ROADWAY TO RIVER AT FAIRVIEW TO BE BUILT.—It is announced that the proposed roadway from the Sandy road at Fairview to the Columbia River will be built in the Spring. The County Court provided for this road some time ago with the assistance of the abutting property owners.

MELROSE SUNDAY SCHOOL. Elects.—The Melrose Sunday school east of Gresham met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wood and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Ethel Stafford; vice-president, Mrs. Ethel Stafford; secretary, Mrs. Alta Gentry; assistant secretary, Miss Caroline Tallman; treasurer, Lester Conrad; chairman, look-out committee, Miss Ethel Wood; chairman, social committee, Mrs. Charles Tallman.

PLANS OUT TO IMPROVE EAST SEVENTY-SIXTH STREET.—Proceedings have been started for the improvement of East Seventy-sixth street from East Market to East Yamhill streets. This improvement will cost $10,285. The improvement is classed as a macadam improvement of crushed rock which the city shall maintain for three years. It is also proposed to improve East Seventy-eighth street from the base line road to East Taylor street, the cost to be $10,600.

MILITIA MEN TO BE GUERRES.—Members of Battery A, of the Oregon National Guard, will be hosts to present members at a banquet at the Commercial Club tonight. The affair will be the celebration of the 49th anniversary of the organization. Music and speeches will be features of the programme.

SECOND APPROACH RECOMMENDED.—Urging the desirability of an additional approach to the interstate bridge, the Board of County Commissioners today ordered the engineers in charge of the work to lay out and survey such an approach to connect with the foot of Derby street. The board further ordered that all funds remaining after the construction of the bridge and the Union-avenue approach had been completed should be applied toward the construction of the proposed Derby-street approach.

SALON PROPRIETOR SENTENCED.—W. A. Wisnom, joint proprietor with Louis Trummer of the saloon at 225 Washington street, was sentenced today to 30 days in jail by Municipal Judge Stevenson yesterday for selling intoxicants to a man already under the influence of liquor. Attorney C. Benbow, representing Wisnom, gave notice of appeal. Wisnom was accused of selling liquor to Dr. O. C. Hiatt, dentist, formerly of Forest Grove.

Dr. J. H. Boyd to speak.—Mayor Albee will preside when Dr. J. H. Boyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, speaks at 12:15 today in the Young Men's Christian Association on "Modern Man's Quest for Religion." The lecture will be the first in a series of four that Dr. Boyd will deliver on the general theme of religion in business. Business and professional men are invited and a large number already have enrolled for the free course.

GRANGE MATTERS TO CONFER.—Masters of the Granges of Multnomah County and those of Sandy, Damascus and Eagle Creek, in Clackamas County, will confer Wednesday at the Gresham fairgrounds, with Woodrow Bronger, J. W. Townsend and H. G. Mullenhoff, from the fair association, in regard to arranging the score cards for the Grange competitive contest at the annual fair. They will meet at the fairground at 10:30 A. M. and probably will be in session all day with a dinner at a hotel. A new plan has been adopted by the Grange for the Grange awards, the first prize being $120. There will be as many first premiums as Granges represented, the only requirement being that they shall score 80 points according to the score card, which will be adopted at the conference. Each Grange may secure the full amount of the first prize $120, and the ribbons will be awarded according to the percentage. The amount of premium money may be reduced if the state appropriation for fair purposes are cut off. A. E. Miller, member of the fair association, this week is attending the Legislature in behalf of the fair appropriation. The association will have $2000 in any event from the county if there be nothing from the state.

NINE RECEIVE SUMMER SCHOOL CERTIFICATES.—A. F. Herber, principal of the Lents school, yesterday in the assembly hall presented 22 certificates to regular grammar students and nine received Summer certificates for work done in the summer school. The summer school graduates are Paul Harvey, Margaret Amundson, Ellen Bergstrom, Leona Donaldson, Leano Irish, Lucius Irish, Elliott Richardson and Carl Wilson. The 22 regular graduates were: Emil Abplanalp, Harold Bergin, Frank Bundy, Ruby Bell, Irma Fish, Helen Gifford, Ernest Kennedy, August Kietzel, James Laird, Hazel Longen, Verne McLaugh, Ward McLaugh, Reuben Morterud, Samuel Ott, Myron Richardson, Genevieve Rost, Edwards Smith, Carroll Tappin, George Wainale and Blanche Yost. At the Lents school the home credit system has been used for the past year and, according to the principal, has worked out well.

MISS IRENE KIRBY WINS PRIZE.—Miss Irene Kirby, a member of this year's graduating class of the Immaculate Academy, on Williams avenue and Stanton street, St. Mary's parish, won the prize in the essay contest offered by Rev. Father W. A. Daly for the best story of "Brief Story of a beautiful life of Our Lord." The girls of the high school classes were given this test in composition. The judges awarded the prize, consisting of five dollars, to Miss Irene Kirby. The composition second in merit was by Miss Frances Kirby and the third by Miss Verna Burnett, both of third-year high school. Other contestants were Miss Alta Gentry, Miss Irene Kirby. The composition second in merit was by Miss Frances Kirby and the third by Miss Verna Burnett, both of third-year high school. Other contestants were Miss Alta Gentry, Miss Irene Kirby.

ST. AGATHA FEAST IS CELEBRATED.—The feast of St. Agatha was celebrated yesterday at St. Agatha Church in Sellwood. Mass was celebrated at 8:30 A. M. at which time Rev. Father John Tappin delivered the eulogy on the patron saint of the church. All the services of the day were combined in the celebration. St. Agatha school was in session for the day in the evening. A "500" social and promenade was held in the parish hall, East Fifteenth and Miller avenue, for all members of the parish. The orchestra was furnished by the music, Mrs. J. W. Miller, Mrs. William Broeren, Mrs. A. Fallert and Mrs. A. Dell, officers of the Altar Society.

REPRESENTATIVE SHIPPERS TO MEET.—Representative shippers from San Francisco and from Sound ports will arrive in Portland today to attend the meeting which has been set for consideration of organization of a Pacific Coast Employers' Waterfront Union. The meetings will be held tomorrow and Monday. The purpose of the movement is to bring about greater uniformity in shipping and handling charges in coast ports. The local committee in charge of the meeting is headed by H. E. Pennington, chairman of the river, harbors and navigation committee of the Chamber.

CIVIC LEAGUE TO MEET.—The Civic League will discuss child welfare at its regular weekly meeting in the Multnomah Hotel at 12 o'clock today. Dr. R. G. Hall will preside. The speakers will be Dr. George Rebec, subject, "Co-operative Control of All the Special Schools in the State"; L. R. Alderman, "What Portland Schools Are Doing for Exceptional Children"; and Mrs. Robert H. Tate, "The Child Welfare Bills Before the Legislature."

TOBACCO MEN IN COURT.—Two men who sold tobacco to boys were in District Judge Dayton's court yesterday as a result of the vigorous prosecution of these cases by the juvenile court and school authorities. John Coulson pleaded guilty and was fined $20. Julius Larsen, 18 years old, admitted that he had acted as an agent in buying tobacco for younger boys, and Judge Dayton suspended sentence on this case.

HI-IBERNIANS TO INITIATE 75.—The Ancient Order of Hibernians will initiate a class of 75 candidates at its hall on Duane street tomorrow at 2 o'clock, and at the conclusion of the degree a smoker will be given. W. P. Lillis, J. D. Doyle and Peter Salmon constitute the committee of arrangement. The local degree team, assisted by the officers of Division No. 1, will have charge of the work.

HOMES FOR BANE SOCIETY.—A child of attractive physical condition and of good parentage will be given a couple seeking a baby for their own upon application to Mrs. W. C. Crounse, of the women's protective division of the Municipal Court, such an offer being made to the department by the parents, who are too poor to care for the child properly.

MUSICIAN, HOME FROM WAR, FOR BIGGER ARMY

David Campbell, Who Will Appear at Y. M. C. A. Tonight, Sees Need of Proper Means of Defense From Equipped Invader.

DAVID CAMPBELL, YOUNG OREGON PIANIST WHO MAKES HIS PORTLAND DEBUT AT Y. M. C. A. TONIGHT.

BY JOSEPH MACQUEEN. Quiet piano studies and appearances in high-class piano programmes at concerts in Berlin, Germany, and other big music centers have, so far, kept David Campbell, the Oregon pianist, agreeably busy. He was born at Monmouth, Polk County, Ore., and his days in Oregon, at least, have been passed in the restful quiet of country life and the charm of student time at the University of Oregon.

By her trained, highly disciplined army of 500,000 men, costing the Swiss confederation only $5,000,000 a year, I have heard, nobody dreams that Switzerland keeps this army together for conquest. "I believe the hope that the United States will soon model a citizen army of Americans on the plan of the Swiss army." "Secretary Garrison said recently that the United States needs as a first line of defense an army of from 250,000 to 400,000 men, to be used as an army land from music study in Germany and Switzerland. The firm conviction that the United States had better be training a citizen army of 500,000 men to defend itself against possible enemies in the near future.

LINCOLN TALENT PLEASURES

STUDENTS PROVE ABLE IN CAST OF "AS YOU LIKE IT."

Orlando interpreted by Clifford Druschel, with Eva Anderson in Role of Rosalind.

The students of Lincoln High School are receiving congratulations for their excellent work in the third annual Shakespearean play, which they presented in the auditorium of the school, which was crowded by large audiences yesterday and last night. The play, "As You Like It," is one of the best yet interpreted by the students.

Robert Rogers as "Touchstone," the clown, lived every minute in his part. His queer little accents and his clownish mannerisms won for him great applause. As "Rosalind" Eva Anderson was adorable. She looked comely and out from under her bushes at the lover, Orlando, and kept him in an agony of suspense throughout the play. The part of Orlando was interpreted by Clifford Druschel.

Dorothy Collins made a genuine hit as the country wench, Audrey, with her rags, her hat and her dancing. As William, the country fellow in love with her, Wayne Gordon was about as bashful as one could imagine. The entire cast and programme followed Duke, living in banishment. Harry Jenkinson, Frederick, and Carl Knudsen, Louis attending on the banished Duke. Among the supporting cast: Hubert Scott, James, and Robert Conrigh.

VIOLINIST TO PLAY AT Y. M. C. A. TOMORROW AFTERNOON.—Madame Gwen Howells, violinist and wife of Richard Howells, the well-known Welsh pianist, will play at the Young Men's Christian Association at the 3:15 o'clock meeting tomorrow, Sunday, afternoon, on which occasion the piano accompanist will be Miss Marie A. S. Soule of this city. Mrs. Howells came here to contribute to make her home in Portland. Mrs. Howells appeared lately in violin recitals in Canada, where she met with much success, her violin playing being highly praised.

DAVID B. CAMPBELL, Pianist. Pupil of Rudolph Gunz and only recently returned from Europe. Y. M. C. A. Auditorium. Saturday Evening. FEBRUARY 6. 8 P. M. Admission 50c.

ordinance which when passed will prohibit indiscriminate billposting by theaters. The measure has been approved by most of the theaters. It will permit the posting of bills only upon the premises of the theater and in glass frames and in frames on other places where consent of the owner of such premises is secured. It is aimed to stop the posting of advertising matter on boxes, barrels, trees, old buildings and elsewhere in indiscriminate fashion. Later the Council will take up a similar measure to restrict the advertising of commercial houses.
