Yesterday's Results.

At Los Angeles—Los Angeles 3, Portland 1. At San Francisco—Oakland 5, San Francisco 2.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 2.—(Special.)—Jack Ryan's arm and Young Terry's bat made a combination too strong for Portland today in the fourth game of the series and the Beavers lost, 1 to 3.

Ryan led the Portland team down with four hits, one a double, by slugging which later developed into Portland's only run. Terry's single sent in a runner for the Angels in the second and his long sacrifice fly in the sixth sent another man in.

Leonard did good work in the box, but he was an unfortunate kid in allowing three hits and a walk in the second, which were turned into two tallies, and practically lost the game right there.

Krause relieved Leonard in the eighth, and although Krause was not hit, Portland could do nothing with Ryan. In fact, the Beavers hardly got the ball out of the diamond in the last four frames.

Old reliable Gus Fisher made his first error of the season in the third inning, when he tried to catch Abstein's steal. Abstein kept on to third, but got no further.

The Angels got to Leonard in the second. The big fellow walked Margret with one zone. McMullin's out put Margret on second. Then Terry singled, scoring Margret and counting himself a moment later on Brooks' double to right. Ryan followed with a short single to right, but Brooks was held at third.

Stumpf Scores Lone Run. Stumpf hit for two bases, took third on a wild pitch and scored on Lober's long fly to Margret.

The Angels got back in the sixth on Margret's single, McMullin's single, which put Margret on third, and Terry's long fly to Doane, which scored Margret.

Cottin and Stumpf did some fine infield work and it looks as if McCredie's whole infield, probably with one exception, is as good as set for good. Terry had the fielding honors for the Angels. Score:

VENICE DEFEATS SALT LAKE

Tigers' Brilliant Fielding Wins Two Out of Three for Them.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 2.—Venice made it two out of three by beating Salt Lake today, 5 to 2. Salt Lake made an error in the eighth, but brilliant fielding by the visiting outfielders cut off several of the locals at the plate.

In the opening inning Salt Lake made three hits, but two were caught at the plate. Salt Lake made a desperate effort to rally in the ninth, but after Hal Hides had scored the side was retired with men on second and third. Decanieri, who relieved West, pitched well. Bill Orr starred in the field. The score:

OAKLAND AGAIN TRIM SEALS

Game Replete With Errors and Hits Ends With Score of 8 to 6.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—In a game replete with errors and characterized by heavy hitting on both sides, Oakland today defeated San Francisco this afternoon at Recreation Park. The score was 8 to 6.

Both teams had to use extra pitchers, the Oaks sending in three of their twirlers while Wolverton supplanted Pernoll with Baum.

The Seals did not take due advantage of their hitting. Sixteen hits were registered by them and eight Seal runners were left on bases. The San Francisco infielders, Leard and Corhan, made six errors between them. Home runs were made by "Hub" Pernoll and Hellman. Score:
