Mayor Explains Reason for Proposed Ordinance.

PROTESTS NOT WELCOME

Mr. Albee Says New Law Is Due to Violation of Pledge and Will Work No Hardship on Those Who Observe Agreement,

Protests of motion picture theater managers against Mayor Albee's proposed ordinance which he will submit to the City Council requiring consorship of all films before they are exhibited, are without reasonable grounds according to the views of Mayor Albee, as expressed restricted, the sixty no theater proprietor who wishes to do what is right has any reason to object, because, he says, the erdinance will add no burdens to the theaters which are now living up to an agreement which the Mayor says incaters which the Mayor says on agreement which the Mayor says the theaters entered into several months ago when enforced censorship was first considered.

Judge Rules That Man Pay for Confiscated Sunday Dinner.

Anton Shelopa offered 25 cents to the owner of the chicken he had confiscated for his Sunday dinner when the fowl wandered on his property. In the Municipal Court yesterday Mrs. James Brusce, the complainant, insisted that the chicken was worth 50 cents.

"You'll pay $1 or take a fine," ruled Judge Stevenson, and the money was paid with alacrity.

The purpose is to pay out the lease on the proceeds of the crop.
