

BUSY DAYS, THESE, FOR JOHN B. YEON

Addresses in Behalf of Bond Issue and Inspections Keep Roadmaster Busy.

SLIDE DAMAGE IS VIEWED

Complaints of Italian Heard, Bonds Advocated Before Meetings of Taxpayers and Work Carefully Watched by Roadman.

Roadmaster Yeon spent an exceedingly strenuous day Saturday. He put in 18 hours and made every minute of the time count.

With Engineer Sydney Smyth, Mr. Yeon made a careful personal inspection of the damage said to have been done.

Then came the climb up the side of the bluff by way of a winding path led by Engineer Smyth, which 60 years ago had been the trail of the Indians.

Farmer Promises Aid. After giving directions to those in charge, Mr. Yeon and his party started down the road to the hill of Columbia Grange.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

THE $1,000,000,000 MYSTERY

VOL. I. PORTLAND, OREG., MULT. CO., APRIL 5, 1915. No. 48.

THE MONDAY CRAWFISH. "It Never Crabs."

EDITORIAL. The common people nowadays disdain old Mars, the god of war, and knock him and his rough-neck ways, and wonder what he sticks round for; indeed I do not recollect a single person that I know who has for Mars the least respect and does not wish that he would go.

With Russia cutting out the nose and France and Germany and England wearing heavy shoes to boot the Demon that is the cause of the trouble, it is not surprising that the Demon should be the cause of the trouble.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL. "Rain is needed," says Forecaster Beale.

Do not disagree with him. O. M. Plummer has been so wet of late that he has had to wear a rubber coat and hat.

It is a pity that the other day we would interview him on the present situation of the city.

Then came the climb up the side of the bluff by way of a winding path led by Engineer Smyth, which 60 years ago had been the trail of the Indians.

Farmer Promises Aid. After giving directions to those in charge, Mr. Yeon and his party started down the road to the hill of Columbia Grange.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

Work of Others Praised. In Mr. Yeon's little book about his work and what he is doing for the good roads movement in this county, he is liberal in his praise of the work of others.

THE UNRAFFISH CRAWFISH. "IT NEVER CRABS"

RABBITVILLE NEWS.

I didn't send you no letter last week because I was not able to get my letter off as per usual.

At a meeting of the Civic League at the Multnomah Hotel, Sat., at noon, at which a large crowd was present, the subject of the proposed road bonds was discussed pro and con.

Democracy Indorsed. The Democratic party was heartily indorsed by Hon. Mill Miller at the banquet of the Jackson Club, Friday night.

Ed Boyce, who owns the Portland Hotel, indorsed it also, and several others, some of whom were Progressives.

A. F. Fiegel, who was a candidate in the last election, also indorsed it, and several other candidates.

What do you think of such a nomination as that? I was glad to get first prize for sense I graduated from college.

Yeg! The pleasant usually read-first, Monday Crawfish, has discovered after a careful perusal of the Monitor that Spring has arrived in independence on April 1.

It is an open question whether Judas hanged himself out of remorse because the other pieces of silver that the high priest had slipped him turned out to be phony.

THE DAYS OUGHT TO LIKE HIM.

Mutual Weekly, which includes Portland scenes, closes the programme.

Ovation Given at National Birth of Savior Among Films on New Bill.

Moore's Musical Comedy Company produced for the first time in Portland "The Night in a Cabaret" at the National Theater yesterday and was received with an ovation by crowded houses.

Other good features on the bill were: "The Birth of Our Savior," a one-act play, showing the coming of the three wise men; and "The Master Thief," with Miriam Nesbit, which showed this finished actress to good advantage.

"The Nigger" Wins Plaudits. Edward Sheldon's Race Problem Play Majestic Offering.

It is difficult to describe "The Nigger," the Majestic theater's attraction, which is too great, it seems to me, to be the race question and its solution is one of overwhelming moment.

Great wars have been fought and still the issue confronts us. Edward Sheldon has offered one phase of the question and its solution in this great play.

The solution of the question is the abolition of the South. That is for the negro. For the descendants who may be of white flesh and blood the only solution so far as offered by Sheldon concerning marriage with a white is "don't."

William Farman does a stupendous piece of work in the play. He appears as the leading role, supported by Claire Whitney. No better acting has ever been done by either. Special attention should be called to the woman who appears as "Mammy Jinny," for her work is splendid.

FRITZ SCHEFF STAR FEATURE. "Pretty Mrs. Smith," Full of Thrills, Fills House to Capacity.

Fascinating Fritz Scheff with her smiles and wiles won the hearts of Portlanders yesterday in her initial performance on the screen in "Pretty Mrs. Smith" at the Star theater.

What is more, she was, in the words of her friend, Letitia, a "trigamist." Mrs. Smith started life with one husband. He got staid. Then she took unto herself another. He drank and was most unsatisfactory.

Then, unfortunately, she fell in love with a married man. He got staid. She followed. So did both her other husbands.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

THE UNRAFFISH CRAWFISH. "IT NEVER CRABS"

RABBITVILLE NEWS.

I didn't send you no letter last week because I was not able to get my letter off as per usual.

At a meeting of the Civic League at the Multnomah Hotel, Sat., at noon, at which a large crowd was present, the subject of the proposed road bonds was discussed pro and con.

Democracy Indorsed. The Democratic party was heartily indorsed by Hon. Mill Miller at the banquet of the Jackson Club, Friday night.

Ed Boyce, who owns the Portland Hotel, indorsed it also, and several others, some of whom were Progressives.

A. F. Fiegel, who was a candidate in the last election, also indorsed it, and several other candidates.

What do you think of such a nomination as that? I was glad to get first prize for sense I graduated from college.

Yeg! The pleasant usually read-first, Monday Crawfish, has discovered after a careful perusal of the Monitor that Spring has arrived in independence on April 1.

It is an open question whether Judas hanged himself out of remorse because the other pieces of silver that the high priest had slipped him turned out to be phony.

THE DAYS OUGHT TO LIKE HIM.

Mutual Weekly, which includes Portland scenes, closes the programme.

Ovation Given at National Birth of Savior Among Films on New Bill.

Moore's Musical Comedy Company produced for the first time in Portland "The Night in a Cabaret" at the National Theater yesterday and was received with an ovation by crowded houses.

Other good features on the bill were: "The Birth of Our Savior," a one-act play, showing the coming of the three wise men; and "The Master Thief," with Miriam Nesbit, which showed this finished actress to good advantage.

"The Nigger" Wins Plaudits. Edward Sheldon's Race Problem Play Majestic Offering.

It is difficult to describe "The Nigger," the Majestic theater's attraction, which is too great, it seems to me, to be the race question and its solution is one of overwhelming moment.

Great wars have been fought and still the issue confronts us. Edward Sheldon has offered one phase of the question and its solution in this great play.

The solution of the question is the abolition of the South. That is for the negro. For the descendants who may be of white flesh and blood the only solution so far as offered by Sheldon concerning marriage with a white is "don't."

William Farman does a stupendous piece of work in the play. He appears as the leading role, supported by Claire Whitney. No better acting has ever been done by either. Special attention should be called to the woman who appears as "Mammy Jinny," for her work is splendid.

FRITZ SCHEFF STAR FEATURE. "Pretty Mrs. Smith," Full of Thrills, Fills House to Capacity.

Fascinating Fritz Scheff with her smiles and wiles won the hearts of Portlanders yesterday in her initial performance on the screen in "Pretty Mrs. Smith" at the Star theater.

What is more, she was, in the words of her friend, Letitia, a "trigamist." Mrs. Smith started life with one husband. He got staid. Then she took unto herself another. He drank and was most unsatisfactory.

Then, unfortunately, she fell in love with a married man. He got staid. She followed. So did both her other husbands.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

THE UNRAFFISH CRAWFISH. "IT NEVER CRABS"

RABBITVILLE NEWS.

I didn't send you no letter last week because I was not able to get my letter off as per usual.

At a meeting of the Civic League at the Multnomah Hotel, Sat., at noon, at which a large crowd was present, the subject of the proposed road bonds was discussed pro and con.

Democracy Indorsed. The Democratic party was heartily indorsed by Hon. Mill Miller at the banquet of the Jackson Club, Friday night.

Ed Boyce, who owns the Portland Hotel, indorsed it also, and several others, some of whom were Progressives.

A. F. Fiegel, who was a candidate in the last election, also indorsed it, and several other candidates.

What do you think of such a nomination as that? I was glad to get first prize for sense I graduated from college.

Yeg! The pleasant usually read-first, Monday Crawfish, has discovered after a careful perusal of the Monitor that Spring has arrived in independence on April 1.

It is an open question whether Judas hanged himself out of remorse because the other pieces of silver that the high priest had slipped him turned out to be phony.

THE DAYS OUGHT TO LIKE HIM.

Mutual Weekly, which includes Portland scenes, closes the programme.

Ovation Given at National Birth of Savior Among Films on New Bill.

Moore's Musical Comedy Company produced for the first time in Portland "The Night in a Cabaret" at the National Theater yesterday and was received with an ovation by crowded houses.

Other good features on the bill were: "The Birth of Our Savior," a one-act play, showing the coming of the three wise men; and "The Master Thief," with Miriam Nesbit, which showed this finished actress to good advantage.

"The Nigger" Wins Plaudits. Edward Sheldon's Race Problem Play Majestic Offering.

It is difficult to describe "The Nigger," the Majestic theater's attraction, which is too great, it seems to me, to be the race question and its solution is one of overwhelming moment.

Great wars have been fought and still the issue confronts us. Edward Sheldon has offered one phase of the question and its solution in this great play.

The solution of the question is the abolition of the South. That is for the negro. For the descendants who may be of white flesh and blood the only solution so far as offered by Sheldon concerning marriage with a white is "don't."

William Farman does a stupendous piece of work in the play. He appears as the leading role, supported by Claire Whitney. No better acting has ever been done by either. Special attention should be called to the woman who appears as "Mammy Jinny," for her work is splendid.

FRITZ SCHEFF STAR FEATURE. "Pretty Mrs. Smith," Full of Thrills, Fills House to Capacity.

Fascinating Fritz Scheff with her smiles and wiles won the hearts of Portlanders yesterday in her initial performance on the screen in "Pretty Mrs. Smith" at the Star theater.

What is more, she was, in the words of her friend, Letitia, a "trigamist." Mrs. Smith started life with one husband. He got staid. Then she took unto herself another. He drank and was most unsatisfactory.

Then, unfortunately, she fell in love with a married man. He got staid. She followed. So did both her other husbands.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

After occupying the attention of the Federal Court for over two months, thereby establishing a record for a continuous trial in this state, the long-drawn-out trial of the suit of the Schaw-Batcher Company Pipe Works, Sacramento, Cal., against the City of Portland was ended Saturday before Judge Bean and the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

THE UNRAFFISH CRAWFISH. "IT NEVER CRABS"

RABBITVILLE NEWS.

I didn't send you no letter last week because I was not able to get my letter off as per usual.

At a meeting of the Civic League at the Multnomah Hotel, Sat., at noon, at which a large crowd was present, the subject of the proposed road bonds was discussed pro and con.

Democracy Indorsed. The Democratic party was heartily indorsed by Hon. Mill Miller at the banquet of the Jackson Club, Friday night.

Ed Boyce, who owns the Portland Hotel, indorsed it also, and several others, some of whom were Progressives.

A. F. Fiegel, who was a candidate in the last election, also indorsed it, and several other candidates.

What do you think of such a nomination as that? I was glad to get first prize for sense I graduated from college.

Yeg! The pleasant usually read-first, Monday Crawfish, has discovered after a careful perusal of the Monitor that Spring has arrived in independence on April 1.

It is an open question whether Judas hanged himself out of remorse because the other pieces of silver that the high priest had slipped him turned out to be phony.

THE DAYS OUGHT TO LIKE HIM.

Mutual Weekly, which includes Portland scenes, closes the programme.

Ovation Given at National Birth of Savior Among Films on New Bill.

Moore's Musical Comedy Company produced for the first time in Portland "The Night in a Cabaret" at the National Theater yesterday and was received with an ovation by crowded houses.

Other good features on the bill were: "The Birth of Our Savior," a one-act play, showing the coming of the three wise men; and "The Master Thief," with Miriam Nesbit, which showed this finished actress to good advantage.

"The Nigger" Wins Plaudits. Edward Sheldon's Race Problem Play Majestic Offering.

It is difficult to describe "The Nigger," the Majestic theater's attraction, which is too great, it seems to me, to be the race question and its solution is one of overwhelming moment.

Great wars have been fought and still the issue confronts us. Edward Sheldon has offered one phase of the question and its solution in this great play.

The solution of the question is the abolition of the South. That is for the negro. For the descendants who may be of white flesh and blood the only solution so far as offered by Sheldon concerning marriage with a white is "don't."

William Farman does a stupendous piece of work in the play. He appears as the leading role, supported by Claire Whitney. No better acting has ever been done by either. Special attention should be called to the woman who appears as "Mammy Jinny," for her work is splendid.

FRITZ SCHEFF STAR FEATURE. "Pretty Mrs. Smith," Full of Thrills, Fills House to Capacity.

Fascinating Fritz Scheff with her smiles and wiles won the hearts of Portlanders yesterday in her initial performance on the screen in "Pretty Mrs. Smith" at the Star theater.

What is more, she was, in the words of her friend, Letitia, a "trigamist." Mrs. Smith started life with one husband. He got staid. Then she took unto herself another. He drank and was most unsatisfactory.</