Candidate of Eugene Business Men Ahead on First City Election Returns.

Question of Allowing Animals to Range About Town Draws Out Voters-Sale of School Is Authorized, Apparently.

EUGENE, Or., April 5 .- (Special.)-Incomplete returns late tonight give W. A. Bell, the business men's candidate for Mayor, a sufficient lead to forecast his election. Mrs. Lou Clinton Fred G. Stickles, two of six candidates for City Treasurer, are running close. The election of C. A. Burden, William Polders and C. O. Peterson as Councilmen appears cer-tain. The contest between S. H. Mosher and William Porter for Coun-

Mosher and William Porter for Coun-cilman is close.

The feature of the entire election is a neck-and-neck vote for and against the abolition of dogs running at large. This issue was largely responsible for bringing out the largest vote ever cast at a city election.

The voters appear to have authorized the sale of the present high school building to the city for use as a City Hall. The voters at a separate school election also authorized this sale.

ST. HELENS, Or., April 5 — (Special.)

The city election held here today was quiet. There was no opposition to the regularly nominated ticket which was placed in the field two weeks ago by a caucus. Not a great deal of interest was manifested and the voting was light, not more than 50 per cent of the veters turning out. The regular ticket is composed of S. C. Morton, for Mayor. H. J. Southard and E. I. Ballagh, for Councilmen; H. P. Watkins, Treasurer; L. E. Allen, Water Commissioner.

OLD SOLDIERS MAKE HIT IN SONGS OF NORTH AND SOUTH.

Strong Play, Dancing, Mimle and Jugglery Combine to Make Week's Attraction Pleasing.

There is a bill at the Empress this week of which the management may well feel proug. Every number is tip top. There isn't a dull moment. Colonel J. A. Pattee presents his old soldier fiddlers as the headline attraction. The boys in bine and the boys in gray are seen as comrades who Join in singing the songs of both North and South. They play the melodies that were dear to them in the days of 5) years ago.

A strong playlet, a former Orpheum attraction, is "Between Eight and Nine," which is presented with splendid dramatic effect by Frederick Karr, Elizabeth Meredith and Winthrop Chamberland. The plot is intensely interesting. It deals with the eternal triangle, man, wife and interloper. The woman's appointment with "the other man" is interrupted by her husband. A vial of poison, some strenuous acting a lot of delightful comedy and character work are woven in the little play which was received with appreciative applause yesierday.

FAMOUS COLORED COMEDIAN IS COMING IN "ZIEGFELD FOLLIES."

CAL SHOW.

Bert Williams, the celebrated colored comedian, who is prominent in the cast of the famous "Ziegfeld Follies," which comes to the Heilig Theater three nights and matinee commencing Thursday, April 8, has not been seen in Portland for more than a dozen years, His last appearance here was with his late partner, George Walker, when they presented "in Dahomey."

when they presented "In Dahomey," Williams made his debut as a comedian in San Francisco in 1831 with Lew Johnson's minstrels. The following year he, in connection with Walker, made their New York debut at Koster & Blal's Music Hall. The team was a sensational success. The next year they performed in the halls of London and Paris. When they returned to America the team of Williams & Walker toured the country for several seasons in musical comedies. Williams is under contract with
F. Ziegfeld, F., for a number of years, and is slated to appear in the New "Ziegfeld Follies," which will open in New York immediately after the tour of the present piece is ended.

PETROGRAD, April 5 .- The War Office tonight gave out the following communication:

"On the third of April in the Black Sea near the Crimean coast our fleet exchanged shots at long range with the cruisers Goeben and Breslau (former German cruisers now under the Turkish flag, having been renamed the Sultan Selim and Midiril, respectively) and pursued them until dusk. "During the night our torpedo-boats encountered the cruisers 100 miles from the Bosphorus, but the enemy opened a vigorous fire and avoided an engage-ment."
