NAVAL MILITIA BILL PREPARED.

Adjutant-General George A. White will leave for Salem today to present the details of a bill for the continuance of the Oregon Naval Militia before a joint ways and means committee of the United States House of Representatives. The bill will provide for an increase in men and decrease in officers and also a reduction of $5000 in operating expenses. This week probably will determine the fate of the Naval Militia, but as the sentiment for a reorganization, which will put the reserve on a business basis, is strong, General White is hopeful of the body being retained by the state.

The East Side Business Men's Club is making an effort to revive the Central East Portland public market, having organized a special committee to take up the subject with the farmers. ## ARTIST BRIDE IS TAKEN

Marriage of F. O. Creasey and Miss Amy Clay in Ogden Is Surprise.

After having led all his friends and business associates into believing that he had gone to Ogden, Utah, on a business trip last week, F. O. Creasey returned to Portland Friday night with a bride. She was formerly Miss Amy Clay, an artist of note, whose parents live in Ogden. Mr. Creasey first met his wife while she was visiting friends in the city a few seasons ago, but few knew of the mutual attachment which resulted in Monday's nuptials.

Mr. and Mrs. Creasey are now domiciled at the Orlando Apartments temporarily.

FUN AND THRILLS VIE

"Buckshot John" at Star Has Gripping Human Interest.

"HEART BEATS" AT SUNSET
 Wins Laugh at National.
 "Mignon" at Columbia.

Mary Pickford at Peoples and President's Niece at Majestic—Chaplin Wins Laugh at National.
 "Mignon" at Columbia.

In one of the most gripping plays ever staged before the motion picture camera, "Buckshot John," Hobart Bosworth and Courtenay Foote, as a noted bandit and a clever charlatan, respectively, made a marked impression yesterday on audiences at the Star Theatre. But "Buckshot John" had to share honors with "The Panama Canal," a capital subject, which follows the first trip of the Ancon through the big ditch. "Buckshot John" is melodrama. The life of a desperado, convict and convert must be. But it is a rarely human melodrama and there will be few who will fall for the Bosworth's delineation of the old convict who had to escape to return stolen loot "because he couldn't find any other honest man to do it." The most unusual scene is an actual lynching, and it is almost too gruesome.

The bill will be at the Star till Wednesday night.

SUNSET'S SHOW EXCELLENT

"Heart Beats," Principle Feature, Is Clever Photoplay.

The splendid bill at the Sunset Theatre is filled to overflowing with good features. One of the cleverest things seen in "Heart Beats," a two-reel picture. The picture shows the use of the "heart-beat register" in detecting crime. It is a remarkably good picture presented by an excellent cast. "The Double Deception" reverses the bromide theme of the country girl going to the city for pleasure, and shows the tired, sophisticated city girl going to the country for rest. Here romance enters her life, and it is not until she has lived for a time in stuffy city apartments that she learns her husband's identity and the amount of his fortune. "The Wily Chaperon" is a comedy-drama full of moonlight and pretty women. Vivian Rich appears with Charlotte Burton in the picture, which combination alone would make it worth while.

Roscoe Arbuckle is appearing in a Keystone comedy, "His New Role," which is a laugh-maker.

The Mutual Weekly completes the offering.

LOVE STORY IS AT COLUMBIA

California Actress Leads in Screen Drama "Mignon" at Playhouse.

Lovers of the beautiful and romantic will find something to enjoy in the picture which is being shown at the Columbia this week, where a five-act film version of Ambrose Thomas' famous drama, "Mignon," is being exhibited. The lovely Michellena, the beautiful and talented California prima donna, is featured in the title role and her great beauty, her bewitching personality and her wonderful powers of portrayal are all used to splendid advantage. She has appeared in several other big productions, but this is by far her best effort.

The story is of a little girl stolen by a revengeful gypsy. Later she is bought from the gypsy, who mistreats her, by a gentleman, who takes her to his castle. She falls in love with her benefactor and she succeeds in winning his love when she comes into her own as the daughter of Lothario.

One of the features of the performance is the organ music, taken from the opera "Mignon."

This play runs all week.

CHAPLIN COMEDY UPROARIOUS

National Attraction Drives Care Away by Two Acts of Fun.

The bill at the National was well balanced, having as headliner the new four-act special from the Broadway Star Theatre service. Clean and well played by a cast of super-excellence, this comedy portrays the situations arising from a butler's aspirations to appear in society; a sweetheart's misadventures in trying to appear on the "square" with all circumstances against him; an irate father refuses his daughter freedom of her own mind, and complications are a result.

The Chaplin comedy, "His New Job," carried the house by storm, proving this comedian's title as the funniest man on earth.

Maurice Costello in "The Understudy" was good.

Today and Tuesday "The Shanghai Baby" will be the center of attraction.

Escape of the Fast Freight features Helen, the railroad heroine.

Headline Sellie Weekly will portray latest events, while the Charlie Chaplin comedy, "His New Job," will appear for the last time.

"LITTLE MARY" PACKS HOUSE

Theater With "Mistress Nell."

Mere mention of the magic name of Mary Pickford is sufficient to pack any motion picture theater. So, it goes without saying, the Peoples Theatre was filled to standing room all day yesterday with "Little Mary's" appearance in "Mistress Nell," from the internationally famous drama concerning the life of Mistress Nell Gwyn, of Drury Lane.

In the role of "Mistress Nell," Miss Pickford adds to her stellar honors, while the Famous Players Film Company has put forth another production worthy of Frohman, the producer.

Nell Gwyn is considered the greatest heroine of historic and romantic drama, and as personified by Mary Pickford, is a character of delightful femininity combined with the dramatic force inherent in all the work of this great star.

PRESIDENT'S NIECE IN FILM

Miss Margaret Vale Appears in "A Gilded Fool" at Majestic.

It has been said that woman has ever been the cause of man's downfall. Certainly the impression that one gets from seeing "A Gilded Fool" at the Majestic Theatre disproves this. A man fresh from the farm inherits a comfortable fortune and starts out to see the world. He meets the beautiful and charming Margaret Vale, a niece of President Wilson. She is quite at home in the city, and a clever and versatile actress.
