

LEGISLATORS MADE MEMBERS OF MUTS

Special Train Takes "Invaders" to Salem, Where They Storm Law Factory.

ADVANCE GUARD SEIZED

Governor Marches Up for Initiation to Strains of Funeral Dirge, and Answers Queries—All Take Solemn Vow.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 11.—(Special.)—The special train from Portland with a large delegation of the Ancient Order of Muts arrived in this city at 11:20 o'clock this morning. The Muts were met by Corvallis city officials and all public-spirited boosters.

All local Muts and those slated for initiation were on hand with few exceptions. But those who had failed to obey the mandate were rounded up by the "pitchfork brigade."

The special train brought about 200 Muts and they were accompanied by the famous Portland Police Band. The Muts, Cherrians, officials and many others formed in line on Commercial street and marched in full force upon the State-house, which they expected to storm successfully at the first onslaught.

Pitchfork Muts Shookled.
On sound of the approach of the "imperial enemy," which was heralded by the strains of the advance guard band, President Thompson ordered the door-keeper of the Senate to lock the door and admit no one except by his order. Six "pitchfork" Muts were admitted, one at a time. But as fast as they were admitted they were seized and securely handcuffed and shackled. Senator Perkins in the melee suffered a dislocated finger and fainted. After all were fettered and brought before the Senatorial bar of justice and had pleaded not guilty, the Senate announced that as a punishment the invaders should be made honorary members of the Senate which was done with ceremony befitting the occasion. Those made honorary members were William F. Spencer, Ray Barkhurst, Ted Lansing, E. J. Solomon, Monroe Goldstein and Robert Adams.

The Muts then took possession and marched the Senators into the chief chamber to join in the real official programme.

Women Legislators Honored.
The two women legislators, Miss Kathryn Clarke, Senator from Douglas County, and Miss Marian Towne, Representative of Lane County, were made honorary members of the Muts' organization.

The members of the House and Senate were herded together and held by the pitchfork brigade for initiation.

To the strains of a funeral march, Governor Withcombe marched up for membership. Tel Ebb, chief executive of the state, was asked to pay salary to all officials of the state, except the Governor.

"Will you serve your sentence of four years in the City of Salem?" "Have you any objections to un-dressed mutism?"

The Governor answered the queries and qualified as a Mut.
Speaker Ben Seligson, Dan Kellisher, Mayor White, of Salem; Tom Kay, Representative Parlier and others also were questioned and qualified. A steam roller was presented to Mr. Seligson. Dr. Andrew C. Smith was made a Mut because he aptly could define the word "bugaboo."

In the nature of an agreement in which all members of the association concurred, he pointed out that it could not be made compulsory. Mr. Rittmann expressed the belief that other bakers of the city would follow the lead of the master bakers in making the cut.

Sabbath School is Tomorrow.

Sabbath school will be held this Sabbath (Saturday) at 10 A. M. in the Central Seventh-Day Adventist Church, East Eleventh and East Everett streets. Milton H. St. John is pastor. The Scripture lesson for tomorrow will be Matthew 11:1-12.

120 GUIDES NAMED

Agricultural College Students Will Go to Fair.

SELECTION MADE BY TEST

Committees to Serve Four Weeks Each Escorting Visitors About State Building and Telling of Oregon's Resources.

CORVALLIS, Feb. 11.—(Special.)—President Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural College, has announced the appointment of guides for the Oregon building at the San Francisco Exposition. These men were selected by a committee, which took into consideration the scholastic record of the applicants, their appearance and personality and the knowledge of the State of Oregon as indicated by the answers given to questions asked in a recent examination. Lectures were given by a number of members of the faculty, preparing the applicants for the examination. Out of about 300 men who applied for appointment 120 were allowed to take the examination and were appointed. In addition 22 alternates were chosen.

The men will be on duty at the fair for periods of four weeks, except the first two guides to go south, who will serve but two weeks. All expenses will be covered by the commission. The duties of the guides will be to conduct visitors about the building, answer such questions as may be asked and to call the attention of visitors to the resources of the state and the opportunities for investment. The first men to go south will leave Corvallis February 18, in order to be present for the opening of the fair. Which men will be sent first has not been announced.

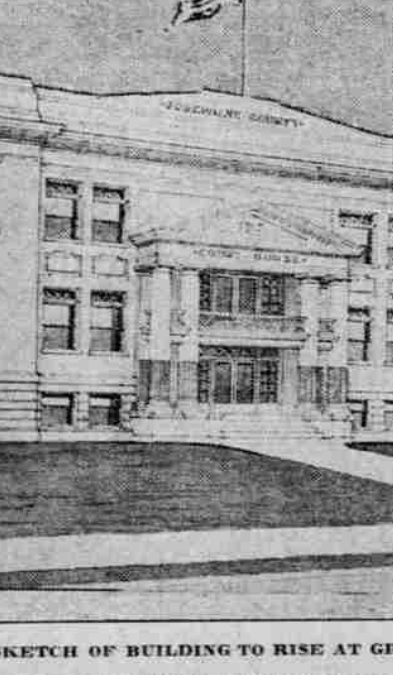

Several Alternates Named.
The following were appointed as alternates:

MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS
Yields to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ELKHART, IND.—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sensitive Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.
