in his efforts to do things right makes bad mintakes. For this reason Foster has warned his young players against going after the play in too strenuous a manner until they have become thor-oughly familiar with the grounds. The colored players left Chicago March 4 for New Orleans, where they had established their training camp or March 4. Rainy weather interfered considerably with training and only six practice games were played in New Orleans before Foster started for the Coast. On his arrival in Los Angeles one game was played, the Glants win-ning, 13 to 2. The Glants then came to Fresno for their series with Portland.

When approached regarding games outside of Fresno, Foster declared that he would rather stay here and have the use of the ball park in order that he might work his men into condition, as the majority of the players have not had an opportunity to get into shape.

Most are over weight. Practically all the training games for the Ghants will be played in the North-west, as the early opening of the Coast League and the training trip of Chicago White Sox and the Indianapolis

Chicago White Sox and the Indianapolis American Association club have taken up all the loose dates during March. Foster's first training game after leaving Fresno is in Eugene, Or. on March 31. The others are: Portland All-Star City League, April 5 and 6; Vancouver, April 7 and 8; Seattle, April 9, 10 and 11: Aberdeen, April 12: Ta-coina, April 15, 14 and 15. Heavy betting was done on the re-suit of the contest and all of it had the Vancouverites on the long end. Several bets were made at 80 to 40, 100 to 50 and 60 to 40 that Vancouver would take the first game. After the showing made by the visitors the odds will remain about the same for the second affair, even though it is played under Eastern rules. Score Results, Haps Winning. VENICE, Cal. March 23.-(Special.) —If Jumbo Hitt had not walked Baker in the second frame he would have shut out the White Sox Goofs today. Hitt was certainly right, and four hits were all the Goofs could gather. The score ended 11 to 1 for the Tigers, Kunn followed Baker and forced him at second and then scored on Clootie's double to left. Hogan's hunch ham-mered young Lathrop far, near and often for 15 drives. Wilholt getting four of them and Joe Berger three. — The Goofs played as though they were foundered, the morning prance with the Angels probably being too strennous for them. Piercey worked half the game for Hogan and had speed to burn and excellent control. He got into the hole three times on purpose and each time struck his man out. If not better chance, for the position at shortstop than when the season opened. The development of Murphy has been one of the most remarkable features of the training camp. His first week or more in camp was anything but sensitional and his work at third base was not to be considered. Since being transferred to shortstop, Murphy seems to have taken on a new lease of life and is fielding his position in an ex-cellent manner.
