LATIN ENTERS DIPLOMAS

Compromise Victory Won in Contest at Willamette Law School.

SALEM, Or., April 4.—(Special.)—For the first time in the history of the Willamette College of Law, a department of Willamette University, the diplomas of the graduates this year will be printed partly in Latin.

Heretofore they have been in English and a determined fight was made to have them in English this year. However, about half of the class favored Latin, and the use of both languages was agreed upon at a meeting Saturday night as a compromise. The name of the school, names of the graduates and words "Bachelor of Law" will be in English and the other part of the diploma in Latin.

Vancouver Arrests for Drunkenness Show Enormous Decrease.

VANCOUVER, Wash., April 4.—(Special.)—Since local option has become effective in Vancouver the number of arrests for drunkenness has dropped almost to the vanishing point.

All but two of the men arrested this year obtained their whisky in other places.
