BARK LONG WAITED

Hiawatha. Expected Week Ago, Due to Take Cargo Here.

Vessels Clear for Ports in Australia and Others Leave Tomorrow. Tonnage Tied Up by War Prevents Sales of Lumber.

As the season advances the absence of available tonnage on the Pacific side proves a greater handicap, not along in the exportation of grain and flour, but there are opportunities of getting lumber cargoes under way to Australia and England if steamers were to be had. It is suid that the British Admiralty displays no inclination to let go of tonnage picked up to supply the demands of war in transporting troops, supplies and munitions and until such time as merchant ships are returned to the principal trades, there is little hope of a normal movement of export lumber.

OSCAR LORRAINE, AT EMPRESS HANDLES BOW AS IF BY MAGIC.

Vaudeville in Monkeyland" Proves Gleeful Surprise for Children. Rural Comedy Well Played.

In the feature act on a well-bal-anced and highly entertaining bill at the Empress, Oscar Lorraine, violinist, artist and comedian, handles the bow in a magical manner. Lorraine's impersonation of a gypsy is accompanied by some delightful surprises. With his unusual ability in introducing eccen-tricities, it is no wonder he is heralded as the big hit of the New York Winter Garden.
