

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

ORIGONIAN TELEPHONES. Managing Editor Main 7970, A 6995. City Editor Main 7970, A 6995. Sunday Editor Main 7970, A 6995. Advertising Department Main 7970, A 6995. City Circulation Main 7970, A 6995. Composing Room Main 7970, A 6995. Printing Room Main 7970, A 6995. Superintendent Main 7970, A 6995.

AMUSEMENTS. HELIO (Broadway and Taylor)—Musical comedy, "Whirl of the World," should attract many this afternoon, 2:15 and tonight at 8:15.

BAKER (Broadway and Sixth, between Alder and Morrison)—Musical comedy, "Bringing Up Father," tonight at 8:15.

THEATRE. NATIONAL—Park, West Park, St. Wash. PEOPLES—West Park near Alder. MAJESTIC—Park and Washington. NEW STAR—Park and Washington. SUNSET THEATRE—Washington and Broadway.

MOVING PICTURE THEATERS. NATIONAL—Park, West Park, St. Wash. PEOPLES—West Park near Alder. MAJESTIC—Park and Washington. NEW STAR—Park and Washington. SUNSET THEATRE—Washington and Broadway.

Advertisements Intended for City News in Brief columns in Sunday's issue must be handed in The Oregonian business office by 4 o'clock Saturday evening.

PASTOR FAVORS NEW CHURCH.—At the reception tendered at the Swenson Hotel, the new pastor of the Portland New Church Society (Swedenborgian), at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Cobb, 1975 Stanton street, Wednesday, he outlined some of the work he proposes to undertake. Rev. Mr. Worcester favored the creation of a chapel, where the church should have a home of its own.

CHILDREN TO BE BAPTIZED.—School children of the city with their parents, teachers and friends have been invited to an educational recital at the Columbia Theater tomorrow at 8:20 A. M. This recital is the third of a free series being given in the Columbia Theater by the Oregon chapter of the American Guild of Organists. The opera of "Robin Hood" (De Koven) will be shown in a series of beautiful films, during which Frederick Scholl, organist of the theater, will play the music of the opera. The showing of the pictures will be preceded by a short organ recital by Frederick W. Goodrich, dean of the chapter.

MARRIED MEN TO GET PREFERENCE.—Married men with families living in the county will henceforth receive preference in employment of labor under the different departments of the county government, according to an order made yesterday by the County Commissioners. The order directs the roadmaster, superintendent of bridges and ferries and superintendent of machinery to employ local men who have families before giving employment to any others.

MRS. TUTTLE SPEAKS AT PACIFIC UNIVERSITY.—The first address in the series by leading women of the Northwest, to the women of Pacific University, was given yesterday by Mrs. R. M. Tuttle, of Portland, upon the subject of home decoration. Mrs. Tuttle was accompanied to Forest Grove by her daughter, and Mrs. Maurice W. Seitz. Miss Tuttle made several beautiful vocal selections and Mrs. Seitz several piano numbers.

FUNERAL OF LEO KELLER IS TODAY.—Funeral services for Leo Keller, who died Tuesday, will be held today at 2 P. M. at Dunning's chapel, 414 East Alder street. Interment will be in Rose City Park Cemetery. Mr. Keller was son of Mrs. Elizabeth Keller, of Switzerland; brother of Frank Keller, San Francisco; Joseph Keller, Ridgefield, Wash.; and Charles Keller, Colorado; Misses Eliza, Mattilda, Sophia and Mary Keller, Switzerland.

DOG POISONING BRINGS COMPLAINTS.—The Police Department is investigating the poisoning of dogs in the vicinity of Patton avenue, several complaints having come in of valuable animals having been poisoned near that section. Mr. Redfield, 436 Patton avenue, reports having lost a valuable dog Wednesday and Mrs. A. T. Huntington, 224 Patton avenue, lost one a few days earlier.

"CO-OPERATION" IS TOPIC TODAY.—The Portland Realty Board will be addressed at its weekly luncheon meeting at the Commercial Club today by H. V. Chase, who is arranging the consolidation of the Commercial Club and the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Chase's subject will be "Co-operation." Earl A. Clark, of F. N. Clark & Co., will be chairman of the day.

GEORGE H. HIMES LECTURES.—George H. Himes, of Oregon Historical Society, lectured before the Gresham Study Club in the Gresham library on Tuesday night. He told of the life of Jonathan Corvill, who wrote an Oregon history. Mr. Himes traced Oregon history and told of the beginning of developments which he contrasted with the Oregon of today.

SELLWOOD POSTAL STATION NOT TO BE MOVED.—It was reported at the meeting of the Sellwood Board of Trade Tuesday night that the Y. M. C. A. claims that the report that the Sellwood postal station was to be moved from its present location on East Thirteenth street, near Unathia avenue, to Bybee avenue and Milwaukee street, was without foundation.

JITNEY ORDINANCE HEARING TO BE SET.—The date for a special meeting of the City Council to hear arguments for and against the provisions of the proposed Daily jitney ordinance will be set by the Council in its regular meeting today. The meeting will be held probably some day next week.

MAMAMAS TO TRAMP.—For their Sunday trip the Mamamas will leave the end of the Williams Hotel, at 1:15 and tramp over a trail from Regent Heights to the Skyline boulevard. The party later will descend to the Linton road for the return to the city.

OWNER HAS SPLENDID STORE FOR RENT.—25x75 feet in size, right in the heart of the business district, light, heat and water included in rental. Splendid opportunity for a wide-awake merchant. L. 570, Oregonian.—Adv.

BROOKLYN ALUMNI TO MEET.—The Brooklyn School Alumni Association will hold an important business meeting in the school assembly hall, tonight. The association will elect officers.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson.

REV. C. M. CLARK SPEAKS.—The missionary convention of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, Free Methodist Oregon Conference, opened its session last night in the Central Church, East Flanders and East Fifty-fifth streets. Rev. C. M. Clark, a former missionary, delivered the main address on "The Political Unrest in India and Its Relations to Missionary Work." Musical selections were rendered by the Central Church quartet. Rev. J. H. Hessler, leader, Miss Emma Lovett today will speak on the "Abnormal Girl." There will be a public meeting tonight. Rev. Mr. Clark will speak on "India Famine Revival."

SCHOOL GETS INDIAN RELICS.—The Brooklyn school has been enriched by the gift of a splendid collection of Indian relics, minerals and corals, received from Dr. Dav Rafferty, of 563 East Eighth street. Dr. Rafferty, who has lived in the district since the school was established, has taken an interest in the affairs of the school. The collection will be established in the assembly hall as soon as suitable cabinets are prepared. T. J. Gary is principal of the school and said yesterday that he was delighted with the donation, which, he hopes, will be enjoyed by the public as well as the school children.

FOUR COMPANIES INCORPORATED.—Articles of incorporation for four new companies were filed in County Clerk Coffey's office yesterday. They are the Crescent Chemical Company, $4000, by L. W. Himes, O. C. Johnson, C. E. Rockwell, the Zion Bakery, by William and Philip Rossmumy and D. Sells Cohen, $2000; the Winkelman Bus & Burlap Company, by E. Winkelman, J. N. Freedman and George D. Young, $1000, and the Burnett-Trager-Selbach Company by Guy G. Bailey, William T. Conlin and D. C. Burnett-Trager, $5000.

JOHNAS MEYER TONIGHT.—Many new members will be received into the Jovian League at its meeting at the Benson Hotel at noon today. C. E. Warner, consulting engineer of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, has been selected as first trustee in charge of the Portland jurisdiction by the National Guard, of Woodburn, the largest National Guard company in the United States, comprising 103 men and officers, will be inspected tonight by Captain J. H. Stroufe, U. S. A. According to advice received by Adjutant-General White, the company will be 100 per cent in attendance at the inspection. Captain Eugene Meschberger, First Lieutenant Todd and Second Lieutenant Livesley are the officers of the company.

WOODMEN GUARD TO BE INSPECTED.—Company I, Third Infantry, Oregon National Guard, of Woodburn, the largest National Guard company in the United States, comprising 103 men and officers, will be inspected tonight by Captain J. H. Stroufe, U. S. A. According to advice received by Adjutant-General White, the company will be 100 per cent in attendance at the inspection. Captain Eugene Meschberger, First Lieutenant Todd and Second Lieutenant Livesley are the officers of the company.

FIVE SONS FOR DIVORCES.—Four wives and one husband asked that their marital bonds be dissolved in suits filed in County Clerk Coffey's office yesterday. The suits were by Lucy Gertrude Bigelow against Charles Tilden Bigelow, desertion; Lemuel Ellsworth Harris against Savannah Harris, desertion; Charles Lewis White against Leonard W. White, cruelty; Belle Crawford Nelson against Louis Nelson, desertion; and Mary M. Cox against Orville W. Cox, cruelty and neglect.

MAMAMAS MEET TONIGHT.—Members of the Mamamas will discuss the life and works of John Muir at a meeting tonight at the clubrooms in the North-western Bank building. Several readings of selections from his writings will be made. Arrangements are to be made for a lecture April 9 by Mrs. Henshaw, a member of the Alpine Club and of the Royal Geographical Society of London. The lecture will be given at the library.

CITY BEAUTIFUL AID NAMED.—H. E. Perrin has been appointed assistant to the City Beautiful Committee of the Rose Festival Association and henceforth will have charge of the office which has been enlarged. The work of the committee became so heavy that it became necessary to enlarge its quarters and Mr. Perrin was chosen to have charge. The committee will continue its work until the last of September.

ACCUSED LIQUOR MEN GIVE BONDS.—Bail bonds for Charles J. Stubling, L. A. Porter and C. B. Adams, liquor dealers of The Dalles, were deposited with County Clerk March of the Federal Court yesterday. The three were indicted by the grand jury on charges of having refilled bottles that originally contained whisky bottled in bond and bearing the internal revenue stamps. Bail in the sum of $500 was required in each case.

GENERAL ANDERSON'S RANK ADVANCED.—General Thomas M. Anderson, of 66 Everett street, has been placed on the Army retired list as Major-General, according to the terms of the Army appropriation bill signed yesterday by the President. General Anderson, who served in the Civil and Spanish-American wars, retired as a Brigadier-General ten years ago. He has lived in Portland since his retirement.

AUTO TRADE BODY ELECTS.—At the annual meeting of the Portland Automobile Trade Association at the Commercial Club yesterday H. J. Banta was elected president, and J. A. Crittenden was re-elected secretary. The following were elected to fill the remaining offices: W. S. Dulmage, first vice-president; W. C. Barbe, second vice-president; and Howard M. Covey, treasurer.

LABORER BURNED BY STEAM.—Angelo Caravano, Italian laborer, was burned badly about the legs yesterday when the side of a ditch, in which he was working on East Water street, caved in, breaking a steam pipe and letting the steam escape. He was rushed to Good Samaritan hospital for treatment. Caravano is about 46 years of age and is married.

WOODMEN TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE.—Webfoot Camp, No. 65, Woodmen of the World, will hold its usual open house entertainment Friday night. Dr. J. Allen Gilbert will give a short talk on social health. A musical, literary and surprise entertainment will be given. The monthly award of cash will be made.

YOUNG ORATORS TO COMPETE.—Nine young orators will compete for the Women's Christian Temperance Union silver medal at the Methodist Episcopal Church of Woodstock, Friday evening, March 5, at 8 o'clock. There will be music, an excellent program is promised. All interested are invited.

SABBATH SCHOOL TO BE TOMORROW.—Sabbath school will be held tomorrow at 10 o'clock at the Central Seventh-Day Adventist Church, East Eleventh and Everett streets. The lesson will be taken from Matthew 18:1-8. A strange class will be conducted by Rev. Milton H. St. John, the pastor.

"LUCIA DI LAMMERMOON" HEARD TONIGHT.—This best-known opera of Donizetti will be interpreted by Clement B. Shaw at the Thiford building tonight at 8:30. The duet "O. Haste, Criminals, Mortals!" the "Sextet" and other numbers will be sung. M. A. Goodnough, pianist, will assist. The admittance is free.

CHURCH SERVICE TO BE UNIQUE.—A unique service will be held in Centenary Methodist Church Sunday night. Ninety-nine men in a chorus will sing "The Ninety and Nine" and Rev. T. W. Lane will preach on "A Man and a Sheep."

"BLACK SHEEP" TO BE TOPIC.—"The Black Sheep" will be the topic at Beth Israel tonight at 8. "Bezelel" tomorrow at 10:30. All men and women are welcome.

SPECIALIZED SERVICE COSTS NO MORE than that of the inexperienced individual in the administration of your estate and often results in a saving. When you make your will, appoint this company its executor; administration is its business.

Title and Trust Company Title and Trust Building, Fourth Near Stark.

If some great violinist like Ysaye appeals—

you can listen to any one of a dozen or more of the compositions he has made famous on the concert platform, from the "Rondino" by Vieuxtemps to "Die Heisterlinge" by Wagner, and Schubert's "Ave Maria"—wonderful recordings in themselves and characteristic of all the machines are merely gum vending machines. The officers maintain they are slot machines, since the returns vary, thus giving it the element of chance. Many young boys, they say, are playing the machines and thus getting their first lessons in gambling.

Latest Records Sent on free trial by

DR. COMPTON TO GIVE REED LECTURE.—In Reed College extension course 12, natural science, Dr. Karl Compton will give the 49th lecture, entitled "Electric Currents," today at 3 o'clock, in the biological lecture room of the college. In course 20, English Poets, Professor Norman Coleman will lecture on Ralph Waldo Emerson, tonight at 8 o'clock, in room B of the Central Library.

PIONEER UNDERGOES OPERATION.—C. E. Price, of Gresham, a pioneer musician, underwent an operation on Tuesday for cataract of the eyes. He is doing well. Mr. Price has been slowly growing blind and the total blindness came some time ago. It is hoped that the operation will restore his eyesight.

MR. NASH A. PERRY, late assistant U. S. Attorney at Nome, Alaska, has returned to Portland and resumed the practice of the law at his old office, rooms 626-7 Chamber of Commerce building.—Adv.

PATRON HOME ASSOCIATION TO MEET.—The regular monthly business meeting of the Patron Home Association will be held at the home today at 10:30.

SCHOOLS PLAN SUBMITTED Group System Proposed for Franklin High by Mr. Naramore.

F. A. Naramore, superintendent of properties for the Portland school district, submitted to the Board at its meeting yesterday the general plan for the arrangement of buildings and grounds for the Franklin High School. Six buildings are contemplated, five of two stories each and a boiler-house of one story. The five school buildings are planned for administration, science courses, manual arts, gymnasium and auditorium.

IT IS PROPOSED TO erect a central unit this year and add the others as needed. The entire plan contemplates accommodation for 2000 pupils.

The Board adopted the report of Superintendent Alderman providing for provisional courses at Ockley Green School.

SLOT MACHINES OPERATE Two Men on Belmont Street Arrested for Running Games of Chance.

F. A. McKinley, 1915 Belmont street, and Lester A. Moore, 1919 Belmont street, were arrested yesterday on a charge of operating nickel in the slot machines. They were released on their own recognizance and will give a hearing in the Municipal Court. The arrested men assert that the PIANOS FOR RENT Packard, Bond and Other Pianos for sale. Packard Music Company 165 10th St., near Morrison.

SCHWAB PRINTING CO. BEN F. GREENE, PRESIDENT 245 & STARK STREET

Do Your Week-End Marketing By Phone MAIN 7200; A 6181.

LENTEN SUGGESTIONS Columbia River Salmon Bellies, pound.....35c Columbia River Salmon Tips, pound.....35c Norway Mackerel, all sizes, each.....10c to 60c Kippered Herrings, doz., 40c

Finnan Haddies, pound 20c Yarmouth Bloaters, domestic, 5 for.....25c Yarmouth Bloaters, imported, 6 in a tin, per tin.....40c And many other dainty and appetizing Sea Foods.

SALE OF HOOD RIVER APPLES CONTINUED. We still have a few of those fancy Newtown Pippins at, per box.....$1.25 Cooking Apples at, per box......75c No advance in the price of our own Home-Made Bread.—Try it today, per loaf.....5c and 10c

Sealy-Dresser Co. 290, STARK ST.

Store for Rent! Store 25x75, centrally located, fireproof building, water, heat and light included in rental. If you want to change locations and secure a first-class store in the best retail center, this is your opportunity. L 569, Oregonian.

OUR SPECIALS Every Day in the Week.

Rimless or in frame, eye-glasses, gold-filled, 1 1/2 lenses.....$3.50 Same mountings on frames as above, with LORIC lenses.....$5.00 Kryptok at Lowest Prices.

Wheeler Optical Co. Fifth Floor Main 7282, Oregonian Bldg.

THE SEWARD is a new, modern and elegantly appointed hotel, possessing one of the most beautiful corner locations in the Northwest. Located at 10th and Alder sts., opposite Old Wortman & King's big department store. In heart of retail and theater district. Free department. Bus meets all trains. "W" car also runs from Union Depot direct to SEWARD. W. M. SEWARD, Prop.

Varsity Fifty Five A suit for young men The illustration above shows one of the most successful models ever designed for young men; a style that is sure to be the choice of the smart dressers this spring.

The special features are: Coat: 30 inches long; three buttons, two to button; soft roll front; wide lapels. Waistcoat: Five buttons, snug-waisted. Trousers: English style, with turn-up and tunnel belt loops. The fabrics are all wool; Glen Urquhart, Tartan, check and stripe patterns. Prices are much less than a merchant tailor charges. Pay about $25; you can go higher or as low as $18.

Our label is a small thing to look for, a big thing to find Hart Schaffner & Marx Good Clothes Makers