The Beaverton Board of Trade was organized last Fall with about 20 mem-bers, and this gathering was an out-growth of its carnest efforts since that time in the way of better roads, better streets and a general civic improve-ment. Two score new members was the result of the banquet. F. W. Cady, president, was chairman The Beaverton Board of Trade was the result of the banquet. F. W. Cady, president, was chairman of the meeting, and the programme consisted of music by the orchestra, instrumental, solos, duets, songs by the Girls' Glee Club, addresses, servi-ing refreshments and dancing. Judge C. E. Kindt, of Kinton, a men-ber of the Board of Trade, delivered the address of welcome, outlining the purposes of the organization, what it has accomplished and inviting co-op-oration in all matters pertaining to a larger, cleaner and better Beaverton The principal address of the evening was delivered by Philip S. ALLEN JAY AGAIN CAPTURED

Engitive From Asylum Surprised by Deputy Earl, of Lane County.

HUGENE, Or., Feb. 14.-(Special.)-Allen Jay, desperado, was recaptured to day for the fourth time during the pust two years. He submitted without a fight when surprised by H. H. Earl. Deputy Sheriff, shortly after midnight.

Deputy Sheriff, shortly after midnight. Jay escaped from the State Asylum two weeks ago and made his way with-in two weeks to his old haunts at Blatchiy, in the Coast Mountains, near Triangle Lake, west of Eugene. Since he has been back this time he has been terrorising the residents in the vicinity, who fear him from his former actions. The officers have been handicapped in catching him in that the neighbors have so feared his vengeance that they refused to take part.

Robert Bean Operated On at Eugene

for Appendicitis.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene Fab. 14. — (Special.) — Robert Bean, a student at the university and son of Judge Bean, of Portland, was operated successfully at the Mercy Hospital on successivity at the stercy hospital Saturday for appendicitis. "The operation was a success from all standpoints and though the incision made was rather complicated, the patient should be well enough to resume his class work in the course of ten days," declared Dr. Kerron. Robert Bean is a junior in college and a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. His mother has been with him since the attack developed.
