Krause and Recruit Pitchers Hold Collegians to One Run in 2-1 Game.

STUMPF'S HIT IS FACTOR

St. Mary's Ties Score in Eighth, but Mac's Men Come Back in Their Half and Put Run Across.

New Men Fail to Shine.

FRESNO, Cal., March 7.—(Special.)—Two recruit pitchers and Harry Krause won for the St. Mary's College team today and a result Portland club today and a result Portland club today and a result Portland club today.

It was a better contest in every respect than yesterday's game. Pitchers were in better form, fielding was cleaner, play in general was more rapid and many rapid fans were out rooting for the team.

Williamham, Krause and Barnes would have done better with six hits, and he kept these well scattered. He walked three men, but not one of these passed second base.

Williamham, who came from the Trolley League, started, and in three innings allowed five hits, but no runs. Krause pitched the victory, mashing as Portland was one run in the lead when he left the box.

Barnes, who pitched the first three innings, walked three men in two innings, one of whom scored and tied up the game.

With the count one and one, Portland took the lead in the eighth inning with one run. Coltrin led off with a fast drive through second base that went for a single.

Portland took the lead in the first inning. Naughton, who headed the batting order, smashed a hot drive down the line in the second inning which hit Coltrin.

BOXING MAKES NO HIT

BY CHRISTY MATTHEWSON. The Giants' Famous Pitcher.

During the past Winter I have had an opportunity to study other professional sports and how they are conducted, and I want to go on record with a statement of my own beliefs.

But, personally, if I were going to bet, I would prefer to wager a little something on baseball rather than on the horse races.
