Steelhead Furnish Big Sport for

Anglers Near Pendleton.

PENDLETON, Or., Feb. 24 .- (Special.) A big run of steelhead salmon in the Umatilia River is affording splendid sport. More have been caught than in any previous season for 15 or 20 years. The extra large run is attribut-ed to the work of the State Fish and Game Commission in liberating steelhead fry in the headwaters of the Umatilla and its tributaries during the past few years.

Four years ago 100.000 young steel-heads were placed in a nursery pond on Meacham Creek and were fed until they were from three to five inches in are now returning.

The fish being caught range in length from 18 to 32 inches and in weight from three to 10 pounds.
