Lord Charke Silvernail, as a crook, t A most dignified and delignitud king of sleuths is Mr. Lloyd. He makes the quiet, slow-moving Holmes the mainteresting melodrama. Detective plays are not a rarity, but this one holds all the elements of suspense, plenty of thrills and a wealth of interesting character. Mr. Lloyd's makeup, his pantomime of hands and expressive face, his excellent diction and smooth portrayal of the role complete an admirable characterization, one that must be given every credit. The supporting cast is nicely balanced.

Here's the Reason for Lang's Extra Quality

The larger a business is, the less its costs to operate. Lang & Company are the largest distributors offoodproducts West of Chicago. Our coffee department is but one part of this big business. It costs us only about 331/3% to 40% as much to get our coffees to the consumer, as the exclusive coffee house.

That's why Lang's Steel-Cut Coffees at each price mean EXTRA QUALITY. That's why our coffees are the largest selling brands in the Northwest, and growing more popular every day. A trial can will prove more than
