On abolishment of the accountancy department and the immigration bureau monors are fairly even. While both are Senato bills the House had simflar measures. The law consolidating the highway and engineer's depart-ments originated in the Senate and was the only other measure of this type to pass the House. All other Senate measures on the same subject were killed in the House.

Tardiness of Bills Blamed.

House members have complained that the consolidation bills came in too late for careful consideration. It ap-parently has not occurred to the House members that most of them were pledged to do some pruning and that members that pledged to do some pruning and that there was not the slightest necessity for them to await Senate action. Moreover, every member, unless there are a few mental blanks in the House are a few mental blanks in the House there was not the slightest necessity for them to await Senate action. can work without pressure. The plans for the ship bill in the Senate are more or less mysterious. Leaders on both sides agreed to put it in conference until next Saturday with the under-standing that the supply bills should be passed meantime. Its opponents declare it is dead and that if it is not they still have the means of talking it to death. It is the third of a series issued by the bu-reau, the two former having dealt with prostitution in New York City and in Europe. A fourth volume, now in progress of preparation will treat of police systems in America. The Bureau of Social Hygiene, in ag-nouncing the publication of the present work, said that while the bureau is concerned with the problem of commer-cialized vice, it was feit that intelligent suggestions concerning this problem could not be made without a thorough To face either the penitentiary or an insane asylum on charge of kill-ing her 6-year-old son in her home at $46 Montana avenue Saturday morn-the third of a series issued by the bu-
