OAKS WOEFULLY WEAK AT BAT

Old-Time Trouble Appears in Final Game With White Sox Goofs.

FRESNO, Cal., March 14.—(Special.)—Eight pitchers had ample opportunity to air themselves here today and Indianapolis won the second game of a two-game series with the Beavers by a 7-to-6 score. Manager Jack Hendricks pulled another dramatic eighth-inning rally, rushing across four runs and taking the lead by one in this inning.

In addition to the twirling of eight pitchers there was plenty of hitting, which partially accounts for the constant change of stadiums. Evans opened the game for Portland and was replaced by Willingham, who was later replaced by Coveleskie. After he went out Tiny Leonard had a chance. Coveleskie is the man directly responsible for the loss, as the Beavers were in the lead when he went into the box. Stanley has been in training only a day, however, and his showing is due to lack of condition.

INDIANS USE FOUR HEAVERS

Manager Hendricks wanted to win that game and he took every precaution. Aldridge started the game, but was relieved by Cantwell, who in turn gave way to Willis. Burk was called on to finish the contest and was in the box during part of the inning when the winning runs were scored, thereby getting the credit for the victory. Blackburn broke into the hall of fame with a home run over the left field fence. Blackburn's blow was one of the longest drives ever made in the local park, the ball passing over just inside the left field foul line. The ball cleared the boards a good six feet. Aside from the catcher's drive, other hitting of the afternoon was confined to singles. Speas and Carisch each touched opposing pitchers for three hits, while every regular on the Indianapolis club, excepting Kelly, took a hit.

BUTCHER'S HIT TURNS TIDE

The Indians duplicated their feat of Saturday by starting in the eighth and batting around. Coveleskie walked Bronkie and Kelly. Metz hit down to Coltrin, forcing Kelly to walk. Bronkie going to third on the play. Butcher hit to right, scoring Bronkie and letting Metz go to second. Crandall laid down an infield single and everyone was safe, which filled the bases. Coveleskie issued his third walk of the inning to Mitchell, allowing Metz to walk across the plate. With the score 6 to 5 in favor of Portland, McCredie sent Leonard in to replace Coveleskie. Blackburn hit a high fly back of second base. Stumpff made a desperate attempt and fielded the ball, but his throw to the plate was imperfect and Butcher tied the score.

BEAVERS BUNCH HITS

Portland took what appeared to be a death grip on the contest by scoring three runs in the seventh inning. Up to this point the score had been tied at three all. With two out, Cantwell, who replaced Aldridge in the fourth inning, walked Naughton, head of the batting order. Hendricks was taking no chances, and in the fifth inning Derrick singled to left. Kircher forced Derrick at second, Naughton going to third. Stumpff singled to second, scoring Naughton and Stumpff. Lober went to second on the throw in. Speas hit a long single to right, scoring Stumpff.

INDIANAPOLIS SCORED ONE RUN IN BOTH THE SECOND AND FOURTH INNINGS, AND PORTLAND TOOK THE LEAD IN THE LAST HALF OF THE FOURTH WITH THREE RUNS.

Indians scored one run in both the second and fourth innings, and Portland took the lead in the last half of the fourth with three runs. Naughton opened with a single to left. Derrick fanned. Kircher hit to left through second. Stumpff forced Kircher at second, Naughton going to third. Stumpff stole second on the next pitched ball. Speas singled to left, scoring Naughton and Stumpff. Lober singled to left, and Speas scored from second, where he had gone on the throw in. Blackburn's home run tied the score three all in the seventh inning. The score:

SAN FRANCISCO ATHLETES USE WAR CLUB ON WHITE SOX GOOFS, WINNING 10-1.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—(Special.)—San Francisco kept up its gall at the bat today against the White Sox seconds, trouncing the defenseless Chicagoans 10 to 1. Ed Walsh, destroyer of answering in the best fashion telephonic communications from the south as to what has been ailing his crew, sent in left-hander Scoggin, who has been one of the helping factors with the Goofs. Today he looked just as helpless as any of his brothers who have gone before him. Once the Sox swatters had a line on the southpaw they drove bludge to the four corners of the earth. "Bugs" Reislal, who gets credit for winning the game, made a brief excursion to the pitching mound and then, with a sore arm, retired to the clubhouse. Scoggin, who gets credit for having "Bugs" take any undue chances, for Fanning was warmed up and ready for the performance when hostilities were restarted in the second. Fanning didn't get by as easily as he has on other occasions. Young Daily touched him for a home run in the fifth and thereafter, until the close,
