Unofficial reports that 2000 Mexicans had tried to release the priests imprisoned by Obregon and that a riot had resulted were unconfirmed.

Ohregon Leaves in Good Order.

General Obregon's troops, according to the official dispatches, left in good order and the Brazillan Minister remarked that evidently the Carranza commander was impressed by the tone of the American note. In view of this report, the American Government, it was said, probably would make no representations to the Carranza government.
