comes the announcement of Miss Violette Jennings' engagement to Richard Sleight. The news was told yesterday afternoon at a card party at which the bride-elect was hostess to a few close friends. She is a charming girl and recently returned from a year in Europe, where she studied art. Previous to going abroad Miss Jennings, with her sister, now Mrs, Wendell Bell, passed a year at the New England Con-servatory of Music in Boston, studying with Herr Masvach. She is extremely interesting, popular socially and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jennings. The wedding probably will take place

5 Women Avoid Operations

For years we have been stating in the newspapers of the country that a great many women have escaped serious operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is true.

We are permitted to publish in this announcement extracts from the letters of five women. All have been recently received unsolicited. Could any evidence be more convincing?

1. Hopedon, Mr.—"I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached and I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman."-Mrs. Hayward Sowers, Hodgdon, Me. SHELBYVILLE, KY.-"I suffered from a severe female trouble.

2. My right side hurt me badly—it was finally decided that I must be operated upon. When my husband learned this he got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking it a few days I got better and continued to improve until I am now well."-Mrs. Mollie Smith, R.F.D., Shelbyville, Ky. HANOVER, PA .- "The doctor advised a severe operation, but my 3. HANOVER, PA.—"The doctor advised a vegetable Compound and I husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time.
