TAX REFUND BOBS UP NOW

Issue for Mount Zion and Sylvan

Districts Come to Head in Claim.

The city may be obliged to return The city may be obliged to return to the inxpayers of the Mount Zion and Sylvan districts several thousand dollars collected from property owners as taxes for the year 1913 when the two districts were held to be a part of Portland. Since the taxes were col-lected, the State Supreme Court has lected, the State Supreme Court has ruled that the supposed annexation of the districts was illegal. C. Henri Labbe, attorney for Blaise Labbe, Edmond J. Labbe and A. G. Labbe, brought the proposition of re-funding the taxes to a head yesterday i when he filed a claim for $66.60, which when he filed a claim for was paid by the Labbes.
