NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Contrary to expectations, counsel for Charles Becker, ex-police lieutenant, twice convicted for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, failed today to make an polication for a new trial. Neither was the customary two days' notice of intention to begin court proceedings, as required by law, received by District Attorney Perkins.

It had been reported that Becker's counsel would make the application to-day for a new trial, basing it on the repudiation in an affidavit by James Marshall, a negro, of his trial testimony. Marshall afterward made another affidavit affirming the truth of his original testimony, which document the District Attorney expected to offer in opposing any move toward a new trial made by Becker's attorneys.

DANCE HALL PUZZLE

Jurist's Commission Probes Portland Conditions.

CONSTRUCTIVE SIDE GIVEN

Rev. Mr. Howard Says Young People of City Must Have Some Form of Amusement and Yet Must Be Safeguarded Fully.

vestigate conditions and offer sugges-Rev. F. K. Howard, chaplain of the Good Samaritan Hospital, who is prominent in the work of the Episcopal Soial Service League, suggested that the committee find out what had been done

"We must give the young people some form of entertainment," said the Rev. Mr. Howard, "and at the same time we must safeguard them from immorality and temptation."

Constructive Side Noted.

Mrs. Margaret Thoroman urged the constructive side of the work.

"We must not let the young girls, who we are trying to shield, think we are endeavoring to rob them of a chance to have a good time. Many of them are lonely and have no one to take an interest in them. They go to the dancehall and meet young men and middle-aged men, too, who may be hon-orable and may not. There should be better supervision, but always there should be care used to prevent a feel-ing of antagonism." she said.

Miss Ida Lowenberg, of the Neigh-borhood House, who had visited many of the public dances, reported that in some places it "wasn't nice dancing" that she saw, although she witnessed no rough behavior. The "professional introducer" is, in Miss Lowenberg's estimation, a farce. She suggested that proper chaperones might be found to attend the dances. Rev. Fl. Matuszewski, who said that Salem. Mr. Packwood was born at Jordan's Prairie, Jefferson County, Illinois, October 25.1822.
