trom a six weeks' trip through 21 states. Mr. Maxson said that practical-ly all the large industries are looking forward to a prosperous year. "During my trip East I spent six Maxson, "and everywhere I could zee signs of revival especially among the manufacturing concerns, where there has been great depression. These con-cerns had let their stock run down to practically nothing, which is true of the threshing and machinery concerns. Most of these concerns are still run-ning on short time and limited force of men, but all expect a good year. "While at Detroit I learned that or-ders for motor trucks had been given to the amount of $20,000,000 from over the sea, to be used by the fations at war. Altogether orders from these countries have aggregated $300,000,000, which includes all kinds of army sup-plies. I learned that there will be are increase of 13 per cent in the crop area over that of linst year. High prices, no doubt, will prevall, and it would seem that nothing can prevent prosperity."
