It is probable that arrangements will be made to accommodate the students in the Glencoe building until the new Franklin High School building can be erected, as there are a number of vacant rooms in the Glencoe building.

The fire was discovered by H. M. Vail, of 1711 Division street, who saw the glow through the basement windows at 2:20 A. M. He turned in the alarm immediately. Battalion Chief Stevens was in command of the fire-men.

F. Bell, principal of the school considers it probable that the fire was started by a band of young men with whom the school has had trouble.

counterfeited a signature on a postal money order at that time. Since then, however, it is believed he has used the mails to defraud and he is now being investigated by the postal authorities.
On December 15, 1913, Gechus is alleged to have forged the signature of Mrs. M. E. Bush, of this city, to a postoffice money order made out in her favor at Mind, Ariz. for $40, which he cashed, it is charged.

JAIL SENTENCE METED OUT

Frank Marshall Convicted of Holding Up Alex Kline.

Frank Marshall, a recent arrival in Portland from Medford, was sentenced to six months in jail by Municipal Judge Stevenson yesterday on a charge of having robbed Alex Kline Saturday night at the point of a gun. The robbery occurred on Eighteenth street, Kline losing $10 in money. Two other men, who were implicated in the robbery, have not been apprehended. Kline bery, have not been apprehended. Kline iestified that the robbers attempted to get his watch also, but were fright-ened away by his struggles and cries. An attempt to prove an alibi by the testimony of Marshall's mother failed, Kline is a recent arrival from Bugene. Marshall gave his occupation as that of

COMMITTEE TO DISCUSS PLANS WITH FATHER SCHOENER.

Rosarians Would Choose Bushes From Brooks Man's Stock to Plant About Oregon Building.

O. M. Clark, chairman of the Oregon ommission to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and J. A. Currey, chairman of a special committee of the Royal Rosarians, will discuss today with Father Schoener, of Brooks, plans to send to San Francisco a quantity of Father Schoener's rose bushes to be placed about the Oregon building. The action is the result of a movement begun early in the week by the Rosarians. when a letter from San Francisco called attention to the absence of Oregon roses or shrubbery about the state
