. If not I will go where I can get it. Of course, I hope the nalary matter is adjusted, because I want to go to Boston. President Lannin is a fine man to work for, and if both leagues were to offer me because I want to go to Boston. Freshedent Lannin is a tine man to work for, and if both leagues were to offer me the same contract I would choose Boston without a moment's hesitancy."

Mays' record last year with the pennant-winning Providence club was remarkable. He pitched in 36 games and won 24 and lost only eight. He was relieved only three times all season, and finished five games for other pitchers. He fanned 129 and walked 73.

In addition to being a great pitcher Mays can clout the ball at a merry clip. He batted about 100 in the Northwest League in 1915, and stuck up around the 350 mark all year at Providence until the last fortnight, when Donovan worked him every other day against southpaws. He is a left-handed batter and his average took a terrific swoop downward to 277.

Carl stands an even six feet in his woolens and weighs about 195 pounds stripped for action.

Bobby Hewitt, southpaw pitcher well nown hereabouts, has been hit by the war. Hewitt tried out with Los Angeles hast Spring, later was assigned to the new-defunct California. State League and then wound up at Edmonton in the western Canada circuit. The European war put Canadian baseball in the eclipse, and Edmonton has sent Hewitt to the Fort William club of the North-ern League. This being a small class C circuit with a salary limit of $1400, Bobby's monthly stipend necessarily was ampulated from $175 a month to a Jack Bliss is back in Los Angeles, and, from the tone of newspaper dope, Happy Hogan does not intend releasing his veteran backstop after all.

Rube Ellis is the only player left of the Los Angeles pennant-winners of 1398. Hogan and Easterly were the backstops. Hap is managing Venice and Easterly is in the Federal League. Pitchers were Koestner, Briswalter, Nagle, Gray, Hosp, Thorsen and Phil-lips. Koestner and Hosp are with Venice, the latter as a utility infielder. Nagle is secretary of the California State Chamber of Commerce. Thorsen is an automobile agent in Los Angeles.

thoroughly acquainted with their duties.

The advance young men's class, which won high honors in Los Angeles and Denver, will appear in new drills and original sets of exercises arranged by Professor Genserowski.

"I sincerely think that this season's annual drill will far eclipse anything that has gone before," said Professor Genserowski last night, "and never before have we been able to make such a turnout. There will be more than 400 persons taking part in the various drills and gymnastic exercises, and one class contains youngsters barely more than 6 years old.

"A majority of the Turners who will appear in the Heilig Theater Sunday night will represent the local society at the San Francisco Panama-Pacífic international Exposition tournament to be beld late next month or the first of April."

BY ADDISON BENNETT.

There was forwarded to the Oregon Commission at the Panama Exposition yesterday a work of art that will surely attract a great deal of attention when placed in position and throughout the period of the exposition. It was a canvas 15 by 155 feet upon which was painted a complete view of the Columbia River and the immediate tributary country from Hood River to the sea, with the great Columbia Highway particularly emimmediate tributary country from Hood River to the sea, with the great Columbia Highway particularly emphasized. This canvas is in several pieces or sections, the main ones forming a continuous picture and five, from 12 to 16 feet each in length, being painted on a larger scale and in detail. These were views of the following scenic pertions of and adjacent to the highway: Shepperd's Deli and the highway bridge across it; viaduct along the O.-W. R. & N. line just east of Gordon Fails; Latourell bridge and fails; Multnomah Falls and bridge, shewing the splendid Benson bridge, shewing the splendid Benson bridge, shewing the splendid Benson bridge across the chasm below the falls and also Benson Park below the falls and Hood River Valley in apple bossom time. This shows the entire valley, with Mount Hood in the background and the tewn of Hood River and the highway in the foreground.
