Fall Down as Have Many Fall Down as Have Many Sold at Big Prices.

The Giants' Star Pitcher.

MARLIN, Tex., Mar. 17.—(Special.)—

When stars have gone from clubs they were with to other clubs at big prices frequently they have failed to make good, to live up to expectations. This has been particularly true of the Giants. Whenever a ballplayer comes to New Yrok from another team, he seems to feel that he must overreach seems to feel that he must overreach himself.

McGraw thought he had a great catcher when he brought Schlei to the Giants in 1909. Schlei never caught for McGraw like he did in Cincinnati, and it gave "Chief" Meyers the chance for practically a regular job during his first year in the league. The season before "Cy" Seymour came to the Giants, and he leaf the league in hitting with the Reds, but he never hit quite so hard after he got in the atmosphere of the Brg Town. Too much was expected.

I think "Eddie" Collins, however, is the kind of player who will go as well in Chicago as he did with the Athleities, if not better. To go better is next to impossible, but I believe fans will think that he is going better, beming. With Derrick and Doane both out Murphy peled a single to right and thole second on the next pitched ball. Speas duplicated Murphy's hit to right and Murphy came across with the first run of the game.

Bishop replaced Higginbothem at the opening of the sixth and fell before the White Sox at the opening of the seventh.

Shane Collins rapped a similing ground ball to Naughton. The ball struck Naughton's glove and bounded off toward the bleachers, Collins getting of two-base bit. Flesch flew out to Coltrin. Bishop balked, letting Collins days rule. Bishop balked, letting Collins days rule. See the creating has been credited to the locals, with but three defeats cause he will get more recognition from the followers of the White Sox. And here is hoping "Eddic" "breezes" into his own as far as recognition goes, for the circuit may be altered.

If Collins, by any stroke of good fortune, had come to McGraw, I believe some of the series of world's championships might have gone differently, some of those which have taken place in the last four years. "Larry" Doyle was a third baseman before he broke into the Rie League and fore he broke into the Big League, and he would have fitted into some other spot in the infield besides second.
