"I know of a tonnage of at least 100,000 boxes of apples that will be immediately signed up with the asso-ciation," says Oscar Vanderbilt, a mem-ber of the recently elected Growers' Council, "as soon as it is learned that the Applegrowers' Association is no longer an affiliation of the dis-tributors." With relations with the North Pa-cific Fruit Distributors severed, the Hood River Valley will undoubtedly be the most strongly organized sec-tion in the Northwest, because many growers who now ship independently will join the association. It is esti-mated that 95 per cent of the Hood River apples will be shipped this year through the local association. Many growers during the past two years have shipped independently on

Many growers during the past two years have shipped independently on account of the affiliation. These will now join the local association, which will market its fruit direct. While the local growers do not find fault with the basic principles of the Spokane agency, complaint has been heard because of the overhead expense, which, it is declared, is exorbitant. The financial management has also been criticised. While returns are received at the mail office soon after sales are Automobile Club for verification. This lotter says that the Pacific Highway through the Willamette Val-ley via Grants Pass to Medford will not be in good condition at any time this year, and "it will be passable after June 1." It also suggests a route eliminating Portland. The affidavit obtained from the county officers of Lane County re-cites that of the 42 miles of the Pa-cific Highway in Lane County 15.6 miles have been paved or macadam-ized, and that the remaining 27 miles form a good graveled highway, pass-able at all times of the year. The Eugene Commercial Club asks that similar affidavits be sent to Seattle. "You will notice in the last par-agraph of his letter he outlines for the tourist a route which cuts out Portland. Every citizen of Oregon is proud of the City of Portland and we ought to resent any effort on the part of a sinte official to direct travel from Portland," the Commercial Club says. There is no known place other than on board a large ocean-going passenger steamer, where a piano must stand a greater test, by reason of climatic conditions and thousands of people performing on it every month, therefore subjecting the instrument to the most severe strain. The railway officials, in selecting the pianos for these fine steamers, were cognizant of these facts, and naturally the Kimball Grand Pianos were chosen, but not until a thorough investigation had been made from the most reliable sources, as to durability, tonal qualities, etc.

Too much praise cannot be given to the Kimball Piano. From the inception of our business, for many years past, we have handled and sold to satisfied customers several thousands of these instruments, which have gone into some of the finest and most musical homes in the West.

Call at our store and see our magnificent line of Kimball Pianos and the exact duplicates of the Grand Pianos on board these magnificent steamers.
