CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

OREGONIAN TELEPHONES.

AMUSEMENTS.

HEILIG THEATER (Broadway at Taylor)-Musical comedy, "High Jinks." This aft ernoon at 2:15 and tonight at 8:15. BAKER (Broadway and Sixth, between Alder and Morrison)—Baker Players in "Secret Service." This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 8:15. BIPPODROME AMUSEMENT COMPANT (Fourth and Stark)—Moving pictures and vandeville. Continuous till 11 o'clock.

Vaudeville.

DRPHEUM (Broadway, at Stark)—This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 8:15 o'clock. PANTAGES (Broadway, at Alder) - Per-formances, 2:80, 7:30 and 9:30 o'clock, and Tambill) — Continuous performances from 1:30 to 11 P. M.

Moving-Picture Theaters. NATIONAL-Park, West Park, nr. Wash, PEOPLES-West Park and Alder, MAJESTIC-Park and Washington. NEW STAR-Park and Washington. EUNSET THEATER - Washington and

Broadway. COLUMBIA THEATER—Sixth and Stark.

Advertisements intended for City News in Brief columns in Sunday's issue must be handed in The Oregonian business office by 6 o'clock Esturday evening.

will go to Gresham today to examine the construction there. The pipe company is suing for about $230,000 for extras alleged to have been made necessary by unwarranted changes in the plans, by the city. The case has been hearing before Judge Bean, in the United States District Court, for several weeks.

JOVIAN LEAGUE HEARS TALKS.-The Jovian League Heans Talke.—The Jovian League held its second luncheon in the Crystal room of the Benson with an attendance of 63, yesterday.
The chairman of the day was C. E.
Condit, electrical engineer, Northwestern Electric Company, and speaker of the day was W. H. P. Hill, manager of the commercial department of the same company. The following memsame company. The following mem bership committee was appointed: L A McArthur, chairman, assistant gen-eral manager Pacific Power & Light Company: George Borling, salesman Pacific States Electric Company, and S. C. Jaeger, Morrison Electric Com-

FLORENCE SULLIVAN IS BURIED.—Fu-neral services for the late Florence Sullivan, a well-known resident of Dast Portland, were held yesterday from Pierson's undertaking parlors. Interment was made in Mount Calvary Interment was made in Mount Calvary Cometery. Rev. Father Lawler, of the Holy Rosary Catholic Church, officiated, Mr. Sullivan was 80 years of age. He was born in Highland, Wis, and Dubuque, Ia. He came to Portland in 1905 and lived at 409 East Thirteenth street. He is survived by his widow, two sons and a daughter. They are: F. A. Sullivan, R. A. Sullivan and Mrs. R. J. Power, all of Portland.

Churches Will, Entertain. — The

CHURCHES WILL ENTERTAIN. — The ald societies of the churches of the Arleta district, in the South East Side. will give an entertainment tonight in the Arleta school assembly hall for funds' for the social service com-mittee of the Parent-Teacher Association. The programme will be made up of musical and literary numbers. The money will be used by the committee in helping needy families. A second entertainment will be held in the Arleta schoolhouse March 6 for the same

PARISH TO GIVE PLAY .- Daniel Sully's PARISH TO GIVE PLAY.—Daniel Sully's play, "The Parish Priest," recently staged by the Baker Stock Company, will be performed by local talent in Columbus Hall after Easter by Immaculate Heart parish of Albina. Joseph Meyer will have direction of the local troupe and will take the part of "Father Whalen," Rehearsals began Tuesday and will continue through the Lenten season. The play will be given Tuesday, Wednesday and will be given Tuesday, Wednesday at Thursday immediately after Easter.

Minnesota Club Roll Nearly 500.— The Minnesota Society of Oregon has grown to an organization of almost 500 embers who came to Oregon from the members who came to Oregon from the Gopher state. The society meets the second Wednesday of the month for the purpose of getting former kinnesotans acquainted with each other and to pass an evening at cards or dancing. Dr. A. M. Webster, president of the society, occupies the chair and invites all former Minnesotans to join.

FUNERAL OF F. SULLIVAN HELD.— The funeral of F. Sullivan, who died Wednesday at the family residence, 409 East Thirteenth street, at the age 409 East Thirteenth street, at the age of 60 years, was held yesterday morning at Holy Rosary Church, East Third and Clackamas streets. Interment was in Mount Calvary Cemetery. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Catherine Sullivan, and three children—Mrs. R. J. Fower, F. A. and R. A. Sullivan,

Dm. J. H. Boyd to SPEAK.—Dr. J. H. Boyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will deliver the last of his ad-dresses to business and professional men at the Y. M. C. A. today immediately after the membership campaign luncheon. His topic will be "What the Modern Man's Religion Will Mean in Daily Living."

Missionary to Report on Japan.— Miss Settlemeler, a missionary recent-ly returned from Japan, will speak on the customs of Japan at Central Christian Church Endeavor Society at East Twentieth and Salmon streets on Sunday night at 6:30. The meeting is

SOL ROSENFELD'S FUNERAL TOMORROW —The funeral services for the late Sol Resemfeld will be held at the family residence, 221 Ford street, tomorrow at 10 o'clock. Rabbi Jonah B. Wise will The pallbearers have not yet

Owner has splendld store for rent. 25x75 feet in size, right in the heart of the business district. Light, heart and water included in rental. Splendid opportunity for a wide-awake mer-chant. L 570, Oregonian.—Adv. COLORALO SOCIETY TO MEET.—The Colorado Society will meet Tuesday. March 2, in Cotillion Hall. A musical and literary programme and progressive "500" will be the diversions. All ex-Coloradans are invited.

Calwary Pressyrterian Church.—Rev.

Oliver S. Baum, tomorrow, 10:30 A. M.
and 7:30 P. M.—Adv.

CLUB MERGER DECLARED ACHIEVEMENT OF MERIT

Adolphe Wolfe Says Unity, Now to Be Provided, Assures Greater De velopment of City's and State's Business Interests.

leading commercial organizations of Portland will certainmark an epoch in the history of this ity, and in fact, the entire state," says Adolph Wolfe, president of Lipman.

Wolfe & Co. "Portland has long needed unification of its working forces. United we stand, divided we fall,' is as true today as it ever was. We must stand shoulder to shoulder in our efforts in behalf of the community, and must remember that MARCUS LOEW'S EMPRESS (Broadway as the community grows, we grow, for as the community grows, we grow, for we are a part of it.

"There are many big things that are necessary to be done here, and we have the class of citizens that can accomplish them. We have the potential strength, so why not avail ourselves of it?

"I certainly am glad that the decisive step has been taken in behalf of an united commercial body. With such a force behind any movement, success is sure to be the result.

"Under the old system, it was difficult to determine to which organization we should give our allegiance. This question is entirely disposed of now.

Few Roses Undelivered.—Practically sil of the rose bushes sold by the City Beautiful Committee in its recent sale have been delivered. A few, however, cannot be sent owing, to incorrect addresses given by the publishers and can be had by application of the purchasers at the Rose Pestival headquarters in the class of the Shawes the head undel Margaret McLain, Mrs. Edward Guit, Mrs. Lea Harding, J. A. E. Larnet, William Greenley, C. W. Holmes, Mrs. Martin, 1074 East Ninth street North; E. J. Miller, August Kappler, W. R. Kelly, Mrs. O. E. Stanley, R. Misenbemer, Edward Bohlum, C. C. Strawbridge, W. H. Hees, G. E. Rastell.

Junt Shire France The members of the fury and autorneys and ongineers in the case of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works versus the City of Portland, now suing for extras over the contract price for installing Buil Run pipeline number iwo, went yesterings to the head works of the Bull Run system to investigate on the ground some of the details of the work that are under discussion in the case. They will go to Gresham today to examine the construction there. The pipe company is suing for about $23,000 for extras alleged to have been made neces.

This question is entirely dispersed to have the work that are under of the Paper will be head to the construction there. The pipe company is suing for about $23,000 for extras alleged to have been made neces.

The Rose Fertival and accompany is suing for about $23,000 for extras alleged to have been made neces.

The Rose of concentration which will be a vesper service of the cases to wind that does not have the wind in the class of the Schaw and the pipe company is suing for about $23,000 for extras alleged to have been made neces.

The way in the seven local district suprementation and consequent in the Cases to conference the was decided to do away with the single district suprementation and content of the way in the single district suprementation and content of the Ma ing the city.

Russell, Street to Be Repaved.
Russell street will be repaved between Gantenbein and Williams avenues in the near future. This stretch was paved with brick about nine years ago, but did not give satisfaction. The bids for several kinds of pavement will be asked for, after which the property owners will express their preference. The brick pavement was laid on concrete and the foundation will be retailed, which will lessen the cost of the work.

Se completed until the arrival of the seamer Great Northern at San Francisco from Honolulu. The body of Mrs. Bull will be brought to Portland by rail, arriving here about Thursday nearly park. The funeral will be held in family burial plot in Salem. The body of Mrs. Rule will be sent to her former home in Washington, D. C.

MRS. M. J. REDMAN BURIED.—Fucural services for Mrs. Mary J. Redman, who died at Marysville, Cal., were conducted yesterday from Holman's Chapel tives Price and Mallett, who assert he has passed other checks in Portland.

WELFARE HEADQUARTERS TO OPEN.—
The Industrial Welfare Commission soon will open headquarters in the Courthouse if a petition presented to the County Commissioners by Rev. Edwin V. O'Hara yesterday is granted. The Commissioners said that the Commission probably would receive room mission probably would receive room said that he had been following annoying her, Steve Yakima, a Bulgaria, was arrested by Patrolman Henness

FIRE ALARM MARAUDER AGAIN IN JAIL.—His ardent desire to see the engines respond to a false alarm of fire not being curbed by 25 days recently spent in the CHy Jail. John Pompernick yesterday was sentenced to 180 days imprisonment by Municipal Judge Stevenson. Pompernick was caught after turning in an alarm Thursday night, by A. O. McKenzie, fireman, and turned over to the police.

night, by A. O. McKennie, hreman, and turned over to the police.

Readings to Aid Belgians.—Professor Josephine Hammand will read two plays in the Reed College chapel tonight. They are "Rada," by Alfred Noyes, and "The Little King," by W. Rynner. The meeting was arranged by the Amanda Reed Association for Women at the college. The proceeds will be devoted to the Belgium relief fund. The admission is 25 cents.

Robbers Is Charged.—Frank Kester, janitor at the Nordica Hotel, at Grand avenue and Belmont streets, was arrested yesterday by City Detactives Hill and Leonard on the charge of robbing E. C. Moore, a lodger. The robbery is alleged to have occurred in a nearby saloon. Ten dollars were taken.

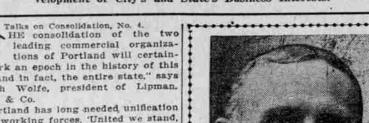

First Pressyterian Church, Twelfth

Calvary Presenterian Church.—Rev.
Oliver S. Baum, tomorrow, 10:30 A. M.
and 7:30 P. M.—Adv.
Shiphend's Hot Springs.—A good time to go E. L. Shipherd, mgr.—Adv.
St. Parkick's Church.—Hot dinner, 25c, Sunday, from 12 to 8 P. M.—Adv.

Life. —Adv.
Hisernians to Celebrate — The Ancient Order of Hibernians will observe Emmet's day on March 4 at Hibernian Hall. Judge Henry E. Mc.
Ginn will be the orator of the evening. M. K. & N. local train leaving Union Depot 7 P. M. for Centralia, returning from ing. Musical numbers will be given by Professor W. J. Carkeek.

CHANGE IN TRAIN SERVICE

Effective Sunday, February 28, O.-W.
R. & N. local train leaving Union Depot fing. Musical numbers will be given by Professor W. J. Carkeek.

Adolphe Wolfe, Who Sees Decl-sive Step Forward in Merger Chamber and Commercial

Travellers' Body Plans Social— Members of the Oregon and Washing-ton division of the Travelers' Protec-tive Association of America are plan-Pacific Coast conferences.

VERPER SERVICE TO BE TOMORROW.

There will be a vesper service of sacred music at the Young Women's Christian Association tomorrow at 4:30 o'clock. A programme has been arranged by Mrs. John Claire Monteith. The following artists have consented to appear: Miss Dagmer Inex Kelly, Miss Mabel Orton, Miss Helene Butzlaff, Miss Eva Farrell, Miss Alice M. Miller Dies.—Miss Eleanor Rowland.

Miss Alice M. Miller Dies.—Miss

TRAVELERS BODT Plans Social.

TRAVELERS BODT Plans Plans Social.

TRAVELERS BODT Plans Social and get-acquainted meting which will be held at the Portland Hotel Saturday night, March 6, All meting which will be held at the Portland Hotel Saturday night, March 6, All meting which will be held at the Portland Hotel Saturday night, March 6, All meting which will be held at the Portland Hotel Saturday night, March 6, All meting which will be held at the Portland Hotel Saturday night, March 6, All meting which will be held at the Portland Hotel Saturday night, March 6, All meting which will be held at the Portland Hotel Saturday night, March 6, All meting which will be held at the Portland Hot in the Morgan building where all "knights of the grip" are made

Miss Alice M. Miller, the invalid daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Miller, died yes of the grip" are made welcome.

Alice M. Miller, the invalid daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Miller, died yes of the grip" are made welcome.

Alice M. Miller, the invalid daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Miller, died yes of the grip" are made welcome.

Alice M. Miller, the invalid daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Miller, died yes of the grip" are made welcome.

Alice M. Miller, the invalid daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Miller, died yes of the grip" are made welcome.

Thirteenth street, and the internet the corporation in County Clerk Coffe's capitalized at $300. The Dobbins Miller had been an invalid for many years. She was a native born of Oregonian, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Miller, being pioneers.

A. F. Mille

be completed until the arrival of the steamer Great Northern at San Fran-cisco from Honolulu. The body of Mrs.

tained, which will lessen the cost of the work.

BAD CHECK MAN BOUND OVER.—
For passing bad checks, Cecil Bruce Dunsmore, alias Andrew Sullivan, was bound over to the grand jury by Municipal Judge Stevenson yesterday. Dunsmore, who has served sentences for forgery at both Walla Walla and Salem penitentiaries, gave a bogus check at Morgan-Atchley Furniture Company, it is alleged. He was arrested by Detectives Price and Mallett, who assert he has pussed other checks in Portland.

Welfare Headquarters to Open.—

who died at Marysville, Cal., were conducted yesterday from Hoiman's Chaple by Martha Washington Chapter, No. 14.
Eastern Star. Mrs. Redman is survived by her husband, M. M. Redman. She formerly resided in Portland as a member of Martha Chapter, but was a member of Martha Chapter, but went to California several years ago. Death followed a surgical operation.

Hence The Star Mrs. Redman is survived by her husband, M. M. Redman. She formerly resided in Portland and was a member of Martha Chapter, but went to California several years ago. Death followed a surgical operation.

Hence The Star Mrs. Redman is survived by her husband, M. M. Redman. She formerly resided in Portland as a member of Martha Chapter, but went to California several years ago. Death followed a surgical operation.

Hence The Star Mrs. Redman is survived by her husband, M. M. Redman. She formerly resided in Control of Martha Chapter, but went to California several years ago. Death followed a surgical operation. Hence The Well of Henry Hewett, who died February 16, was filed in County Clerk Coffey's was filed in County Clerk Coff

ROAD EMPLOYES GIVE $100 Streetcar Company Force Adds to Its

Donations to Needy.

The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company's Employes' Public Relief Bu-reau, organized last Fall to relieve distress among the poor, has had remarkable success, having quietly investi-gated numerous cases of destitute famnearby saloon. Ten dollars were taken.

First Preservation Church, Twelfth and Alder streets. Rev. John H. Boyd, D. D., pastor; 10:33 A. M. sermon, "The God of Whom Jesus Teaches Us to Think"; 7:30 P. M., "How to Escape From the Failure and Troubles of Life,"—Adv.

History of the Alder streets of the control of the series of "Practical Psychology."—Adv.

Special Today

Men's Suits in handsome checks, stripes, mixtures and blue serges; English, box, Norfolks and conservative models. Overcoats and Balmacaans in fabrics and patterns suitable for wear now and all season. They're truly unrivalled values at.....

Men's $2 and $2.50 fancy Vests, at..... Men's short bosom Shirts, at.....

Boys' $6.50 Norfolk Suits at $4.35. Children's $6.50 Reefers at $3.95. Boys' $1.50 flannel Shirts at $5¢ and many other bargains for boys today.

Successors to Steinbach & Co.

AWARDS WAIT GOVERNOR

BRIDGE BIDS TO BE PASSED TODAY

Engineers Ready With Reports on Estimates and Local Firms May been returned.

Some Eastern firms, however, are represented among those remaining in the list of eventual possibilities, Members of the Oregon Manufacturers' Association and of other commercial organizations are urging the commission to give due consideration to the merits of Portland concerns in o the merits of Portland concerns in

John L. Harrington and E. E. How-ard, the advising engineers, intimate and sanitary.

The Best to Eat A Real Dairy Lunch

tomer today

awarding the contract. They are advising that if all other conditions are equal, the local bidders be given pref-Corner 10th and Alder.

IF EXECUTIVE IS ABSENT.

Win Contracts.

Nearly all of the bids now under consideration are those of local contractors. Half of the bids have been rejected because they are too high. The certified checks of the bidders have been returned.

West Park & Washington

NOW OPEN

For Ladies and Gentlemen

Everything modern, clean

R. J. Griesel, Prop.

FREE To introduce our store we'll give to each customer today

Tea, Coffee, Dairy, Etc.

Not NEW but TRUE

That Economy Is Wealth

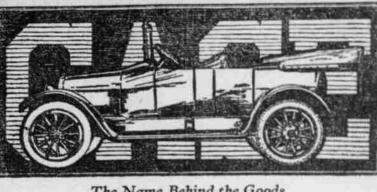

Deposit Your Savings With

The UNITED STATES NATIONAL BANK

Third and Oak Streets

And Secure a Liberal Rate of Interest

The Name Behind the Goods

See This New Car

Because, for these things, you must rely upon the maker's ability to build them right. Also his reputation for embodying them.

And the Case Company has won, through more than 70 years, acknowledged leadership as makers of motive power machinery. Please call at our showrooms and let us disclose he can spend in "hidden values" where others must save.

THE JONES MARKET

FOURTH ALDER PACIFIC MARSHALL 1. HOME A 6281

This Saturday We Offer VEAL-BEEF

Jones' "Pride of Oregon" Hams and Bacon

At Specially Reduced Prices

Milk-Fed Stock

> Beef All No. 1 Steer Beef

Prime Rib Roasts, per lb......18¢ Jones' Mild Cured Smoked Meats Never so low in price, lay in a supply NOW

Bacon, Selected, Light Stock, Half or Whole Strips, per lb 20¢ ALL MEATS at Our Special Bargain Counter

AN EVENING of SACRED MUSIC

Low Priced for This Saturday's Sale

Is to be furnished by the quartet and chorus of the

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH Twelfth and Taylor Streets,

Tomorrow at 7:30 P. M. Everybody is invited to attend. All seats free.

DR. FRANK L. LOVELAND Will speak briefly on "The Power and Pathos of Sacred Song." In the morning his subject will be: "The Church and the Child."

"TRISTAN AND ISOLDE" Is the subject of the great illustrated lecture to be given by DR. CLEMENT B. SHAW in the church auditorium Wednesday, March 3, at 8:15 P. M. Admission-Adults, 25 cents; children 15 cents.

YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO MISS THIS

Store for Rent! Store 25x75, centrally located, fireproof building, water, heat and light included in rental. If you want to change locations and secure a first-class store in the best retail center, this is your opportunity.

L 569, Oregonian.

HOTEL CORNELIUS

The House of Welcome Park and Alder Streets, Portland, Or.

In the theater and shopping district, one block from any carline. Rates $1.00 per day and up. With bath, $1.50 per day and up, Take our Brown Auto

C. W. Cornelius, President H. E. Fletcher, Manager.

WANTED CHAIRS TO RECANE. School for the Adult Blind, 11th and Davis. For particulars call J. F. Meyers, Phone Main 548.

