

Society News

By Gertrude P. Corbett.

SOCIETY is using every effort on behalf of the Salvation Army relief fund to the exclusion of practically all amusements. A concert will be held Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the Lincoln High School, and is styled "An evening of Music." Last year there was a similar event with the same beneficiary under the direction of Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer, which proved to be a tremendous success financially and socially, and those in charge of this year's event are endeavoring to uphold previous records.

Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke is in charge of the musical programme, which will be a thoroughly artistic and interesting one.

Beginning this morning, society women will avail themselves of the opportunity to increase the funds of the organization by selling tickets at a specially constructed booth in Meier & Frank's establishment. This morning the booth will be in charge of Mrs. Warren E. Thomas and a corps of assistants among the younger set. Tomorrow morning Mrs. Harry Meyer will take charge, and from 10 to 12 o'clock she will be assisted by Misses Flora Rosenblatt and Dorothy Lowenson, and in the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock Misses Irene Goldsmith and Hortense Jacobson will assist Mrs. Meyer. Monday Mrs. Nellie A. Niabeth will be in charge, with a group of assistants, and Tuesday Mrs. J. P. Gale will attend to the sale of tickets.

One of the most remunerative features of the affair last year was the sale of home-made candies; already 75 pounds have been donated by Portland's best-known candy-makers among the women; 155 pounds of the amount is absolutely home-made, and the other 20 pounds has been donated by the Hazelwood Company.

On Monday and Tuesday from 10 to 5 o'clock a committee will be at the Y. W. C. A. to take orders for the candies which will also be sold during the performance.

Portland Railway, Light & Power Company's employees will give their first annual ball tonight at Colton Hall. Patrons for the affair are Mrs. R. P. Boynton, Mrs. Frederick Cooper, Mrs. P. Osborne and Mrs. C. W. Robertson. The committee in charge of the affair is: Charles Bauer, A. Berry, Odin Evenson, O. N. Hogue, Mrs. Fred W. Steele, A. L. Sims, Mrs. A. W. Blair, R. N. Brown, P. W. Fitch, H. R. Lowry, C. W. Savage, W. R. Saunders and G. H. Jett.

The hockey enthusiasts brimful of the pent-up galaxy of weeks turned out in force last night at the big Ice Hippodrome to see the Victoria-Portland game. The fair sex filled the upper tier of seats, where they could stand up and view the game from all corners of the field and become as excited as they wished without demure spectators from the back glancing disapprovingly. The boxes striding the field were also filled with a representative audience, who cared not how the remainder of the audience felt about their exuberance and enthusiasm.

Among those who entertained last night, some in boxes and others with the parties, were: Captain Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacKay, W. Wright, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett and party of nine, Mrs. Hazel Blinnauer Litt and three guests, Mrs. J. George Kehler, Mrs. A. Neppach, Mrs. Alice Beach-Benson, Mrs. Frederick G. Buffum, Miss Margaret Ayer, Mrs. N. E. Ayer, N. L. Idelman, George Hurley, A. Brannan, Frederick W. Hill, Dr. Earl Smith, George Wilson, Mrs. L. Lawler, Mrs. John P. Plazemann, C. Jensen, A. J. McClure, Carl Jackson and H. E. Lewis.

PORTLAND GIRL WHO RECENTLY ASSISTED AT SORORITY TEA.

Miss Katherine Graham, given on Saturday afternoon by Dr. Bertha Stuart, of the University of Oregon, who will speak in Kenton school at 2 o'clock. Anyone interested will be welcomed.

Tickets are being sold for the second entertainment to be given Saturday night at the Arletta School building. At this entertainment the Boys' Club of the Parent-Teacher Association will sell home-made candies to raise money for their gymnasium equipment. A large class of boys meets regularly on Tuesday evenings in the school assembly with Mr. Gillard as leader. The neighboring churches will assist in the entertainment. The programme for this entertainment will be:

Selection, Neighborhood Orchestra; report of Mutual Service Committee; vocal solo, Mr. Walker, of Fifth Church of Christ, Scientist; reading, Miss Helen Humphreys, Kern Park Christian Church; piano solo, Miss Heinrichs, Arletta Baptist Church; vocal solo, Mr. Boster, Millard-avenue Presbyterian Church; piano solo, Miss Strong, Arletta Baptist Church; reading, Mrs. Pullman, Arletta Baptist Church; piano solo, Mrs. Reed, Laurelwood Methodist Episcopal Church.

Women's Clubs

By Edith Knight Holmes.

A MASS meeting of college women will be held at the Central Library in room A, Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock, to perfect the organization of a college club. The existing college organizations are to be represented by a committee, appointed to report on a committee, which will be read at this meeting. A general invitation to be present and take part in the discussion is extended to all college women, whether graduates or not. The committee in charge consists of: Mrs. James B. Kerr, chairman, Mrs. Elliot R. Corbett, Mrs. Vincent Cook, Mrs. J. C. Elliott King, Miss Emma Wood, Miss C. Blackmar, Miss Genevieve Thompson.

The Overlook Women's Club will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. V. Poling, 347 Capitol avenue. Besides the regular programme Judge Gatens will speak to the club.

Rose City Park Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet this afternoon in the Old People's Home, Sandy boulevard and East Thirty-second street.

Samuel Hill will address the members of the Junior High School of the Portland Women's Club this afternoon at 3:15 o'clock. "Belgium" will be the subject and many interesting features of that country will be explained by the speaker. A large attendance is anticipated. Mrs. J. D. Spencer is chairman.

Dr. Rebec will address the art department of the Women's Club this afternoon at 2:15 in the Women of Woodcraft Hall on the corner of Tenth and Taylor.

At the County Sunday school convention held recently the Graded Union of Sunday School Workers gave one of the best demonstrations ever given by them in this city. The Union believes thoroughly that children in Sunday schools should be taught by way of object teaching as shown in their programme.

Mrs. E. E. Bollinger gave a missionary talk, using as an object lesson a model of an African kraal. She told of the home life of the people and thus led up to their needs. Mrs. J. V. Guthrie and Mrs. F. G. Parsons exhibited artistic birthday calendars, Sunday school posters of different kinds, and many other devices for entertaining the children of the beginners' department. Mrs. C. A. Morden presented a paper telling of the needs of the primary department regarding the surrounding equipment and the need of proper teachers.

Miss Olive Clark portrayed the needs of the Junior boys and girls, following the lead of Mrs. A. B. Slauson, with her class of Juniors from the First Presbyterian Sunday school, gave a most remarkable demonstration of the scripture memory work. This exhibition showed conclusively what the children of the Junior age can do along this line when properly directed.

The Portland Graded Union is working along lines of progressive Sunday school work. At the convention, 23 certificates of appreciation for their services were issued to members of the Portland Graded Union. This society meets every Friday at 3 P. M. in room A, Public Library.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Prehn, of Irvington, are being felicitated upon the arrival of a daughter, born February 21. She will be named Geraldine Virginia. Mrs. Prehn was formerly Geraldine Barber.

This evening the Irvington Club members will enjoy an informal dancing party at the club, the committee in charge being William Holden, A. M. Wilson and Martin Hawkes.

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Clark, of Rome, Italy, were guests of honor at a pretty informal dinner presided over last night by Mr. and Mrs. William D. Wheelwright. Later in the evening Dr. Clark was the guest of the Archaeological Society on "Italy." Covers were laid for eight at a charmingly-appointed table.

watch, lay down in another room and Dr. Woglegle sat by Ezra's bedside until morning. Hour by hour he gave him the medicine he had prepared, and by hour he saw the alarming symptoms of the disease disappear. Just before daybreak he saw Ezra drop into a quiet sleep, and then he knew that the disease had been conquered and that he was going to get well. It was not until then that he went and called Ezra's father, he said: "Your boy will get well," he said: "The crisis has been safely passed, and all that he needs now is care and nursing to make him as well as ever. The doctor will understand it all when he comes, and there will be no need for me to stay any longer. And then, just as he was leaving, he said: 'It may be as well, perhaps, if you do not tell Ezra about me when he awakens, for he might feel that he owed me an especial debt.'"

And then old Woglegle went out of the house as he had come in, without telling anything of himself or why he had come. He had not gone far from the house, however, when he met the doctor, who asked about Ezra, and when Woglegle told him how much better he was, the doctor said: "I asked him how he had known what to give him, and then for the first time Woglegle told the story of his life; how he had been a famous physician; how overwork had broken his health and given him the nervous disease which affected his eye, but that he had never ceased to study, and that he had recently finished reading a big book on the virus disease with which Ezra was ill. The doctor thanked him for his help and went on to the house to see how Ezra was getting on.

The doctor knew of how the boys plagued old Woglegle, and when Ezra was pretty near well enough to go out he told him of how his life had been saved and who was responsible for his getting well.

Ezra told the doctor that the first place he would go when he was able to be out was to the shanty, and he kept his word, and one morning he, with a half dozen of his friends, knocked at the old man's door, and when he had let him in he told him how thankful he was for saving his life, and how he and all the rest of the boys were never going to do anything again to annoy him.

ACCUSED OBTAINS DELAY

Alleged Counterfeiter Objects to Prosecutor Defending Him.

When the Government was all ready to proceed yesterday in Federal Court with the trial of Charles Jarvis, alleged counterfeiter, the defendant objected and obtained an extension of time until this morning on the ground that James L. Sumrall, an attorney who had been appointed by the court to take charge of his case, was formerly United States Assistant District Attorney.

Jarvis feared that a close bond might exist between the present United States District Attorney's office and the former official, and he objected to Mr. Sumrall acting as his attorney. He won his point and had another attorney named. Time then was allowed for the new lawyer to learn the merits of the case he is to defend.

BISHOP SUMNER DUE TODAY

Episcopal Prelate, Called East by Father's Death, Returns.

Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner, the new head of the Episcopal diocese of Oregon, will arrive in Portland tonight after an absence of several weeks in the East, where he was called on the death of his father, C. D. Sumner, of Manchester, N. H.

All the festivities that had been planned for the bishop had to be postponed and these will be given after Easter. Bishop Sumner had been in Portland but one week when his father's death called him away.

HOW A DEEP SEATED COUGH

And Sore Lungs Were Overcome by Vinol—Mr. Hillman's Statement of Facts Follows:

Camden, N. J.—"I had a deep-seated cough, a run-down system and my lungs were awfully weak and sore. I am an electrical by occupation and my cough kept me awake nights so I thought at times I would have to give up. I tried everything everybody suggested and had taken so much medicine I was disgusted.

"One evening I read about Vinol and decided to give it a trial. Soon I noticed an improvement. I kept on taking it and today I am a well man. The soreness is all gone from my lungs, I do not have any cough and have gained fifteen pounds in weight and I am telling my friends that Vinol did it."

FRANK HILLMAN, Camden, N. J.

It is the curative, tissue-rebuilding influence of cods' livers aided by the blood-making, strength-creating properties of tonic iron, contained in Vinol, that made it so successful in Mr. Hillman's case.

We ask every person in this vicinity suffering from weak lungs, chronic coughs, or a run-down condition of the system to try a bottle of Vinol as our guarantee to return your money if it fails to help you.

Hairs Quickly Vanish After This Treatment

(Helps to Beauty)

Science has aided in simplifying the banishing of hairy growths from the face, and according to a beauty specialist, the most effective treatment yet devised consists of applying a delatone paste to the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. When this paste is removed and the skin washed every trace of hair has vanished. Be sure to get real delatone. —Adv.

Parent Teacher Associations

An unusually interesting meeting of the Portland Parent-Teacher Association was held in room A of the Central Library. The vice-president, Mrs. Alva Lee Stephens, presided and the meeting opened with the reading of the resolutions, which were sent to the Legislature. Explanation of the peace movement by Dr. Wood followed and the reading of the invitation extended by the Oregon Congress of Mothers to the Parent-Teacher Association to act as hostesses at the convention luncheon to be held May 13 or 15 was heard. The constitution was read by Mrs. C. Newton and revised. It was voted to maintain an executive committee and to increase the number necessary for a quorum from 10 to 25.

"The Dearest Skule," given at the Richmond school last night, was a great success. The performance will be repeated this evening.
